AUTOCRAT SHORN OF POWER.

Czar Issues Manifesto Extending to Russian People Foundations of Civic Liberty and General Participation in Legislation.

Nicholas Will Hereafter Reign as Constitutional Monarch. Strike Ending.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 30.—Following is the text of the imperial manifesto:

"We, Nicholas the Second, by the grace of God, Emperor and Autocrat of all the Russias, Grand Duke of Finland, etc., declare to all our faithful subjects that the troubles and agitation in our capital and in many parts of our empire fill our heart with excessive pain and grief.

"The welfare of the state and the welfare of the sovereign is indissolubly bound up with the happiness of the people and the sorrow of our people is the sorrow of us.

"From the present great national disruption. They menace the integrity of our empire.

"The supreme duty imposed upon us by our sovereign office requires us to efface ourselves to use all our force and reason at our command to hasten in solving the present co-ordination of the power of the central government, and to secure the success of measures for pacification in the disorders of public life, which are essential to the well being of our country.

"We, therefore, command that our government carry out our inflexible will in the following:

EXTENSION OF CIVIC LIBERTY.

"First.—To extend to the population the foundations of civic liberty, based on the real inviolability of person, conscience, speech, union and association.

"Second.—Without suspending the elections already ordered to the state douma, to invite the participation in the douma, so far as the limited time before the convocation of the douma will permit, of those classes of the population now completely deprived of electoral rights, leaving the ultimate development of the principle of electoral right in general to the newly established legislative order of things.

"Third.—To establish as an unchangeable rule that no law shall be enforceable without the approval of the state douma and that it shall be possible for the elected of the people to exercise real participation in the supervision of the legality of the acts of the authorities appointed by us.

"We appeal to all faithful sons of Russia to remember their duty toward the fatherland, to aid in terminating these unprecedented troubles and to apply their forces in co-operation with us to the restoration of calm and peace upon our natal soil.

"Given at Peterhof, October 30, in the eleventh year of our reign. NICHOLAS."

TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

"I am sure the American people, who understand what freedom is, and the American press, which voices the wishes of the people, will rejoice with the friendly Russian nation at this moment, when the Russian people have received from His Imperial Majesty the promises and the guarantees of freedom, and will join in the hope that the Russian people will wisely aid in the realization of those liberties by co-operating with the government for their peaceful introduction. Only thus will it be possible to secure the full benefits of the freedom conferred upon the people."

Count Witte, Russia's first Premier, tonight sent the above message to the American people through the Associated Press. He had just arrived at his residence on Kammeniovrov Prospect from Peterhof, where, in the Alexander Palace, the Emperor two hours before had given his final approval to a manifesto and to a programme which will forever end the rule of absolutism exercised by him and his ancestors for 300 years.

RENUNCIATION COMPLETE.

A simple perusal of the manifesto shows how complete is the Emperor's renunciation of his autocratic power. The very style of the document is clear and direct and devoid of the verbose, vague and bombastic phraseology which heretofore has characterized His Majesty's manifestoes. It not only betrays the real authorship, but shows that the Emperor at last has irrevocably bowed to the inevitable. He does not even conceal the fact that the discontent and agitation of his subjects has driven him to take the steps and practically yields everything—civic liberty, the inviolability of person and liberty of conscience, speech and assembly. He not only converts the farcical imperial douma, with only consultative power, into an absolute legislative assembly without the assent of which no measure shall become law and before which all governmental authorities must answer, but promises eventually universal suffrage.

EMPTY TITLE NOW.

The title "Autocrat of all the Russias," with which the manifesto begins, now takes its place with the title of "King of Jerusalem," borne by the King of Spain and the Emperor of Austria, and with other obsolete titles of European sovereigns.

J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., and George W. Perkins were with Finance Minister Kokosvovoff when the latter received the news and it was a dramatic moment. The Minister was called to the telephone and when he returned he was greatly agitated and said: "Gentlemen, The old order of things has changed. Russia has a constitution."

The news spread like wildfire [illegible] revolutionists threaten an attempt to keep up the present struggle, the best opinion is that the backbone of the strike is broken, but in final analysis the effect will depend upon how far Count Witte will be able to execute the heavy task which he has assumed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31, 3:30 a.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The strike has ended on the Moscow and St. Petersburg, the Moscow and Kazan and the Moscow and Archangel railroads.

CHARGE EDDY REPORTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The State Department received a cablegram from Spencer Eddy, the American Charge at St. Petersburg, late this afternoon, conveying the information that the situation there is unchanged.

ANDREW D. WHITE CONFIDENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ITHACA (N. Y.) Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Andrew D. White, formerly Ambassador to Russia, seems confident that the action of the Emperor in granting a legislative assembly and appointing Count Witte as minister-president will bring about great changes in that country. He said tonight: "Judging from what I saw of M. Witte in Russia and what I have observed regarding him since, we have reason to hope that he will establish order and the beginning of constitutional liberty."

St. Petersburg used since the strike began. The incident occurred near the Polytechnic School, but there was no fatality. Practically all classes, except the Socialists and the extreme Radicals, however, read the document with delight and amazement and declared that it could not fail to rally the Moderates to the support of Count Witte.

By the irony of fate, while the strikers are clamoring for a constitution it has been impossible to persuade the striking printers to resume work, and therefore not a single newspaper except the Official Messenger will print the momentous document for distribution tomorrow. Arrangements have been made, however, to placard the manifesto on every dead wall in the city and the text will be telegraphed tomorrow to every city, town and hamlet with which there is telegraphic communication. It also has been read in the churches of the empire. The foreign embassies were notified and lights are burning late tonight in the chancelleries where the news is being put into cipher.

IT'S UP TO WITTE NOW.

The effect throughout Russia is expected to be instantaneous. While the CZAR TOOK REPORT OF WITTE AS GUIDE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 30.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Count Witte's report to the Emperor, who inscribed thereon, "to be taken for guide," is as follows:

"Your Majesty has deigned to indicate to me directions for a government in consideration of the actual state of Russia.

"The agitation of human society is not the outcome of partial imperfections in the social and governmental régime or of actions organized by the extreme elements. Its roots are much deeper. It took birth in the violation of the balance between the moral aspirations and the exterior forms of Russian society.

"Believing that Russia aspires to laws based on civil liberty, the chief problem of the government consists in making effective, even before approval by the State Douma, all elements of civil liberty in the elaboration of normal legislative measures, giving equality before the laws to all Russians without distinction of race or religion.

"The problems ensuing consist in the establishment of legislative forms seeking to guarantee the benefits of civil, political and economic liberty. These benefits should be extended to the masses of the people under the reserves safeguarding the laws in all civilized countries.

"It must be realized, then, that these objects cannot be attained immediately, as no government could suddenly prepare 135,000,000 men, with a vast administration, for new liberties. It is therefore necessary to have the powers of a homogenous government united in its extremes, taking care to put in practice the stimulating principles of liberty and to display sincerity and uprightness in its intentions.

"The government should abstain from any interference with elections to the Douma and keep in view my sincere desire for the realization of the ukase of December 25, 1904. It must maintain the prestige of the Douma and have confidence in its labors and in no way resist its decisions so long as they are consistent with Russia's historic greatness.

"It is necessary to respect the ideals of the great majority of society and not the echoes of noisy groups and factions, too often unstable. It is especially important to secure the reform of the Council of the Empire on an electoral principle.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

"I believe that in the exercise of executive power the following principles should be embodied:

"First—Straightforwardness and sincerity in the confirmation of civil liberty and in providing guarantees for its maintenance.

"Second—A tendency in the direction of the abolition of exclusive laws.

"Third—The cooperation of the activity of all organs of government.

"Fourth—Avoidance of repressive measures in respect of proceedings which do not openly menace society or the State.

"Fifth—Resistance to acts which manifestly threaten society or the State, such resistance being based upon law and moral unity.

"Confidence must be placed in the political tact of Russian society. It is impossible that society should desire a condition of anarchy which would threaten, in addition to all the horrors of civil strife, the dismemberment of the empire."

MITCHELL NOT CONFIRMED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, it is understood, voted not to confirm the nomination of H. G. Mitchell, who was charged with heresy by Rev. J. W. Shenk of Los Angeles and other Californians. The vote was very close, Mitchell's friends fighting hard.

The result is officially kept secret until the action is communicated to the Board of Trustees, of Boston University, who want him badly to teach Hebrew and Greek in the Theological Seminary.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The President was transferred to the U.S.S Dolphin, and, aboard that vessel, left Wolf Trap Light at 10:40 a.m., and should arrive at the Navy Yard at Washington between 10 and 11 a.m. today.

[Signed) "HIBBEN."

The following message was received at the Washington Navy Yard early this morning:

"Please inform the Navy Department that the Dolphin, with the President aboard, left Wolf Trap Lightat 10:40 a.m., and should arrive at the Navy Yard at Washington between 10 and 11 a.m. today.

"HIBBEN."

Lands on board, convoying the battleships Colorado, Pennsylvania and Maryland, passed in the Virginia Capes at 9:30 o'clock tonight. On account of the heavy sea, it was decided that the President would not trans-ship to the Dolphin at Lyon Haven Inlet, as intended. The Dolphin and the cruiser squadron proceeded up the Chesapeake Bay.

Admiral Evans's squadron will anchor thirty miles out from Annapolis this evening, and proceeded to Annapolis Harbor at noon tomorrow.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—A wireless telegram from Secretary Loeb, who is aboard the cruiser West Virginia with the President, was received at the Washington Navy Yard early this evening by Operator P. S. Geagan, in charge of the station there. The first portion of the dispatch was unintelligible. The latter part was addressed to Washington, and was as follows:

"———— speed of 13 knots, and with a strong breeze from the northward and eastward with a moderate sea on our beam.

"This afternoon the Maryland, which is a sister ship of the West Virginia, the Pennsylvania and the Colorado, joined us, and after rendering the customary salute to the President's flag took her position in the squadron. The President spent this morning on the forward bridge and this afternoon on the after bridge."

PAID FOR BABY'S COFFIN.

San Franciscan Sends Conscience Money for Stealing a Casket Seven Years Ago.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GREELEY (Colo.) Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Seven years ago, a handsome baby's coffin was stolen from Undertaker Macy, and despite a search, could not be located. Today the mystery was cleared up when a letter came to Macy from San Francisco saying:

"Here is $45, including interest, to pay you for the coffin I stole from your rooms seven years ago. Do not think hard of me, for I was desperate at the time. Shortly after arriving in Greeley, our baby died suddenly. I had no money to pay for burial. I stepped into your office. No one was there. I picked up the coffin, went out the back door and home. For years I have been in bad luck, but lately have a position and am making good wages."

The correspondent of ... Press asked the Foreign Minister ... visited the public buildings ... Dahlia Statue in this school, ... perial Chancellor would ... Germany's opinions with ... elders. Bulow was ... the correspondent's ... today. Bulow said:

"I do not ...

"Germany is ... to shape its commercial policy according to rigid dogma as the United States. We desire to promote the interests of our country, and act in consideration of its economic needs. The old tariff of 1879, with the amendments added to it in the course of time, no longer correspond in view of the development of Germany's economic life with other interests. Germany's agriculture in' particular suffered in consequence of the treaties of the '90's, whose chief purpose was to win foreign markets. For this reason special attention was given to German agriculture in the new tariffs. That this aim is not hostile to the commercial treaties, and can be reconciled with the spirit of consideration for the interests of other countries, we have provided by the negotiation of a series of new commercial conventions. With the United States we can live upon a friendly footing in trade relations, and extend our system of exchanges to the advantage of both countries. Such is our will."

"Could not the existing arrangement, resting on the most-favored-nation interpretation of the existing treaties be continued? That appears to be the prevailing sentiment in the United States."

Prince von Buelow, replying, said:

"A continuation of the present conditions unchanged is not possible, if only for the reason that our agreement of 1900 with the United States is founded expressly upon tariff duties. Under the old commercial treaties with Austria-Hungary, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, Servia, Roumania and Russia these duties, in consequence of our new tariff and our new commercial treaties, will be abolished at the end of February, 1906. Thus the German-American management will lose its basis when the new tariff goes into effect March 1, next, and therefore the imperial government is under the necessity of giving notice of the termination of this agreement on March 1.

"We by no means wish, however, that the present agreement should not be superseded by other arrangement. We have naturally a wish for a new agreement with the United States, and this wish corresponds not only with the friendly political relation of the two nations, but also with the economic needs of both.

"The imperial ambassador, Baron Speck von Sternberg, who will return in a few days to his post at Washington, will lay before the American government proposals corresponding to this statement of the case. Of course, we wish in our new agreement with the United States to maintain the same points of view as those that controlled us in regulating our general commercial [illegible] and in the new treaties already negotiated.

"We have accordingly drawn our proposals after a careful examination of the German interests affected. Our propositions will, I think, be quite practical interests, and we shall approach the American government with no request that would injure the vital features of the American economic organism.

"It seems to me that interested parties on both sides set their hopes too high, are sometimes let their fears go [illegible]. Moreover, they do not always [illegible] consider sufficiently the conditions on the other side. We hope, with the cooperation that the American government has always emphasized, that a just reciprocity will be the basis of all commercial agreements, and we will be able to reach an agreement satisfactory to both nations.

"Should you conduct such negotiations by correspondence?" was asked.

"The most expeditious means for [illegible] the work," said the Prince, "will be that ten men on both sides, having special acquaintances with customs and tariff matters, should meet for an open and frank interchange of views and friendly explanations. A good acquaintance with the standpoint of the opposite party always has a wholesome and conciliatory effect. Perhaps an agreement could be attained in this way more surely and more quickly."

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Col. Manuel Sanguily tonight was shown a dispatch from Havana in which Senator Zayas [illegible] surprise that he should oppose the Anglo-Cuban treaty, he replied:

"I don't see why Senator Zayas should be surprised whether I am for the British treaty or against it. It is a matter of personal opinion. However, I have evidently been misquoted. CAPIASES ARE SERVED ON SEVEN WELL-KNOWN CITIZENS.

Arrest of Former Register Peter Campbell, Treasurer P. E. Beeney, Clerk A. A. McKean, Ex-Newspaper Proprietor D. W. Irwin, Hotel Man W. E. Buell and Ranchmen Stoner and Smith.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, Oct. 30.—Capiases were served today on seven well-known residents of Washington and Yuma counties, located in the northeastern portion of Colorado, based on indictments returned by the Federal grand jury sitting at Pueblo last week, charging forgery and perjury in the location of government lands in the counties referred to. Those arrested are Peter Campbell of Akron, Colo., former Register of the Land Office; P. E. Beeney, treasurer of Washington county; A. A. McKean, clerk of the District Court of Yuma county; D. W. Irwin, prominent politician and former newspaper proprietor of Akron; W. E. Buell, hotel man of Yuma; E. C. Stoner and O. P. Smith, ranchmen.

Inspectors of the land office have been working on this investigation quietly for several months. They assert that a great number of the offenses have become outlawed, and that nothing can be done in these instances. But they further declare that their investigation is by no means completed, and that the next Federal grand jury will be presented with evidence that they confidently believe will result in many additional arrests.

The plan followed by the alleged violators of the law in the Akron district, the inspectors explain, was to make fraudulent final proofs on abandoned timber-culture claims.

ARTIST KEPT HIS WORD.

Did Not Die Until He had Finished Chest for Bridal Trousseau.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—"I will not die until I have finished that chest," was the prophecy made a short time ago by Robert B. Rascovich, watercolor artist and woodcarver, who died yesterday of a stroke of apoplexy. The chest referred to was an ornately-carved piece of furniture, designed to contain a bridal trousseau. It was started a few months ago, and shortly afterward the artist was stricken.

True to his word, however, the woodcarver "stuck to his task, although growing daily weaker, until he saw his creation practically completed. Then he laid down his tools, believing that his masterpiece in that branch of art would survive. The work proved his last.

One of Rascovich's paintings, "A Canal in Venice," received a prize at the World's Fair in 1892. He was born in Dalmatia in 1855, studied in the schools of Vienna and Paris, and then took up his residence in Italy, where he made a study of woodcarving. He came to Chicago in 1892, and opened a studio.

A mob last night destroyed the hotel DeFrance.

KILL OR WOUND OVER HUNDRED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

REVAL, Oct. 30.—The troops fired two volleys on a crowd in the market place today, killing or wounding over a hundred persons.

PLANNING A COUP D' ETAT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 30.—A wild rumor was current this afternoon that Gen. Budiger, head of the Guard Regiments, is planning a coup d' etat.

RICH JEWS BEHIND STRIKERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 30.—It is circumstantially reported that rich Jews are behind the strikers, for the purpose of forcing the government to grant equal [illegible] to their co-religionists.

[illegible] IN SYNAGOGUE.

[illegible] [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON [illegible]ON, Oct. 30.—A mob attacked the synagogue here today. Two Jews were killed. Finally, the rioters were dispersed by Cossacks, who used their whips.

TERROR PREVAILS IN CAUCASUS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GROZNYI (Russia) Oct. 30.—A reign of terror prevails in Northern Caucasus. It is charged that the authorities are turning one class against another and abetting the work of the brigands.

MANY KILLED OR WOUNDED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

RIGA (Russia) Oct. 30.—During the day, collisions between the troops and the armed populace continued. Many persons were killed or wounded. The strikers used knives and revolvers and killed a number of police with cold steel.

POPULATION JOINS STRIKE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VITEBSK (Russia) Oct. 30.—The whole population of this city has joined in the strike. The feeling is high, trade is at a standstill, the workmen's meetings are crowded to the doors, inflammatory speeches are delivered and the banks refuse to lend money.

WORSE AT LODZ EVERY HOUR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LODZ (Russian Poland) Oct. 30.—The situation here grows worse hourly. The infantry, when ordered to fire on the people are discharging the rifles in the air. Crowds are busily tearing down Russian flags which were displayed by order of the police.

"FORWARD MOVEMENT."

Prominent Episcopal Bishops and Clergymen at Chicago Urging Church Extension.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The third conference of the "Layman's Forward Movement" began yesterday with sermons in forty-four Episcopal churches of the city, prominent bishops and clergymen urging the churchmen to unite in carrying on a campaign for church extension. The congregations at all of the services were large, the combined attendance perhaps reaching 30,000 or 35,000 men and women. Delegates are in the city from all parts of the Middle West.

Strong denunciations of the self-centered interest of the Episcopal church in America, and a stirring appeal for the awakening of a true missionary spirit were the notes struck by the Rt. Rev. Boyd Vincent, bishop of Southern Ohio, in his sermon at St. James Church.

METHODIST WOMEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—A membership of 217,000; receipts amounting to nearly $500,000; 275 missionaries spreading the gospel in India, Malaysia, the Philippines, China, Korea, Japan, Mexico, South America, Bulgaria, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Norway and Africa, and twenty-six new missionaries sent into the field—these were among the impressive facts which Mrs. C. S. Nutter of St. Albans, Vt., temporary secretary, presented to the members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church at the society's anniversary meeting in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church last night. The year just passed had been one of great progress and more encouraging results.

From Halifax the second cruiser squadron, under command of Rear-Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg, sailed yesterday for Annapolis. An interesting feature of the trip will be a power and speed trial of the ships.

REVOLT.

Official Messenger hurried into a crowd of strikers. The instant the news became known the strikers raised an uproarious cheer and the Cossacks who were patrolling the street, mistaking the import of the demonstration and thinking the cries were seditious, charged and dispersed the workmen with their whips.

At all the fashionable restaurants wine was drunk in toasts to "Liberty and the Constitution."

Count Witte insisted on a Cabinet on the British model, with a selected Premier responsible to the imperial douma, or parliament, while the Emperor clung to the appointment of the members of the Cabinet on the American plan, by the Emperor as chief of state.

FOREIGN RESIDENTS SAFE.

Former Minister Lamsdorff is reassuring the Ambassadors by formally guaranteeing the safety of foreign residents. He announces that the government is prepared to afford them military protection in St. Petersburg and elsewhere in event of disorders.

The employés on the section of the Finnish Railroad between St. Petersburg and the Finnish frontier, fifteen miles north of this city, have struck. This portion of the road is operated by Russians.

Trepoff forbade a meeting of the Town Council called for today to consider the demands of the strikers made yesterday. These demands include a constitution and political liberty, that the city furnish food to the workmen, that they refuse further supplies to the troops and the police, and that the troops be removed from the waterworks, or otherwise the strikers would cut the water supply. A private meeting of the members of the Town Council has been arranged for tonight, at which a response will be given.

NO BLACK SEA MUTINY.

There appears to be no foundation for the rumors of mutiny on the vessels of the Black Sea fleet, which are in circulation in Odessa and which have been industriously propagated by the strikers here for several days. The following dispatch from the Associated Press correspondent at Odessa, just received, does not even mention the alleged mutiny:

"After yesterday's exciting occurrences, when the gunshops were plundered, barricades built and the troops in dispersing crowds were forced to fire several volleys, quiet prevailed today.

"This is a holiday, the anniversary of the escape of Alexander III from a train wreck. All the banks and stores are closed.

"The number of killed and wounded in yesterday's disturbances has not yet been determined, but it is not large."

RESTRAINING THE PEOPLE.

The strike committee continues to restrain the people, this being considered the best means of attaining the end in view, but behind the scenes the members of the committee are holding constant meetings with the leaders of the various groups and seem to be preparing for a bold stroke at the opportune moment. The committeemen know that open collision would force a show of hands. The army, they say, is being gradually won over to the people's cause. Only the Cossacks, who are referred to as Emperor Nicholas's "Swiss Guards" are absolutely faithful to the existing régime. The Ismailovsky Guard regiment, which was reported disaffected during the troubles last winter, is now reported to have refused to do guard duty and is to be confined to barracks surrounded by Cossacks. An investigation by the Associated Press, however, failed to confirm the report.

During the night, firing occurred at the polytechnic school, where a number of students are held prisoners. The Cossacks surrounding the building, dispersed the workmen with their whips and were denounced by the students from the windows. The students finally fired, unhorsing two soldiers. Thereupon, the Cossacks fired two volleys. The result is not known.

A policeman in the Vassilie Ostrov district was found dead this morning, having been murdered on his beat. Many of the policemen are afraid of losing their lives and have refused to do patrol duties. Their places have been taken by foot soldiers.

SITUATION GENERALLY WORSE.

The news from the provinces indicates that the authorities are getting control in some sections, but, generally, the situation is growing worse instead of improving. In many places, the students and strikers are fighting the "black hundred," as the bands of roughs are termed.

The demands of the people are increasing proportionately with the success of the demonstration. The cry for a constituent assembly is now almost universal, but the "reds" declare that even this will not satisfy the people, and argue that there must be some "lamp-post work."

On account of the food shortage even the first class restaurants have increased their prices. The Minister of Finance has issued an order permitting meat importation by water. The scarcity of milk is especially felt.

The telephone girls have joined the strikers and soldiers are replacing them, but the latter are attending chiefly to official calls.

Many of the theaters are closed, the actors being among the strikers.

Prices on the Bourse today were firmer.

LOAN IS POSTPONED.

The negotiations for the new Russian loan were definitely adjourned at a meeting of the financiers today. Both sides agree that it would be inopportune to place a loan on the foreign markets until the interior situation has changed. The parting of the foreign bankers and Kokovsoff, the Finance Minister, was entirely amicable, the former expressing their willingness to return to St. Petersburg and resume the negotiations at the Minister's invitation.

During the negotiations, Kokovsoff told the bankers that it was the intention of the government to employ the proceeds of the loan for the liquidation of war expenses, the repatriation of the army, etc., and to generally restore the ante bellum status quo. There is also a tacit understanding to place orders for warships in the countries participating in the loan.

The foreign bankers have arranged to leave St. Petersburg in a body Wednesday, by water. A steamer has been chartered for this purpose.

NO SURPRISE TO WASHINGTON.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Recent reports received by the State Department from the American embassy at St. Petersburg had prepared officials here for the news that an imperial mandate granting civic liberty, freedom of the press, immunity of person, including the right of habeas corpus, had been issued by the Czar. It was said at the State Department this afternoon that Mr. Eddy had made no report as to the issuance of this imperial mandate. All officials of the government are gratified that this important step has been taken.

HILL BUYING U.P.

BOSTON (Mass.) Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Harriman people are watching very closely the buying of Union Pacific. Just before the issue of $100,000,000 new preferred stocks, a few months ago, the buying of the stock was most mysterious. This same mysterious buying has continued, and the sellers are not positive that they know where the stock has gone. J. J. Hill's brokers bought 10,000 shares today.

Santa Fe Right of Way.

TULSA (I. T.) Oct. 30.—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railway Company has asked the court in Muskogee to appoint an appraising board, to condemn a right of way from here to Shawnee, Okla., 120 miles. This will connect the branch between Independence, Kan., and Tulsa and the Oklahoma lines in Shawnee.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A dense fog during the early morning, followed by a cold drizzling rain, which continued throughout the day and evening, gave a dreary aspect to Chicago weather today. The fog, rain and a slight rise of temperature resulted from the change of wind to the south. The minimum temperature was 39 degs.; maximum was 44 degs. Middle West temperatures:

MACHINISTS' STRIKE ENDS.

The machinists' strike, involving originally more than twelve hundred men and affecting dozens of Chicago factories, was brought to an end tonight, eighteen months after its origin, and another defeat was recorded against labor-unionism. None of the factories against which the walkout was directed have been removed from the city since the origin of the strike. Others have continued work with non-union men. When the strike was inaugurated, there were 1200 men on the rolls. There are now fifty-five drawing strike benefits.

HARRISONS TO CALIFORNIA.

Former Mayor Carter H. Harrison left the city, tonight, with Mrs. Harrison and children, who are enroute to the Harrison winter home at San Diego, Cal. Harrison will make the trip only as far as Denver, returning to Chicago after a day's stop in that city. Later, he will go to California to spend the winter.

BLOOMINGTON BANK RUN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BLOOMINGTON (Ill.) Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ignorance of banking customs precipitated a run on the Corn Belt Bank this afternoon. Not since the Home Bank failed, in the late '70's were such sensational scenes enacted. A woman presented a check drawn by a man whose account had expired. It was returned to her stamped "no funds." She immediately proclaimed that the bank was out of money and could not honor its paper. The story spread like wildfire, and for three hours a howling crowd of depositors besieged the bank to get their money. Interstate Commerce Commissioner Yiser, a director, and others vainly endeavored to quiet the mob.

TIED TO THE TRACK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CINCINNATI (O.) Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evidence is accumulating to indicate that Stewart L. Pierson, the Kenyon College freshman who was killed by a train on a railroad bridge, Saturday night, while awaiting initiation in the Delta Kappa Upsilon Fraternity, did not fall asleep on the track as reported. Coroner Scarborough says that on Pierson's right wrist and left are marks made by a rope. This lends color to the supposition that Pierson was tied to a track on which the students did not know a train was to pass.

CASHIER FOUND SHORT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MANSFIELD (Ill.) Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The announcement was made today that Cashier Langley of the First National Bank has been found nearly $30,000 short. He is said to have lost the money speculating in wheat on the Chicago Board of Trade. He has turned over his property, and this, together with the aid of his friends, has made good the amount to the bank. W. D. Fairbanks, president of the bank, is a brother of Vice-President Charles Warren Fairbanks.

GIRLS' SCHOOL INVESTIGATION.

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A council of women has demanded an investigation of the Industrial School for Girls, a State institution managed wholly by women.

Two Battleship Divisions Go To Prepare Reception for Battenberg's Squadron.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NORFOLK (Va.) Oct. 30.—The two battleship divisions of the North Atlantic fleet under command of Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans sailed from Hampton Roads at 4 o'clock this morning for Annapolis, where they go to prepare for a reception to the British North Atlantic squadron, under command of Prince Louis of Battenberg, which is due at Annapolis in the next few days.

The vessels which proceeded to Annapolis were the battleships Kentucky, Kearsarge, Alabama, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Maine and Massachusetts and the gunboats Mayflower and Yankton.

JAPANESE LOANS CALLED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Kuhn, Loeb & Co., as syndicate managers of the several Japanese loans floated in this country, have called loans amounting to from $16,000,000 to $15,000,000 for the account of the last Japanese loan, to be paid tomorrow. This money will be deposited to the credit of the Japanese fiscal agents in this country and will leave balances here for account of the Japanese government of about $40,000,000.

FRENCH PARLIAMENT OPENS.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—Crowds attended the opening of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies today. The Senate received the report of the committee on the bill providing for the separation of church and state. The Chamber decided to take up the budget November 7. The Council of Ministers has decided to ask the Senate to immediately begin the debate on the bill providing for workingmen's pensions.

MIKADO BREAKS PRECEDENT.

TOKIO, Oct. 31.—The members of the Diplomatic Corps having requested an audience for the purpose of presenting felicitations upon the conclusion of peace, the Mikado received them this morning and afterward invited them to luncheon, together with the Imperial Princes, Ministers of State and Baron Komura's suite. The action of the Mikado in inviting the Diplomatic Corps to luncheon upon other than a state occasion is without precedent.

NEW YORK'S POPULATION.

ALBANY (N. Y.) Oct. 30.—The population of Greater New York, as counted by the State Enumeration Bureau June 1 and announced today, is 4,014,304, as compared with 3,437,202 in 1900 and 2,507,414 in 1890.

Vessel Arrives at San Francisco After Mutiny.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WALLA WALLA, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Pursuant to a letter from Gov. Mead of Washington, the State Board of Control has begun an investigation of Warden A. F. Kees and other officials of the State Penitentiary located here.

There are five specific charges against Warden Kees. They are: Causing employés to register illegally for the municipal election in Walla Walla; refusing to follow the advice of the resident physician, Dr. Y. C. Blalock, with a typhoid-fever epidemic as the result; unreasonable delay, by which the execution of a prisoner has failed to take place; failure to have the jute factory inspected; retaining Philip Berry, turnkey, who is charged with being morally unfit for the position.

SAILORS DREW KNIVES
MUTINY ON BRITISH BARK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SEATTLE, Oct. 30.—The British bark Dundee, Capt. James Stephens, arrived yesterday. The vessel sailed from Bremen, Germany, March 4, bound for Seattle. In June, when the vessel attempted to sail around the Horn, ten of the crew of fourteen were laid up, sick and worn out from overwork and poor food. Heavy gales forced the ship back. After beating around the Cape for a week, with only three able-bodied men, the other sailors forced the captain to put about and run for Cape Town. Before reaching that port the sailors recovered to some extent and the captain refused to land.

In the Straits of Sunda, July 8, the crew mutinied. The sailors drew knives and forced the officers to seek protection in their cabin. The officers secured guns and subdued the sailors, taking their knives from them. The men refused to work the ship and she had a narrow escape from drifting on the rocks. In Batavia the crew was placed in irons. A crew of coolies was shipped and the vessel was navigated to Singapore, where the sailors were tried for mutiny. Part of the number was sentenced to eleven weeks' imprisonment and the rest to nine weeks at hard labor. The men contended that poor food and brutal treatment of the officers had forced them to mutiny.

On the way to this port a topsail yard was lost in a heavy gale. This compelled her to lay to for ten days.

REILLY TAKES A REST.
GOLDFIELD RUMOR FALSE

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A report was circulated this evening, which was traced to an irresponsible source in Goldfield, that B. J. Reilly, who has just cleaned up half a million from the proceeds of his lease of the Florence mine at Goldfield, was insane in this city.

Reilly is at the Palace Hotel, and though he had gone to bed when a reporter called, his friends at the hotel say that he is in good health and that nothing is the matter with him. He is taking a vacation after tremendous work for the last month, when he was on duty day and night, urging three shifts of miners to get out all the rich ore possible.

LIEUT. OTIS MISSING.
OFFICERS CAN'T FIND HIM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] First Lieut. Frank L. Otis of Fourth Cavalry, U.S.A., who startled the army by advertising for a civilian position when the birth of twins gave him seven mouths to feed on $1670 a year, has disappeared and the War Department has not been able to find him. He has been missing since October 1, when he left New York for the Presidio in this city. His commanding officer has no idea of his whereabouts.

WENT TO WASHINGTON.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] What has become of Lieut. Frank Otis of the Fourth Cavalry is a problem which his family and the military officials are trying to solve. Otis, who was stationed at the Presidio at San Francisco, disappeared from there early in September, and a week or so later he turned up in New York, acting strangely.

His brother took him to Governor's Island, where he was placed in the hospital. The medical authorities pronounced him to be temporarily deranged. After remaining in the hospital three weeks, he was discharged and was ordered to return to the Presidio for duty. He went to Washington. Since then nothing has been heard from him.

The cutter had been undergoing repairs at Moran's yards. Wild was in charge Sunday night. He went for a walk on the deck and was not seen afterwards. It is believed that he stumbled over an anchor chain and fell on some piling, close beside which the body was found.

GUARDED BY THE SHERIFF.
PETER PEMBERTON'S REFUGE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WINSLOW (Ariz.) Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Peter Pemberton, who killed George J. Giles, night marshal of Winslow, Saturday, is in the home of Sheriff Houck. Three months ago, Pemberton had Houck run down two men who held up the Climax saloon here, and got a large sum. Pemberton killed the one who was about to kill Houck, saving the latter. For this reason, Houck is guarding Pemberton in his home, not being willing to put the man who saved him in jail.

Last night, the coroner's jury declared the killing felonious. Sheriff Houck pledged himself to be personally responsible for Pemberton's appearance for trial.

Forty Stamp Mills Burn.

ANGELS, Oct. 30.—The Lightner Hoisting works and forty stamp mills were destroyed by fire early this morning. The loss is $150,000, with insurance of $50,000. The fire caught in the candle room, where the men change their clothing on going to work, probably from a candle near a miner's coat. One thousand cords of wood were also destroyed. Sixteen men who were in the mine escaped through the 600-foot shaft in an adjoining mine. The Lightner plant is owned principally by Stockton capitalists.

Emmons Jury not Incapacitated.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 30.—In the Emmons case, Dist.-Atty. Seymour today continued his argument this forenoon in Judge Hart's department of the Superior Court, contending there had been no misconduct on the part of the jurors, and reading authorities holding that the court had not erred in its rulings. The attorney for the defense made a short argument in which he touched upon points previously made as to the misconduct of the jury and errors of the court. Judge Hart remarked that he did not think the jurors were incapacitated. He said the evidence did not show that large quantities of liquor were drunk on the outings of the jury.

CARS SCRAPE ROCK WALLS.

California Express Wrecked Near Kansas City.

Thirteen Persons Killed and Thirty Injured.

Passengers Chiefly Emigrants for Los Angeles.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 30.—Thirteen persons were killed and thirty injured in the wreck, today, of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé passenger train No. 1, known as the "California Express," which, while running at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour, struck a loose rail, ditching five cars, one mile east of Blue River, which is the eastern limit of this city. The train left Chicago at 10 o'clock last night and was due here at 10:30 this morning. It is a through train, running between Chicago and San Francisco, and was running at a higher speed than usual today, being ten or fifteen minutes behind its schedule.

The wreck occurred at what railroad men call the Rock Creek cut, on a curve where jagged rock walls on either side of the track form a bluff almost a hundred feet high. The engine was going so rapidly that it passed the loose rail in safety. The mail car, immediately behind, jumped the track and struck the side of the bluff to the right, and the four cars following ploughed through it and shot against the high stone wall at the left. The sides of the coaches were torn off by scraping against the rough stone surface, and passengers and trainmen ground against the wall were either killed outright or badly hurt.

The cars which left the track were a mail car, a baggage and express car, the smoking car, a chair car and a tourist sleeping car. Three tourist sleepers, two standard Pullmans and the dining car remained on the track. The smoking car split the baggage car ahead of it just below the floor line, and the baggage car, when it stopped, was on top of what was left of the smoking car. The other derailed cars were jammed against the rocks, except the splintered fragments of the smoker.

None of the passengers in the cars which remained on the track was hurt.

Relief trains with physicians and surgeons left this city for the scene of the wreck as soon as possible. Pending the arrival of the relief trains, the able-bodied passengers and trainmen did all they could to care for the dead and relieve the distress of the injured. Their efforts were handicapped by a cold rain, which fell steadily and added to the gloom of the situation. The passengers worked heroically under difficulties, and when the doctors arrived, most of the dead and injured had been taken out of the wreckage. In many instances it was necessary to dig under the débris to extricate the unfortunate victims.

One man in the smoker had been pinioned against a hot stove, with one foot in the stove, suffering untold agonies ere his foot was slowly burned by live coals. This was one of many agonizing scenes witnessed by the rescuers.

The injured were given emergency treatment at the scene of the wreck, and later brought to hospitals in this city, where it is reported tonight that all will recover. The dead were taken in charge by the county coroner and brought to local morgues. J. B. Whittemore of Carrollton, Mo., who was severely scalded, died at a hospital here tonight.

Most of the passengers are immigrants en route from the East to Los Angeles.

The dead:

INVESTIGATION OF THE MUTUAL.

VACANCY LEFT IN COMMITTEE NOT YET FILLED.

Both This Company and the New York Life Will Fight the Quo Warranto Proceedings—President Frelinghuysen of the Newark Concern Denies Contributions.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—William H. Truesdale, president of the Lackawanna road, and John W. Auchincloss, members of the trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, appointed to investigate the management of that company, met in this city today to fill the vacancy caused by Edingham R. Morris's declination to serve on the committee. They reached no decision on that subject, however.

COMPANIES WILL FIGHT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Both the New York and Mutual Life, it is believed, says the Tribune, will fight the quo warranto proceedings begun in the Circuit Court at Akron, O., by Prosecuting Attorney Hargelbarger, Saturday, to oust these two companies from the State.

Doubt is expressed here as to the legality of such proceedings. A lawyer interested in one of the companies affected said last night: "Presuming that the press dispatches are correct, and that there is not some insurance law peculiar to the State of Ohio alone, it would seem that a district attorney has usurped the functions belonging probably to the insurance commissioner or the Attorney General of Ohio. Quo warranto proceedings virtually challenge the legality of a company's charter and existence. How this can be done in the present instance I fail to see."

Frederick Frelinghuysen, president of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., in answer to the request of Commissioner Folk of Tennessee, has made an affidavit denying that his company in the last ten years has contributed anything for political purposes.

President Frelinghuysen deposes that $651 appropriated for special legislation was not used for bribery, or for improperly influencing Legislatures, but was paid to accredited representatives of the company in States outside of New Jersey as counsel fees and for presenting to policy holders and Legislatures the reasons for or against certain legislation. The affidavit shows that all disbursements were authorized by executive officers of the company.

DAY OF RECKONING IN POLITICAL FIELD.

Elections Next Tuesday in Seven States and Six of the Larger Cities. Nominations Made by the Respective Parties.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Standard voting machine to be used at the coming municipal election, November 7, was given a test, today, before the committee representing the Fusionists, as it had been claimed that it was possible to beat the machine. A linotype operator on an afternoon paper showed that by placing a small rubber band in a certain place near the name of the Fusion candidate for Mayor, the machine would not register for the Mayor, though it would include all other candidates.

The expert representing the machine company and half a dozen newspaper men were unable to make the machine register for the Mayor while the rubber band was in place. This is the same machine that has been used in New York and other eastern cities, and this is the first time that it has been demonstrated that it was possible to tamper with it to the extent of counting out a candidate.

BETTING ON PARTRIDGE.

DECIDED CHANGE NOTED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There has been a decided change in the betting on the local election. Early last week, some money was laid at odds of 10 to 7, Schmitz being on the long end. Then it went to 10 to 8, and today no more Schmitz money could be got at that figure. Even money is now offered on Partridge, with no takers. Broker Toplitz has $5000 to put on Partridge and Mose Gunst has $10,000.

American Family at Winnipeg Decorates Church With the Stars and Stripes.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OTTAWA (Ont.) Oct. 30—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Stars and Stripes were torn down at Winnipeg. A dispatch from there says:

"A sensation was created here, yesterday, by the decorations of a Methodist church for Harvest Home Festival services. The work was deputed to an American family in the congregation, and when the church assembled this morning, a blaze of Stars and Stripes, with the picture of President Roosevelt in the center, greeted the worshipers.

"Many refused to enter the building, and some of the flags were torn down. Later in the day they were replaced by Union Jacks."

ATTACK BY CHINESE ON ADMIRAL TRAIN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Oct. 30.—[By Atlantic Cable.] A dispatch to the Evening Standard from Shanghai says that Rear-Admiral Train, commander-in-chief of the American Asiatic squadron, and his son, Lieut. Train, have been victims of a savage attack by Chinese outside of Nanking.

The American officers were pheasant shooting, when the admiral accidentally shot a Chinese woman, slightly injuring her. Hundreds of villagers thereupon surrounded the officers, took away their guns, knocked the admiral down in the mud and held Lieut. Train as a hostage. Forty American marines, landed as a rescue party, were attacked by a mob of Chinamen, who tried to pitchfork the officers.

The marines were obliged to fire twice. The Chinese officials refused to restore the officers' guns, and support the villagers.

Nanking has been active in the movement for boycotting American goods, and is the center of activity on the part of the Japanese students.

REFERRED TO GOVERNOR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SHANGHAI, Oct. 31.—The outrage on Rear-Admiral Train and his son has been referred to the Governor of Nankin. Americans are demanding the punishment of the leaders of the mob and the restoration of the guns taken from the officers.

EDDY WILL PROTECT AMERICAN CITIZENS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State Department would not be surprised to learn at any time that telegraphic communication with St. Petersburg had been cut off.

Mr. Eddy has been given instructions to take what steps he sees fit for the protection of American citizens in the Russian capital and throughout the empire. The Washington government is not apprehensive of danger to American citizens in Russia, unless they suffer injury indirectly from the disturbing elements.

BERLIN HITS THE WIRE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, Oct. 30, 1:45 p.m.—The telegraph has been working all the morning with St. Petersburg and the principal cities of Russia, except Moscow, which for some hours was entirely cut off from telegraphic communication. The telegraph offices are twelve to fourteen hours behind with their work because of the extraordinary quantities of dispatches being exchanged between the government and its representatives at St. Petersburg, masses of press telegrams and the large amount of commercial business due to the desire of business connections in Russia to arrange for the future. A dispatch received by the Wolff Bureau was only an hour and a half in transmission.

The German military are being sent to Russia by way of Stockholm.

Travelers from Berlin are able to reach St. Petersburg in sixty hours, going by way of Stettin, Sassnitz, Trelleborg, Stockholm and Hangoe, and thence to Viborg and St. Petersburg.

PEOPLE OMINOUSLY SILENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Oct. 30.—Communication from St. Petersburg and Paris remains uninterrupted. The streets of the Russian capital are filled with soldiers and the people maintain an ominous silence, but no serious disorders are mentioned in the meager reports received here.

A dispatch to the Petit Parisienne from St. Petersburg says the managers of the newspapers are conferring at the office of the Novoe Vremya, which has become anti-governmental.

ODESSA POLICE HIDE FROM SIGHT DEAD AND INJURED.

Cossacks, Who Show no Disinclination to Shoot Down People on Sight, Left to Deal With Situation. Crowds Invade Houses and Hide in Garrets.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ODESSA, Oct. 30.—[By Atlantic Cable.] It is impossible to fix even approximately the number of yesterday's victims. The officials in charge of the hospital, commissaries and lockups are strictly forbidden to give the slightest information. The dead and wounded have been removed by the police and hidden out of sight of inquirers.

The Cossacks and gendarmes, who show no disinclination to shoot down people on sight, are left to deal with the crowds.

At one barricaded corner yesterday, a student, on the appearance of the Cossacks, mounted the barricade and appealed to them to join the people, instead of killing their brothers who were struggling for the freedom of their common country. The Cossacks answered with four volleys, killing nine and wounding about forty persons. Scenes similar are occurring everywhere.

The crowds, fleeing before the Cossacks, invade private houses and hide in garrets and on roofs.

Many private apartments have been converted into temporary hospitals for the succor of wounded refugees.

The Governor has issued a proclamation announcing that he will not hesitate to adopt the severest measures to repress disturbances.

Railroad traffic is partially restored. Two trains guarded by troops were dispatched during the day and one of them arrived at its destination.

Telegraphic communication with St. Petersburg is interrupted.

Some of the striking establishments, especially the drug stores, have been converted into temporary hospitals.

A semblance of order is slowly being restored. A number of stores have reopened but additional factories struck today. The schools remain closed.

On the persistent application of the City Council, the Governor has liberated 200 youthful students arrested yesterday.

OVERTURNING STREET CARS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WARSAW (Russian Poland) Oct. 30.—Noon.—The excitement in the streets shows no sign of abating. Every now and then, the crowds overturn a street car, with the object of stopping traffic.

The police are trying to induce the shopkeepers to reopen their shops, threatening to fine them if they do not do so, but the merchants are between two fires, since the Socialists promise to smash their windows if the shutters are taken down.

A telegram received here from Moscow says the strikers have destroyed the belt railroad and two houses on Trweska street, one of them belonging to the Governor.

The telegraph operators are complaining of having to operate the commercial service of the wealthy who have fled. They declare they are too tired to perform their work. Telegraphic communication between Warsaw and Vilna has been restored.

All the banks and factories and most of the business houses here are closed.

The situation looks threatening at Lodz, where shops are closed, and the strike also is spreading to other provincial towns.

BUSINESS SUSPENDS AT LODZ.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LODZ, Oct. 30.—All business here is suspended. About 130,000 workmen are on strike. No newspapers are published and many of the restaurants are closed. Such establishments as were opened today were forcibly closed or destroyed. Several thousand workmen marched through the streets.

The military generally fired blank cartridges, but ball cartridges are expected. Two workmen were killed at Ola, a suburb of this city.

Disorders are reported to have occurred at Sosnowitz.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO MEETING'S CHEERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The Chicago Peace Society conducted the service last night at the Centenary Methodist Church. When Mrs. H. W. Thomas, wife of the president of the local peace society, in opening the programme, waved a salute to the success of the Russian revolutionists and exclaimed in a loud voice, "I hope they will win," the audience responded with hand clapping and cheers. Mrs. Thomas explained that the motive of organizing peace societies is to federate them permanently into a more perfect world organization.

Mr. Shimzu, the Japanese Consul, talked a few minutes on the international peace movement. After reviewing the recent war, he said: "I congratulate you on having at the head of the nation a man who is for peace, a man so noble and Christian-like as Theodore Roosevelt."

Dr. Thomas, president of the society, outlined an original plan for an international peace congress and court. His plan is for all nations of the world to select a "supreme court," to settle all disputes between nations, and with power to enforce its orders.

RIVERSIDE BAD MAN.

Grant Larsen, Riverside rancher, couldn't stand the swift pace of Los Angeles friends around town last night, and in a moment of despondency caused by his inability to drink everything in sight, he tried to shoot up the corner of First and Spring. After Larsen had fired several shots from a revolver, a policeman arrested him. The Riverside man tried to fight but he was quickly subdued and lodged in jail.

I stayed with the doctors six months, but one day my next-door neighbor told me of your Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I thought I would give it a trial. I took one bottle, got strong all at once. I began to eat and my people said I had a good look in my face.

What I have suffered no one can tell but me. Your Pure Malt Whiskey has cured me and saved my life. I give it to my children. I only hope that people will see for themselves that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has built me up and saved my life. I don't know how I can thank you. RUSSIANS CELEBRATE BOON OF LIBERTY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31, 3:15 a. m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Celebration of the issuance of the imperial manifesto still continues at 3 o'clock this morning in many streets of the city, where crowds are singing the national hymn, cheering for the Emperor and shouting themselves hoarse. The restaurants and cafés were closed at 2 o'clock, disgorging their crowds, which had been drinking and making merry for hours around the tables to augment the demonstration in the thoroughfares.

The Cossack patrols were utterly disconfited and confounded and were wholly at a loss to understand the meaning of the demonstration or why the crowds were singing "God Save the Emperor," Russia's magnificent national anthem, instead of the "Marseillaise."

The people displayed the utmost good humor toward the Cossacks. They surrounded their horses and patted their perplexed riders on the boots, shouting, "You can go home now. We no longer need you. We have liberty." Then they bade the Cossacks doff their caps in honor of the constitution. After 2 o'clock the patrols were withdrawn from the streets, which were left in charge of the ordinary night force of policemen.

Soon after midnight, a crowd of several hundred men collected in the great square before the Winter Palace and sang a chant from the church liturgy dedicated to the Emperor and the national anthem and finished with rousing cheers for His Majesty and the imperial family. Then they marched to the barracks of the Preobrajensk Guards and demanded that the regimental band lead the procession. Disappointed there, they continued to the barracks of the Pavlovsk Guards on the same errand, but the soldiers, misunderstanding the purport of the demonstration, threw open the gates of the court and threatened to fire unless the crowd made off at once, when the manifestants fled in terror.

In the Nevsky Prospect, there was some rough play, but the boisterous ones formed an inconsiderable portion of the crowds. There were no illuminations or other formal demonstrations, the population of the capital having lived too long under a régime under which all initiative for outward festivity came from the police.

FINNS DECIDE TO STRIKE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HELSINGFORS, Oct. 30.—The Russian railroad strike will be extended to Finland tomorrow. A great meeting of Finnish workmen held today expressed sympathy with the Russian struggle for freedom. The meeting resolved to declare a general strike, beginning tomorrow. The workmen of Viborg have taken similar action.

This decision has caused a rush to secure supplies of provisions, as all the restaurants will be closed.

The students of the university have decided to abstain from attendance on the lectures.

GENERAL STRIKE IN POLAND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Kattowitz, in Silesia, says that a general strike has broken out in the districts of Sosnowice and Dombrowa, in Russian Poland. The operatives in the Ales Coal and Iron Works went out at noon. A passenger train tried to go from Kattowitz to Sosnowice yesterday, but was received across the frontier by a howling mob and forced to return.

CITY FATHERS DELIGHTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 30.—The Municipal Council, at its sitting this evening, after reading the imperial manifesto, decided to send the following telegram to the Emperor:

"The Council welcomes with delight the long-desired tidings of freedom, firmly relying on a bright future for our dear fatherland. Hurrah for the Emperor of a free people!"

DAMPER PUT ON STRIKE.

A meeting of the Strike Committee was held tonight after the promulgation of the Emperor's manifesto was known. The question of calling the strike off was discussed, but a decision was postponed until tomorrow.

A damper was thrown upon the strike enthusiasm by news that work had been resumed in a large part of the factories of St. Petersburg, including eleven of the twelve departments of the Putiloff Iron Works, and that stores had been reopened. The committee men talked boldly of their ability to keep the men out.

The railroad strike today was as effective as ever, but the authorities claimed that the backbone of the strike had been broken before the announcement of the manifesto and that only 94,000 factory hands, mostly in the Schlusselberg district, along the river, were on strike today.

The Strike Committee today brought out the first number of the Workmen's Gazette, the strikers' organ, which was devoted to ponderous proclamations in the style of government documents and news of the strike movement in St. Petersburg.

Citizens Residing in His Ward Tender Reception to Togo and School Children Sing Song Composed to Celebrate Admiral's Distinguished Services.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOKIO, Oct. 30.—[By Pacific Cable.] The Navy Department announces that the Russian torpedo gunboat Vsadnik, which was sunk in Port Arthur Harbor, has been raised.

The reception given to Vice-Admiral Togo today by citizens residing in the same ward as he does, was a grand success. Thousands of school children, boys and girls, marched before the admiral, singing a song especially composed to celebrate his distinguished services. The admiral and his wife were deeply moved by the spectacle.

The latest official estimated shortage of the rice crop, this year, is nearly 14 per cent. less than the average crop, and 25 per cent. less than the crop last year. A private estimate makes the shortage still more. The shortage is heaviest in the northeastern provinces. It is believed that the government will rescind the import duty on rice. Both political parties are considering measures for diminishing distress among the people.

THEIR COMING A SURPRISE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NAGASAKI, Oct. 29.—Gen. Dankoff left Nagasaki today for Tokio, where he will be received by the government officials. The cruiser Bogatyr, on which Gen. Dankoff and the commissioners, who are to arrange for the release and return home of Russian prisoners, arrived yesterday from Vladivostok, was at the last moment substituted for the yacht Almaz, which is associated with the name of the Viceroy of Kuan Tung.

The first entry into the harbor of Nagasaki of the Russian naval vessels Bogatyr, Takut and Alakut, was quite a surprise. Even the French Consul, who is representing Russian interests, was not aware that the vessels were coming here. The Bogatyr, which left today, returned to Vladivostok.

Owing to the difficulty of getting suitable transportation, the removal of the Russian prisoners from Yokohama, Kobe and Nagasaki will require three months. The Russian hospital ship St. George will arrive here from Vladivostok about November 5, to establish stations at three points for the former prisoners, who are to be taken back to Russia.

A run on the savings department of the Corn Belt Bank, Bloomington, Ill., commenced at noon yesterday. All demands are being met in full. President V. E. Howell says the bank's condition was never better.

Two more girls at St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, at Burlington, Vt., became ill Sunday from the effects of the poison which caused the death of seven children and the illness of seventeen others Friday. The victims were seized with violent convulsions. The physicians think the children's illness was due to eating the bark and leaves of locust trees, which are plentiful in the asylum yard.

A Tucson dispatch says Oscar Harris, a well-known young rancher, was instantly killed yesterday morning at his ranch while at the bottom of a 150-foot well. A heavy iron bucket fell from the top of the well crushing his skull.

A cable to the New York Herald from Buenos Ayres, Argentina, says that wheat was quoted Saturday at 8 pesos, paper, the hundred kilos, the record price since 1895. The rise is due principally to a decrease in the Russian crops. Rev. H. D. Fisher, who died yesterday at Baldwin, Kan., was one of the most famous characters produced by the trying days of the border warfare in Kansas and the subsequent four years of the Civil War. Because of his activity as a free State man and his association with United States Senator "Jim" Lane, Rev. Fisher was marked by the Quantrell band, and his escape from capture and death during the Lawrence massacre is one of the most thrilling and remarkable incidents of that affair. Dr. Fisher was one of the few men who ever refused a United States Senatorship.

The Portuguese tramp steamship Peninsular from Fayal brought in 28 passengers thirty American sailors sent home by the American Consul. They are deserters from whalers which called at Horta, the port of the island, to ship their cargoes of oil to New Bedford, Mass. The men, according to their story, had been living in secluded nooks and corners among the volcano rocks of Fayal for periods varying from two weeks to several months. The men say that thirty more sailors are waiting to be sent home.

In Gotha, Duchy of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, the divorce court yesterday decided itself competent to try the suit brought by Prince Philip of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha against the Princess Louise for an absolute divorce and for an adjustment of their joint property interests, on the ground that the Prince in becoming a Hungarian citizen did not lose his membership of the house of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

A Paris cable says the manifesto of Emperor Nicholas, promising liberty of conscience, speech and meeting, is considered generally by the press to be more liberal than had been expected.

ADMIRAL TRAIN INCIDENT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The State Department has cabled to the United States Consul at Nanking, China, asking particulars about the case of Admiral Train, who, according to a cablegram from Shanghai, got into serious trouble in Nanking after accidentally wounding a Chinese woman.

In view of the present strained relations between the United States and China, and particularly on account of the fact that Nanking is the center of the boycott movement of American goods, the incident is regarded as serious. However, neither the Chinese Minister in this city nor the State Department have been officially notified.

LEAD AND ZINC.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The Geological Survey's report on the lead and zinc industries of the United States for the year 1904 shows gross production of lead of 307,000 short tons, valued at $26,402,000. The increase in production was marked in Southern Missouri, Southeastern Kansas, Colorado, Utah and Idaho. The principal increase was in Kansas. The lead output of the Coeur d'Alene district of Idaho is given as 106,854 short tons.

The production of spelter in the United States in 1904 amounted to 156,702 short tons, valued at $18,670,208, as compared with a production of 159,219 tons, in 1903.

CALVÉ'S VOICE NOT FAILING.

The company goes from here to Montreal and appears in New York on Saturday.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—By a tie vote of 2 to 2, the Board of Elections of this city today declined to place the name of William T. Jerome as the nominee for District Attorney in the Republican column of the official ballot for the city election. The Democratic members voted against it, and the Republicans in favor of it.

Stockholders May See Books.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—On deciding the case of J. W. Guthrie vs. H. L. Harkness, the Supreme Court of the United States today held that a stockholder in a national bank is entitled to inspect the books of the bank. The case arose in connection with the Commercial National Bank of Ogden, Utah, in which Harkness owned one-fifth of the stock. He was denied the right of inspection. The Supreme Court of the State decided in favor of his contention, and that decision was affirmed today. The opinion was delivered by Justice Day.

VESUVIUS'S EXPLOSIONS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—A correspondent cables to the Herald from Naples as follows: "I am informed by the director of the Mount Vesuvius observatory that there have been constant explosions from the crater of the volcano since Saturday night. The explosions, increasing constantly in violence, are now occurring at half-minute intervals, and they have again shattered the cone of the summit and caused a lateral fissure, which is pouring a constant stream of incandescent lava."

Side Talks By The Office Boy

Did you ever hear "Grand Opera?" Gee, but it's great, and those foreign singers have the most extravagant names. I suppose if a fellow knew how to unlock them they would mean just plain "Schmidt" or "Jones," but if you read them off quick they sound like those reports of a skirmish between the Russians and the Japs. Grand Opera goes something like this. First a lot of young ladies all ready to go in bathing change their minds and come out on the stage; then the hero comes out and sings a solo which goes like this: "Aha! Aha-ha! I am getting one thousand a night, tra-la-la! la! aha! aha-ha!" Then the soprano responds with much emotion from the orchestra. "Ditto-ditto-ditto! Me too, me too-oo-oo, me too!" It was delicious, but there are so few people who really appreciate it. Pa says the ones who don't appreciate it are usually the fellows who pay for the tickets. We've got some Grand Opera Hats, the real Imported French kinds, in really-truly silks; we sell 'em for $7.50. Then we carry all kinds of white kid gloves, Dress Shirts, Dress Neckwear, Silk Socks, and in our big Tailoring Department (Spring-street Store) we make up the most scrumptious Full Dress Suits and Dinner Coats.

NATHAN MAKES ADMISSIONS.

PRISONER THROWS LIGHT ON "SUIT CASE" MYSTERY

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 30.—The heads of the local police and detective bureaus are firmly of the opinion that they now have in their possession enough information to thoroughly clear up the celebrated Boston "suit-case mystery."

As the result of admissions made by the prisoner, Morris Nathan, when questioned this afternoon, they are almost positive that the death of Susan Geary, the Cambridge chorus girl, resulted from a criminal operation performed by a woman in Boston and that the body of the girl was afterward mutilated to hide the fact. The name of the woman has been divulged by Nathan, and, upon receiving this information, the officials immediately dispatched word to the Boston authorities to apprehend her.

While Nathan does not appear to know enough to lead to positive conviction, he gives sufficient information to settle the mystery in the minds of the Pittsburgh detectives. Nathan admitted under pressure that while the last time he saw the girl was September 5, he knew that the girl had contemplated and discussed with him the advisability of submitting to a criminal operation and that during more than one of these conversations the name of the woman to whom she proposed to go had been mentioned, and the conclusion is that she finally carried out this plan, with a result fatal to herself.

Clarence Burleigh, a local attorney, has been engaged to defend Nathan. Attorney Burleigh says he will fight extradition proceedings.

Nathan is 21 years old.

BOSTON POLICE BUSY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON, Oct. 30.—This afternoon Inspector Armstrong, acting under orders from Chief Inspector Watts, went after a telephone talk with Pittsburgh, made a search of the office of a female physician in Tremont street. Later, he began searching for the physician who, it is understood, had registered at the Tremont-street establishment and who answers the description of the man who purchased the suit cases from two pawnbrokers.

Two weeks ago, in a New York hotel, he privately met the pawnbroker who sold one of the suit cases. After the meeting it was announced that the pawnbroker had failed to identify the doctor as the purchaser of the articles. Later the pawnbroker stated that, while he had not identified the doctor as his customer, there were many points of resemblance.

Provided with photographs of the dead woman, detectives are scouring this city in efforts to trace the movements of Miss Geary from the time she was last seen by her mother at her home in Cambridge, Sunday afternoon, September 10.

The place searched on Tremont street is one widely advertised in certain papers as an institution devoted especially to the treatment of women. When the police made inquiry in Dorchester for the practitioner alleged to be the head physician at the Tremont-street institution they were told that he had not been in the city since last August. Another doctor who is said to have been connected with the institution for whom they also made inquiry was said to be in New York.

Detective John W. McGarr has been sent to Pittsburgh for the purpose of examining Nathan and other members of the "Shepherd King" Company. Superintendent Pierce of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation stated that Nathan knew as much as anyone about the girl and her movements and also of her physical condition prior to her sudden disappearance. Nathan's engagement to the girl was opposed by the members of her family, he said.

WILL FIGURES IN CASE.

MRS. TODD'S MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—It was learned yesterday that wealthy Mrs. Margaia Todd, who was found dead Friday night in a railroad cut in a suburb of Philadelphia, had arrived in that city and had left there, presumably for New York, when she met death.

Coroner Schuder said last night that he considered the circumstances of Mrs. Todd's death very suspicious, but that he had no jurisdiction, as she died in another city. He would, however, he said, prevent the funeral from taking place and order an investigation, if requested to do so by the Coroner or police.

The body of Mrs. Todd will be buried today and the police will be on hand to prevent a clash between the factions warring for control of her big estate. In the dead woman's apartments in the Von Hoffman, yesterday, Mrs. Georgie Howe, the step-daughter, passed the day behind barricaded doors and guarded by two private detectives. Downstairs, in the office of the hotel, Lawyer Ingersoll Lockwood, announcing himself as the dead woman's trustee, under an old will, held possession with two other privates.

The identity of the mysterious woman who drove with Mrs. Todd to the train in Jersey City and then disappeared has not been discovered.

Mrs. Todd's estate is estimated worth from $250,000 to $1,000,000. She was nearly 80 years of age and had been successful in real estate transactions for years. She was three times married, her last husband being Louis L. Todd, former owner of the Vendome and the Marlborough hotels. Her only children are Mrs. Frank Tousy, widow of a well-known publisher, and Mrs. Georgie Howe, a step-daughter. Mrs. Tousy is now in Vienna and has been cabled to come home at once.

Trouble over Mrs. Todd's will and the alleged effort to have her execute a new one on the night before her strange death have added to the mystery surrounding the whole affair.

PHYSICIANS' NAMES LEARNED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Boston officers have finally learned the names of the physicians supposed to be responsible for the death of Susie Geary and are now hot on their trail. They have also sent an inspector to New York to interview Blanche Ring, a report having reached them that she knew something about the girl's case.

Mark Nathan, brother of the man detained in Pittsburgh, stated today that Jess W. Gove, a prominent attorney of this city, has been engaged by Nathan's father to defend the son. Gove left for Pittsburgh this afternoon.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Dougherty Wants Bail Reduced.

PEORIA (Ill.) Oct. 30.—Judge Worthington, sitting in chambers, today granted a writ of habeas corpus for Newton C. Dougherty, confined in the County Jail for alleged defalcation of school funds, but refused to fix the date for the hearing. The petition declares that the bail demanded is out of all proportion to the amount alleged to have been embezzled and asks to have the amount fixed at $25,000 or $30,000, which the defendant believes he can furnish.

Hold-ups Frequent in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Hold-ups are becoming frequent again in this city. Michael Carty, a plumber, residing at No. 1221 Larkin street, reported to the police that he had been held up and robbed by two men on California street, early yesterday morning. Thus far, the police have been unable to gain a clew as to the identity of the thieves. Early this morning, Albert Scott, a clerk, was set upon by four thugs at Front street and Broadway. After being robbed of $15, he was fatally beaten with clubs wielded by the robbers. Scott is now lying at the Harbor Emergency Hospital in a dying condition.

Le Duc Planned Raid on Bank.

BLOOMINGTON (Ill.) Oct. 30.—It was learned today that William Le Duc, who killed Mayor Nickel and Stockman Hugh P. Jones at Chenoa, Saturday, had planned a raid on the bank, with hope of escape. He visited his mother's home Saturday and bade her farewell, saying that he intended to leave the country. The loss of $20,000 in the settlement with his wife after she left him and negotiated through Nichel, his brother-in-law, is supposed to have so preyed on his mind that he stooped to recoup his losses by the raid. Marvelously quick gathering of people on the streets prevented his purpose, and he was forced to retreat to the vault. He burned $1500 in paper money in the vault, but left the silver untouched.

WANT HIM NORTH.

E. G. Farrell to be Turned Over to San Francisco Officers to be Tried for Grand Larceny.

Edward G. Farrell, alias F. E. Goben, will not be prosecuted in Los Angeles but San Francisco officials have been notified of his arrest and officers from the Northern city will arrive here today and take him into custody. Farrell is wanted in San Francisco on a charge of grand larceny.

Under the name of Goben he has operated in Los Angeles for some time past as an advertising and realty agent. His arrest followed his attempts to sell to numerous persons an interest in the company which he represented with offices in the Stimson building.

In the suit case which the detectives took from Farrell, was found a quantity of bogus letters of recommendation and introduction and fake notes. These papers were carefully examined yesterday and all doubt of the man's identity removed. The names of prominent Easterners were attached to the papers, and all are believed to be clever forgeries.

POSTAL ROBBERY.

Colegrove Has the Latest Touch, Adroitly Consummated Yesterday at Noon.

Colegrove is the latest hamlet to feel the swift and unobservable touch of the postoffice sneak thief. While Postmaster Kennedy's back was turned, yesterday noon, a silent-shod pilferer abstracted $215 in money and stamps from the Federal cash drawer. Mr. Kennedy returned from the back part of his store almost immediately, and notified the postoffice authorities in Los Angeles at once, by telephone. Inspector Wilson and a deputy-sheriff at once went to Colegrove, but the thief had left no trace.

Yeggemen are supposedly responsible for this piece of work, and the robbery is merely another of a series, which seem to have been planned systematically for the surrounding towns.

BUILDING PLANNED.

Some of the New Structures About to be Erected in Various Sections.

The Builder and Contractor notes the following details of work in the hands of architects being prepared for building in the immediate future:

Frank M. Tyler is preparing plans for a two-story brick and frame building, 60x100 feet, to be built on the corner of Vermont and Prospect avenues, for Wm. H. Hoegee. It will contain six storerooms on ground floor, and large lodge room with dining-room, ante-rooms, kitchen, living and office rooms on second floor. He has also drawn plans for four two-story seven and eight-room modern residences to be erected on Harvard boulevard and Church street, for Miss Borick.

Thomas Preston is preparing plans for a one-story frame and plaster building to be constructed on the northeast corner of Pasadena avenue and Avenue 57, for G. W. B. Griffith. He is also preparing plans for a two-story eight-room frame residence to be built on the west side of Pasadena avenue, between Avenues 45 and 46, for Mr. Bradford.

A. L. Haley has drawn plans for a two and one-half story twelve-room Elizabethan style residence to be erected on the southwest corner of Eleventh street and Magnolia avenue for Mrs. C. C. Loomis.

Fred Heimlein has finished plans for a six-room bungalow to be erected at Redondo for G. Mahn. The same architect has drawn plans for the additions to the porch of W. H. Perry's new residence in St. James Park.

Hudson & Munsell have taken bids for a two-story nine-room frame residence to be built on Orange street west of Hoover street for George J. Morgan.

Chas. E. Shattuck has drawn plans for a six-room bungalow, to be built on the corner of Alvarado street and Montrose avenue, for J. G. Mettinger.

Parkinson & Bergstrom are taking bids for a two-story brick mortuary chapel and undertaking parlors to be built on the southwest corner of Figueroa and Lincoln streets for Bresee Bros. It will be 61x119 feet and have artificial stone entrance, window caps and sills. Buff and old gold colored pressed brick will be used on the street fronts. The same architects are preparing the preliminary drawings for the extension of the Alexandria Hotel along Fifth street to Broadway, where about 100 feet frontage will be occupied by the enlarged caravansary. They have also completed the drawings for the proposed buildings to be erected on the block of ground at First and Mott streets, Boyle Heights, as a home for the aged. The buildings are for the society known as the Little Sisters of the Poor and will be built from funds donated by a wealthy San Franciscan. The buildings will be three-story structures and when completed will occupy most of the block named. The amount donated for the purpose was $300,000.

Martin & Barker are preparing plans for a two-story twelve-room frame residence for S. T. Wallace. They are also drawing plans for a two-story eight-room brick Moorish style residence to be constructed at Inglewood for G. Koch.

John C. Austin and F. G. Brown have prepared plans for a two-story nine-room residence to be built at the corner of West Eighth and Bonnie Brae streets for W. A. Moorehouse.

Puttkamp & Soper have drawn plans for a two-story eight-room frame residence to be built in Oneonta Park, South Pasadena, for Mrs. E. A. Halsey.

Train & Williams are preparing plans of a cottage to be built at the corner of First and Esperanza streets, Long Beach, for W. B. Ash that will cost about $2500.

H. X. Goetz has the contract for the construction of an ice-making plant on South Second street, Santa Monica. The building will be 70x80 feet, of brick construction, and will cost $5000.

A. E. Morgan has the contract for a brick store building for A. F. Johnston on Third street, Santa Monica. A brick warehouse 50x30 feet and two stories high will also be built.

GAS COMPANY CHANGES.

Illness has caused E. A. Guthrie to retire from active business life, and his controlling interest in the Western Gas Engine Company has been purchased by W. E. McVay, cashier of the Union Savings Bank. W. H. Frost becomes president and general manager of the engine company, and R. E. Sumner assumes the office of secretary.

A Piano Sold Every Thirty Minutes for Half a Day!

IT'S A FACT! We're not boasting. We sold 18 pianos Saturday. Ten were sold after 5 p.m., in just 5 hours. This undoubtedly breaks the record for piano selling in Los Angeles.

Brand new high grade pianos were never offered at such low prices before, and a lot of people are taking advantage of this unparalleled opportunity.

BUT

It's helping us out of our trouble. We'll be able to dispose of those extra pianos fast enough. We've told you WHY we're forced to sacrifice these pianos, because we didn't get the store we'd planned to.

IT'S UP TO YOU.

A $325 Piano For $168

We offer a beautiful full-sized upright piano in mahogany or walnut case, double veneered, with continuous hinge on top and front, Boston fall board, 14-lb. hammers, three pedals, ivory keys, dust desk—all modern improvements—substantially made—beautifully finished and fully guaranteed by us for only $168.00. Regular selling price $325.00. Easy terms if you like.

IT'S NO WONDER

A piano chance like this doesn't come along every day. People realize it. Our record-breaking sale proves it.

Who could resist such an offer? Knabe, Fischer, Ludwig, Smith & Barnes, Packard, Mason & Hamlin, Mehlin, Clarendon and half a dozen other makes of high-class pianos at such prices—

$237—$248—$266—$284
And up

EASY TERMS? Why of course! Easiest in the world. You'll hardly miss the money. Pay a small sum down, then $5, $7, $8, $9 or $10 per month, beginning thirty days from date of sale.

Again we say—"It's up to you."
Don't miss a good thing, then regret it.

A $400 Piano For $237

Two cardcals of a certain piano represented by a local dealer, and recently advertised by them as "a $400 piano, reduced to $325." We now offer it to the public at $237. We have agreed not to advertise the name of this instrument, but that doesn't prevent you seeing it. We invite comparison. It will be well worth your while to investigate this special bargain.

CUBANOLA

CIGAR—5c.

The filler is of genuine imported Havana—all grown under direct and expert supervision for Cubanola cigars especially. This highly aromatic leaf is harvested, cured and blended by the American Cigar Company in immense quantities and by new and exclusive processes—not only reducing the cost of every operation, but securing ideal results.

If you want to get more solid enjoyment out of a ten-cent-piece than you ever did before, just invest it in two Cubanola cigars.

Cubanola Cigars are delivered to the dealer in perfect condition, direct from the humidors,—every box separately cased in a dust-tight, weather-proof, parchment wrapper. The Triangle A on the Cubanola box stands for perfect cigars. It is a mark-mark that means science, system and cleanliness in every process, and better cigars for less money.

HIGHLAND PARK.
"THE PACKARD" HOUSES.
Best brand on the market.
Are built only in
HIGHLAND PARK.
THE MATCHLESS SUBURB OF THE CITY.
We have one you ought to see. A number of people have said it was the prettiest house they ever saw.
The appearance, however, is the least of its charms.
It was built to live in, not to be sold. Built for comfort, convenience and durability.
The only objection the owner has is, that it is too large for a small family.
There are eight splendid rooms, cellar and storeroom, fitted with all modern conveniences, lot 85x135, nicely improved; the situation is exceptional; close to school, churches and fine car service; the view is rare, and the location the healthiest in the city.
Bring your money with you, for you will buy it on sight.

Times' "Liner" Advertisers—Important change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1905, and thereafter, the rate for "unday "Liners" will be 1½ cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of The Times, which averages over 48,000 copies. (When the 1-cent per-word rate was established in 1888, The Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

Fashion's Newest Woolens

There are so many different styles, different weaves and textures in this season's gathering of Woolen Dress Fabrics—and all so pretty, so new and so thoroughly practical—that it's next to impossible to give, even in a general way, an idea of their beauty and variety. You should see the line now—today—in all its completeness.

54-inch Rain-proofs $1.50

Some of fashion's most popular materials for tailor suits, coat suits, three-piece suits, traveling or auto coats, jackets and skirts are shown in these rain-proof materials. They come in the new mixed tans, grays, olive modes, navy brown and oxfords. 54 to 58 inches wide at $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50 and $2.75 a yard. A splendid line 54 inches wide, at $1.50.

54-inch Broadcloths $1.50

Chiffon broadcloths are also in high favor for street or afternoon gowns and in light colors for evening coats or costumes. Highly finished, soft, light weight qualities in all the wanted colors for every occasion. Good line street shades at yd. $1.50.

Henriettas 75c

For more elaborate dresses the soft, easily draped silk finished henriettas are strong leaders in fashion's race. Street and evening shades of every wanted hue are shown; also black and cream. Splendid lines 38 to 44 inches wide—are here at yd. 75c.

Novelty Waistings

Scotch Flannels, non-shrinkable, fast colors—you wash them as you would a handkerchief—fancy stripes on white or cream grounds, 30 inches, yd. 40c.

Silk and Wool checks and plaids combined with embroidered silk dots in pretty contrasting colors, 50c.

Novelty Brocades of silk and wool mixtures in Persian colors. French flannels and fancy embroidered mohairs, all positively new, up to the minute in style of weave and coloring, at yd. 75c.

The "Victor" In the Home

Melba, Emma Eames, Plancon, Caruso; Sousa's Band, Pryor's Orchestra; Arthur Clarke, the Haydn Quartette—where can you enjoy, all in an evening, a programme by these world famous artists? At the operahouse or the concert hall, could you, at one performance, hear such a delightful musical potpourri as "La Damnation of Faust," "Blue Bell," Spring Song" and The Merry Wives of Windsor"? No—of course not—it would be impossible to induce such a combination of artists and no manager would dare introduce such a startling innovation. How, then, are such performances possible? With the Victor Talking Machine—and only with the Victor. In our own parlor you can listen to the greatest bands and orchestras, renowned singers, instrumental virtuosos and popular humorists—if you have a Victor. Music from every country—Italy, France, Russia, Scotland, Germany and all the rest—are yours to enjoy—if you have a Victor.

Let us tell you about our new plan of monthly payments—nothing to pay down on the machine.

Happy Bride Knows Naught of Woe Till Morning.

Her Brothers in the Secret, but Loyal to Him.

At 10 o'clock Sunday night, with Justice Young officiating and a deputy sheriff presiding as master of ceremonies, a wedding occurred in Los Angeles high society, the spectacular features of which were equaled only by the downright nerve of the groom in going through with the ceremony with a felony charge hanging over his head.

The marriage of J. B. Price, a well-known society young man, to Miss Louise Black, an acknowledged beauty, sister of Black brothers, wealthy real estate dealers of this city, at the home of the bride, would, on account of the prominence of the contracting parties, have been a matter of sufficient note in itself.

But with the interjection of the piquant flavor of a waiting prison cell, and the presence among the distinguished guests of a blushing and awkward officer of the law attempting at one and the same time both to keep out of sight while never for a moment allowing his vigilant eye to leave the person of the bridegroom-prisoner, the situation was surcharged with thrills and sensations enough to more than satisfy the very few who knew.

NAUGHT THEY KNEW.

Not the prospective bride, nor one of her friends, nor the friends of the family, of whom there were but a few present, knew that aught existed to mar the joy of the occasion.

Not one guessed that the "Mr. Sepulveda" who grinned and ducked and tried to get out of the way of treading on the bride's train at imminent peril to the bric-a-brac, was other than he was casually explained to be by Julius Black—a man who had been sent out to help take care of the presents.

But for a man in his position he surely displayed a most annoying curiosity in all that passed during the evening. Yet neither Price nor Julius nor George Black objected to the rude obtrusiveness of Mr. Sepulveda.

They were the three who appreciated the fact that it was only through the consideration of Mr. Sepulveda and the astonishing good nature of Sheriff White that the marriage was being celebrated within the handsome and gaily-decorated residence at No. 2110 Grand avenue, instead of inside the formal and forbidding pile at Temple and Buena Vista streets; with flowers and palms and gleaming lights instead of whitewash and bars and darkness after 10 of the night.

So Mr. Sepulveda, while unwelcome, stayed the unbidden guest, and the ceremony proceeded. For had he departed unduly the bridegroom had gone too, and there would have been weeping and no wedding. Mr. Sepulveda was all supreme. It was the sweetest function at which he had ever played a part in his life. He was it. He could have broken the whole thing up with a word, but he didn't. He kept mum, and while the bride was being given away he got out of sight behind a palm and didn't give the bridegroom away.

A BUMPER TO THE BRIDE.

And afterward, when the health of the young couple was quaffed, Mr. Sepulveda (partially concealed behind a mass of shrubbery outside the spacious drawing-room) poured down a big bumper with one hand, while with the other he held down the flap of his coat from which the gleaming points of a big star popped out at every move of his arms.

And so the amazing marriage was carried through, the bride blushing and happy, the picture of a supreme joy. The bridegroom and her brothers outwardly smiling, but inwardly quaking with fear at the prospect of the death's head at the feast.

It was not Mr. Sepulveda himself that caused all the mental trouble. He was but the closet in which stalked the skeleton. Bulging in his inside coat pocket was his authority—not for being at the wedding, but to take in hand wheresoever he might find him one J. B. Price, and to carry him off to the County Jail on a charge of seduction preferred by a Miss Viola Dashiel of Marysville.

HIS WEDDING MORN.

At daylight Sunday morning Sepulveda took Price in custody at his residence, No. 730 South Figueroa street, where he lives with his mother and little brother.

Arrested on such a charge on his wedding morn before he had shaven, it is not surprising that Price was thunder-struck. He called up his prospective brothers-in-law at once, and the three called upon Sheriff White and induced him not to have Price locked up, but kept constantly under surveillance. As Price's nerve held good, and as he protested his innocence convincingly, it was decided to carry the marriage through without saying anything of the matter until afterward.

After the marriage, which he would not hear to delaying, and in which his brothers-in-law stoutly supported him, Mr. Price declared he would lose no time in going to Marysville voluntarily and confronting his accuser for the purpose of proving his innocence.

After the ceremony the young couple were driven to the Lankershim Hotel, with Deputy Sheriff Joe Sepulveda on the box. There they have remained since, the officer occupying a room in the same corridor.

It was at the hotel that Mr. Price broke the news to his bride. Strengthened by her courage and determination, he was in a state of mind last night to welcome the arrival of an officer from Marysville, sent to take him to that place.

BLACKMAIL, SAYS GROOM.

Mr. Price declares that it is all a blackmailing scheme, as letters in his possession sent him by Miss Dashiel will show. He insists that it will be an easy matter for him to prove conclusively that he is the injured party in this matter, not the girl.

The bringing of this action against him on his wedding day he characterizes as "a piece of fiendish malignance." The girl, Mr. Price says, he met some time ago on a trip to Marysville, but he denies that he ever acted toward her improperly.

Price and Miss Black were engaged nearly a year ago, but the announcement was not made until October 15, since which time he says he has received a number of persecuting letters from Miss Dashiel demanding money or threatening trouble.

Black brothers and all of his friends and associates here speak in the highest terms of Price, and declare their readiness and determination to stand by him through thick and thin.

On the evening of the marriage Julius and George Black each gave the young couple a check for $5000, while friends sent in many handsome and costly presents. They will make their home at the family residence, No. 2110 Grand avenue, after Mr. Price has returned from Marysville, where he expects to go today.

SAYS SHE WASN'T LOST.

Missing Miss Gallagher Returns and Explains Where She Was While Friends Sought Her.

Miss Mary Gallagher, daughter of Judge P. W. Gallagher of Canton, Ill., who has been missing since Wednesday last, returned to this city at noon yesterday much surprised at the mystery which had been thrown about her unexplained absence.

Miss Gallagher has been a guest at the home of Mmes. Lucy A Higbie and Frankie Pitt and Miss Bessie Pitt of No. 1808 Pennsylvania avenue.

Last Wednesday the young lady went to Monrovia to visit at the home of William Cramer, but finding the Cramers absent and, she says, meeting other Illinois friends, residents at Ocean Park, she readily consented to accompany them to the beach town, where she has since been. Having read nothing in the newspapers concerning the turmoil resultant from her unexplained absence, Miss Gallagher was much surprised to learn of the anxiety when she returned to the home of her friends yesterday.

CHURCH ON HARVARD HEIGHTS.

Prosperous United Presbyterian Congregation Completes Mission, Fully Paid for in Advance.

The First United Presbyterian Church, which recently sold its property at the corner of Eighth and Hill streets for $108,000, as the first step in its career of advancement has built a new mission church on Harvard Heights, at the corner of Eighteenth street and Western avenue. A few years ago this was a location away out in the country, but more than a year since, the First Church thought it saw an opening for a progressive work at that point and purchased three lots for $4800. Upon this ground they have now built a church which stands in the midst of an elegant residence section, extending many blocks in every direction. The church is completed, with the exception of the finishing touches, and will be dedicated in about two weeks. The building stands on two of the lots, and on the third a parsonage will be built, and the whole will be turned over to the mission free of debt when the membership warrants.

Work on the plans for the new building of the mother-church is now in progress, and when it stands on the corner of Ninth and Figueroa streets it will be one of the finest in the city. It will cost $50,000, and $20,000 has been paid for the ground upon which it will be built. After all these expenditures the church will have a comfortable nest-egg of cash, remaining, upon which to extend its activities in other directions.

AGED MINISTER KILLED.

Struck by Southern Pacific Train He Dies During Operation at Receiving Hospital.

Rev. D. Ackerman, aged 79, a Methodist minister, died on the operating table at the Receiving Hospital yesterday from the effect of injuries received by being struck by a Southern Pacific Santa Monica train at the crossing of Twenty-ninth street and Central avenue.

Ackerman had planned to leave yesterday for Chicago, and had been staying at the mission of the "Holy Jumpers" at Twenty-eighth street and Central avenue. He informed the people at the mission that he intended taking a last stroll about the vicinity of the place before his departure for the railway station. While crossing the track, all unmindful of the approaching train, he was struck by the locomotive and hurled a distance of thirty feet from the track.

While being conveyed to the hospital accompanied by a nurse, the aged minister retained consciousness and displayed remarkable bravery in the face of impending death, calling upon his Maker to take him into His care. The deceased was a widower.

SALE CALLED OFF.

Board of Trustees of First Methodist Church Refuse to Consider Offer for Site.

The question of selling the First Methodist Church has been definitely settled, at least for the present. The official membership of the church do not desire to leave the present site.

Though many members of the congregation would favor the sale at the large valuation placed on the property, the sentiment of the church is such that no action will be taken at present on the splendid offer known to have been made within the past few days. S. P. Mulford, secretary of the board of trustees, said yesterday:

"The question of selling the property has not yet been discussed in the meeting of the board of trustees. The quarterly conference of the church has not passed on the matter, either. So far as I have been able to learn, the pastor, Dr. Robert McIntyre, has had no thought of advising the sale of the property.

"The First Methodist Church was never intended to accommodate all Methodism of Los Angeles. The present membership of 1700 is about all one man can serve. The First Church has always been a people's church, and should be kept near the center of the city.

SHE CHOSE ANOTHER.

So Courtier Guinn Took Rough-on-Rats, and Writhed for Hours on the Floor.

Harry E. Guinn, of No. 327 Lacy street, couldn't look upon the bright side of life after his best girl "threw him down" for another. In order to assuage his grief he swallowed a dose of rough-on-rats in his room early yesterday morning.

Writhing in agony and unable to utter a sound loud enough to attract attention, Guinn suffered torments until his landlady found him at 9 o'clock last night. Meantime the poison had acted as its own antidote. Guinn was sent to the Receiving Hospital, where the surgeons soon got him in shape again.

"SCOTTY" GETS HIS MEDICINE.

Death Valley Miner Smashed in Wild Auto Wreck.

Wagered Pasadena and Return in Forty Minutes.

Perhaps Paralyzed for Life; Three Others Hurt.

Four injured and three arrests to come unless his own condition prove too serious to permit his going to jail, is the result of Walter Scott's latest attempt at speed making.

The self-styled king of Death Valley tried to break the automobile record between this city and Pasadena last evening and was doing well until the car slipped a tire.

"Scotty" lies at his home with a fractured vertebra and hip, a spinal concussion, and possibilities of permanent paralysis.

Jay Davidson, a local sporting writer, sustained severe contusions and a number of cuts.

Fred Kehoe, the chauffeur, suffered minor injuries.

Scott and Mehling will be arrested this morning, provided the former is in condition to stand service of a warrant. Late last evening Detectives McKenzie and Conner began a hunt for Kehoe.

A wild ride with an ugly ending, it all came about through a reckless desire to make new notoriety. A $200 bet with Harry Mehling hinged on "Scotty's" ability to make Pasadena and return in forty minutes. The wager was made yesterday.

The run began at 8:14 o'clock last evening at the corner of Broadway and First street. The Troy Laundry in Pasadena, the turning point, was passed at 8:38. During this and the return four collisions were narrowly escaped and, according to the statement of Scott himself eight or ten pedestrians saw death pass them close by.

At Buena Vista bridge, when the car began the climb to the summit of the hill this side of Elysian Park, a rear tire slipped. The car came to a sudden stop, throwing its occupants against a rock embankment. When they recovered their scattered senses the chauffeur tried to patch the mechanism up. He was unsuccessful. Another touring car conveyed the battered quartette to the city.

AS "SCOTTY" TELLS IT.

Scott's own story of the run, told between gasps of pain at his home, No. 1422 West Eighth street, gives a fair idea of how it all happened. The ex-cow boy and wild-train freak was lying on his bed, alternately cursing and groaning, when he gave it.

"We were going like hell," he said "and something busted. I don't know what it was. Anyhow it busted. We was goin' seventy miles an hour anyhow. We went an awful lick. Lord, it was fearful! We nearly run down any number of people, eight or ten, an' some of them kids." There was pride in his voice in spite of the pain. "I don't know where it was, only it was on the back trip. I was on the front seat an' a friend of mine was at the wheel. Something busted and it went out. The car came to a quick stop and threw us all."

As a matter of fact, the car was going at a rate of fifty to fifty-two miles an hour actual time (which means more than sixty in auto parlance) when the tire slipped. The big machine came to a quick stop, and the passengers were thrown forward and to the right.

THE RUN AND THE WRECK.

In detail the story of the run is this:

The start was made near the corner of First street and Broadway. Scott and Kehoe occupied the front seat; Davidson and Mehling the rear. The run out was bad enough; they made it in twenty minutes flat. During that trip several collisions were imminent. But on the back trip all caution would have been thrown to the winds had the commands of "Scotty" been followed.

"Let her out!" he yelled to Kehoe, and every mile or two the hoarse command was repeated—"Let her out! Let her out!"

As they reeled off the miles in the deepening darkness Scott was apparently in a frenzy. He leaned over against the chauffeur and tried to take the steering wheel. He shouted in his ear and kept it up in spite of what protests could be made.

"Throw away the wheel!" shouted the fool.

He lurched forward until it seemed as though he must fall out at turns into the road. His whole idea seemed to be to annihilate all records or break everything in the attempt. The men in the rear seat hung for their lives, while the mad cowboy continued to shout.

The machine, a heavy touring car, was capable of high speed, but it was making Oldfield time. The strain was too great. Passing Elysian Park the machine took the first turn badly, and came skidding into the second.

Then the rear tire slipped.

It all happened so suddenly that none realized the occurrence of the accident until they came to themselves, downflung against the rock embankment. According to the stories of Scott and Davidson the machine must have come to a fast stop.

After Kehoe had vainly tried to mend the damage, the party hailed a touring car on its way to the city. Bruised and battered and broken, they were brought back. And Scott by wonderful luck kept out of jail.

The car which bore them to town took Davidson to the Police Station. Thence Kehoe and Mehling left for their homes. "Scott" stayed in the car, bragging that he had money in his pocket and would look out for himself. Davidson was taken into the Receiving Hospital.

Captain of Detectives Bradish stated later in the evening that had he known Scott was outside he would have ordered him placed under arrest and brought into the hospital. As it was, however, the office force was busy with several cases; and Scott, in reply to requests from friends that he go inside and get attention, cursed the station and said he'd go home.

"I got $200 on me an' I can hire a doctor. I'm goin' home to my wife," he said. And he was taken to his residence, No. 1422 West Eighth street.

WHAT "SCOTTY" GOT.

Drs. J. L. Turner and R. F. Stovall attended him. After an examination they gave out this statement of his injuries:

Probable fracture of the lower lumbar vertebra; concussion of spine; displacement or fracture of the crest of the ilium. This last means a fracture of the pelvic bone. The consequences of such injuries would be, according to Dr. Stovall, possible paraiysis, permanent or temporary. The concussion of the spine complicates this to some extent.

While Scott was undergoing surgical attention, detectives were looking for Kehoe. Both Scott and Mehling, according to the police, will be arrested today, charged with violating the speed ordinance. During the progress of their ride within city limits, numerous complaints of their reckless pace came to the police.

Davidson was an invited spectator and in no way responsible for the occurrence.

Shortly after midnight, Detectives McKenzie and Cowan brought Chauffeur Kehoe to the Police Station, for interrogation. He stoutly declared that the speed of the auto inside the city limits had not been more than from fifteen to twenty miles an hour. On this statement he was turned loose for the night. It is the plan of the police to arrest him, Scott and Mehling this morning.

BACK FROM MEXICO.

Hoosier Prospector Found Rich Ore and Murderous Yaquis in the Southern Republic.

C. A. Conlin, a husky young Hoosier, arrived in this city last night from Mexico, where he had been since April last on a prospecting trip.

"I came out here to the Coast last spring," said Conlin to a Times reporter, "with the intention of going to Panama, but I got 'cold feet' and backed out, and decided to go down into Mexico in the interest of a party of capitalists to see what could be found in the shape of rich mines. I have samples here at the assayer's that will make your windy 'Scotty' look cheap.

"If it hadn't been for the depredations of the Yaqui Indians all through my section of the country I would have been there yet. They got so bad that I quit.

"One night I and my partner were waked up by the Mexican who took care of our mules, and we could hear the shooting and the uproar created by Yaquis in a valley over the hill from our camp. We lay there quietly for two days not making any fire, but one afternoon we returned to camp and found only a dead Mexican. Our mules and everything valuable about the camp had been stolen, and a valuable transit I had taken with me was smashed to pieces on the rocks.

"On our way out we came to the smoking ruins of a plantation and discovered human bones, indicating that the occupants had been murdered and burned. I found there a silver signet ring which I now have as a memento of the trip."

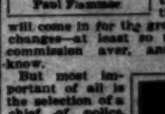
MANY HEADS MAY TUMBLE.

Shake-up in Police Force is Expected Today.

Detective Department Will Get a Pruning.

Auble or Flammer to be Made Chief Next Week.

On the heels of the adoption by the Council Finance Committee yesterday of the recommendation of the Police Commission providing for an additional police captain and three new sergeants, comes the biggest shake-up the local police department has experienced in years.



Paul Flammer

All kinds of rumors are afloat around the City Hall and the Police Station concerning the many changes scheduled to take effect within a few days. The detective branch of the department will come in for the greatest number of changes—at least so members of the commission aver, and they should know.

But most important of all is the selection of a chief of police, which has so long been deferred by Mayor McAleer's commission. If Commissioner Johnson should return in time for the session of the police board today, there could be no possible doubt concerning the outcome. Paul Flammer would be chosen chief at once.

Capt. Auble.

But Commissioner Johnson will not return in time. He left Galesburg, Ill., last night and he cannot possibly arrive in Los Angeles before Thursday. Mayor McAleer has said emphatically that a chief would not be selected until Johnson returned, and every member of the commission was given an opportunity to vote.

So there you are! No chief today, save the Mayor and Acting Chief Auble, and none until at least a week from today. Then who?

Meantime speculation concerning the new chief is rife. Before the action of the Finance Committee yesterday afternoon it was a foregone conclusion that Flammer would get the plum.

Now the new captaincy makes a place for Flammer and the state is said to be this way: Auble, chief; Flammer, captain of detectives; Bradish, captain in charge of the University substation, and probably Hensley (who has been drawing a pension for three years for disability) captain at the Central station. This Hensley guess may be far from right, but that is the report at Central station.

Friends of Flammer claim that he is not out of the running so far as the head of the department is concerned, and that he will be an easy winner in the final dash a week from today. These friends acknowledge he is to get the new captaincy, but they say this is only a stepping stone.

But it is probable that Capt. Auble, who has occupied the position of Acting Chief since Hammel resigned September 1, will be the future real head of the department. If it can be arranged so that Auble can assume the office until the end of the present administration and then resume his former position as captain, it is almost certain that Auble will get the coveted place.

It is in the detective bureau of the department where lightning strikes the hardest. A general shake-up—or shake-down rather—is bound to follow. With Capt. Bradish retired from the head of this branch, the pruning knife will be used extensively and the weeding out of the branch of the service which most needs it will be undertaken. Whether all of the moves planned by the commission will redound to the credit of that august body, remains to be seen. Those familiar with the workings of the department see too much politics in it.

Here is the way the slate has been arranged, so the knowing ones say:

Hawley and Steele to be clerks in the office in place of Moffatt and Kelley. Moffatt, who is the best-read man in the department, will take the place of Chapman, now secretary to the Chief, and Chapman is booked for the place now occupied by Paul Flammer. Kelley will take "outside" work, i.e., he will do regular detective duty.

At least five men in the detective department are slated for return to beats and to uniforms. Their official heads as detectives will drop if the members of the commission have their way. But the Civil Service rules must be considered. The commissioners say they have enough evidence against the accused to drop them without any trouble from the Civil Service Board.

The three new sergeants will probably be selected today, but their names have not been divulged. The changes are to be made rapidly. Twelve special officers are to be dropped.

BANKER'S RETURN.

Great Gathering of Financiers Thinks Securities Have Reached the Top Notch.

J. C. Drake, president of the Los Angeles Trust Company, returned yesterday from the convention of the American Bankers' Association, which met in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Drake says it was a great gathering of over 4000 bankers from all over the the continent, including all the well-known lions of finance, who engaged for four days in discussing the monetary situation and many more days in taking in the sights.

It was probably the concensus of opinion among the financiers, Mr. Drake says, that securities have reached the high-water mark in this country, though there was no prediction of financial distress. Perhaps the greatest question upon which they expressed themselves in a decided way was their strong endorsement of the scheme to subsidize steamships, for the purpose of building up the merchant marine.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Second Ward property owners yesterday told the Council that their condition in the oil district is little better than that of inhabitants of a captured province; they urged that immediate legislation be passed releasing them from their bondage.

"For God's sake stay away and keep your mouth shut," is message that Hewitt Howton gets in reply to an offer of his services gratis in San Francisco municipal campaign.

The Council will meet tomorrow morning at adjourned session to open bids for purchase of $1,500,000 water securities.

The dispute between the members of the two families owning the Maier-Zobelein Brewery Company reached a head yesterday, but instead of the case being protracted, it was submitted on the depositions, and arguments at once began in Judge Bordwell's court.

The late Guillermo Andrade's will was probated by Judge Conrey yesterday, and it then was revealed that the deceased had very generously left a fortune to establish a high-grade school in his native city in Mexico.

AT THE CITY HALL.

MAKE WAR ON OIL NUISANCE.

SECOND WARD ASKS RELEASE FROM BONDAGE.

Citizens Liken Their Condition to That of Inhabitants of a Conquered Province—Nine Tenths of Property in District Represented on Red-hot Protest.

Led by Councilman Hammon, the clans from the hill section of the Second Ward descended horse and foot upon the Council yesterday afternoon in a united effort to wipe the oil wells off that section of the municipal map.

They rallied to the support of a petition, printed in The Times Sunday morning, making a general appeal for relief from the oil nuisance.

A detachment of oil men filed into the lobby to defend the claims of the oil producers and shippers; but, deterred by the bold front put up by the enemy, they did not venture to approach the floor of the Council chamber.

Hammon led the attack with a motion that the City Attorney be instructed to prepare and present an ordinance which would give the property owners of his ward prompt and effective relief.

Marshall Stimson, in behalf of the Second Warders, told the Council that the petition affects only that portion of the ward bounded by Douglas, Beaudry, Bellevue and Colton streets. He said that the names of ninety-five per cent. of the property owners in that district are attached to the petition.

"For six years," said Mr. Stimson, "we of the Second Ward have borne with the oil wells in our midst. There was a time when these wells were paying property; that time has passed. Most of them are now operated at an actual loss, and we ask you to release our property from this bondage.

"We hold that the permits on which the cables are strung across streets and alleys are illegal, and we ask that the Council, which granted them, do order that they now be withdrawn.

"At one time there were 250 wells in this district. A year and a half ago the number in operation was reduced to 194. Now there are but 92 wells there and but 87 can be pumped.

"Reference is made in this petition to a corral. Since that petition was placed in circulation that corral burned and a couple of houses with it. There are other fire traps in our district.

"One nuisance mentioned is a steaming plant. That plant could be operated in the river bed just as well as out there in the midst of our homes. Its operation is illegal and we ask that it be removed, and that quickly."

Capt. Wheeler, a venerable, white-haired patriarch, said that during the last six years the Second Ward has been reverting to barbarism. "Ride through that section of the city," challenged Capt. Wheeler. "You will see that the people look and act as though they lived in a conquered province. Those who have been able to get away have made their escape, but there are a few who have their all invested there and who have been compelled to remain. The rest got out just as they would get out of purgatory."

J. C. Todd followed with an assertion that he bought property within the prescribed district seventeen years ago, has paid taxes on it ever since, including assessments for three street openings, and that when he recently offered it for sale the best offer he could get was the exact sum he paid for the property in 1888.

"The oil men talk about confiscation of property," he went on. "The facts of the case are that our property and not theirs has been confiscated, and we are now asking for its redemption at your hands."

Half a dozen other Second Ward property owners argued in a similar strain, each urging the Council to take immediate action for the reclamation of the Second Ward.

"Are there any representatives of the oil men present?" asked President Summerland at the conclusion. "It is only fair that their side of the case should be presented."

But one by one the oil men in the lobby had disappeared; the argument was a bit too strenuous for their liking.

Councilman Kern professed a willingness to assist the property owners in the oil district, but he favored referring the petition to the Legislative Committee. To this the Second Warders protested; they wanted the oil wells outlawed before the Council adjourned. A compromise was finally effected under the terms of which the petition was referred to a special committee, of which Councilman Hammon is chairman.

This committee will meet and listen to arguments in the Council committee rooms Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

"TRUST" IS SLOW.

MAY FORFEIT BONDS.

Street Superintendent Hanley fired a brick yesterday at the asphalt trust. He went before the Council and reported that the Barber Asphalt Paving Company has failed to sign up on its contracts for paving Seventh street and that it has defaulted on a number of other minor contracts.

In each instance the company has on file with the City Clerk either a bond or a certified check to bind its promise to sign up and perform the work in question in case it is awarded the contract.

Chairman Kern of the Board of Public Works resented this dilatory practice on the part of the paving company. On his motion the Council instructed the City Clerk to cite the Barber Paving Company to appear before the Board of Public Works next Friday afternoon and show cause why its bonds should not be declared forfeited, and the company itself listed as an irresponsible bidder.

After the Council session it was asserted that the paving company declined to sign up for the improvement of West Seventh street by reason of an alleged irregularity in the contract.

READY FOR BIDS.

WATER-BOND ISSUE.

On motion of Chairman Smith of the Finance Committee, the Council adjourned last night to meet again Wednesday morning for the purpose of receiving bids for the purchase of the $1,500,000 water bonds.

Bids will be opened in the Council chamber promptly at 11 o'clock in the morning. Agents of a number of eastern bond houses are already here and the present prospects are that the bond issue will be subscribed three or four times over.

Mayor McAleer and City Treasurer Workman will this morning commence the arduous task of placing their official signatures on each of the 1500 bonds. A member of an eastern trust company is here for the purpose of attesting to the genuineness of each certificate.

Councilmen are hopeful of selling the entire issue to a single company and at a premium.

Final arrangements were made by the Council yesterday for making a trip of personal inspection to the Owens River country just as soon as the bonds are sold. Seven Councilmen have expressed an intention to make this pilgrimage. The party will probably leave here October 7 and will spend about two weeks in the valley.

Ex-Mayor Eaton will have the party in charge. Frank Olmsted will go along in the capacity of consulting engineer.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

BREWERY FIGHT OVER CHECKS.

BEER FACTORY TROUBLES ARE BEING ARGUED.

No Witnesses Summoned Into Court, But the Whole Case Submitted on the Pleadings and Depositions Taken in the Past Few Months. Andrade's Gift for Hermosillo.

Judge Bordwell has enough books to keep him engaged in close study for a while—law books, eight of them, nicely bound and each with several hundred leaves of type-written matter. In these are contained the depositions taken in the suit instituted by George Zobelein, his sons also being nominal plaintiffs, against the Maier & Zobelein Brewery Company, the several members of the Maier family individually, and Ed Golter, F. Rademacher and G. Thurner.

The story of the difficulty existing was told when first an application for a receiver was made, and since then the corps of attorneys has been busy taking depositions of persons knowing of the inward workings of the great Aliso-street corporation. John E. Chapman is the heavyweight attorney representing the plaintiff, and William J. Hunsaker, John P. Jones, and Oscar Lawler are lined up on the other side.

The crux of the case is that the Maier family contrived to get control of the corporation, and, as George Zobelein contends, in a wrongful manner. The witnesses who deposed stated facts which seemed to lend color to that contention, but as many witnesses on the other side deposed to a state of facts not compatible with such a contention. Judge Bordwell will have the last guess when he weighs the respective witnesses in chambers.

Zobelein's fundamental contention has been that when he and Joe Maier incorporated they gave a few shares of the capital stock to several of their trusted employés. He further contends that it was agreed and understood that these odd shares should never be surrendered save to the partnership, for Zobelein maintains that the incorporation was merely for business purposes and that the business was really carried right along as a partnership.

A great deal of testimony was put in by the defendants tending to show that the employés bought and paid for their stock, and having paid for it they felt they were at liberty to sell it to whom they pleased. Some of the witnesses, too, testified to Zobelein becoming discontented with conditions at the brewery when the board of directors adopted a rule that all checks should be signed by the president and treasurer. Under the old time regime, Zobelein had drawn checks as he pleased as president, and without asking odds from anyone. With the death of Joe Maier, conditions changed somewhat, and the Maier interests wished to have a more systematic understanding of what was going on. This was the reason for the new rule about check drawing by the president, so that the treasurer, one of the Maier boys might also know exactly what the expenditures were for.

A great number of minor charges circle around the larger one contended for by the plaintiffs, but by stipulation yesterday all the testimony was considered in with the submission of the piles of deposition, and the arguments were at once begun. Inasmuch, however, as the pleadings took all the morning hours to read to the court, the arguments will probably not be concluded today.

ANDRADE ESTATE.

GIFTS FOR HERMOSILLO.

The last will and testament of the late Guillermo Andrade, who filed the position of Mexican Consul in this city, was admitted to probate yesterday by Judge Conrey, on the petition of F. A. Hartman, of this city, one of the executors.

Andrade was a resident of California and consequently his estate is being administered under the law of this State, though the most valuable holdings are in Mexico.

There is on hand in a local bank, $13,490; the sum of $40,000 is represented by bonds in corporations; there is $37,500 in escrow with the Title Insurance and Trust Company; there is $4000 life insurance, and $2000 covers miscellaneous property. Then there are lands in Mexico the value of which cannot be absolutely fixed, but that are worth approximately $200,000. The prospective value of the estate, however, approximates $1,000,000. The will bears date of August 3, 1904, with a codicil dated May 11, 1905, in which F. A. Hartman, Los Angeles; Don Ramon Coral, City of Mexico; Juan D. Castro, Hermosillo and José Garcia, Guaymas, are named as executors. The legatees are the widow, Guadalupe C. de Andrade, aged twenty-eight, and the children by a prior marriage: Carmen Andrade de Bannett, fifty-two, a resident of the City of Mexico; Eduardo J. Andrade, forty-four, residing in this city; Albert F. Andrade, forty-two, also residing here; Eliose Andrade de Ialt, thirty-five, a daughter residing at Fruitvale; and another daughter named Mercedes Andrade, twenty-five, residing at Oakland. These with several grandchildren, are the beneficiaries under the will.

When the will was drafted last year Andrade made an exact draft of his financial status at that time, and his assets then totaled up $900,348 and a good deal of the property was stated to be valued at very low figures. The main pieces of property, however, are 160,000 acres on the Colorado River, valued at $800,000; 25,000 acres of land at San Felipe in Lower California, valued at $17,500; and 158,000 acres on Tiburon Island, valued at $15,800. It is specifically set out that these lands shall not be sold at less than $5 an acre for the Sonora lands, $1 an acre for the San Felipe lands, and 10 cents for the Tiburon Island tract. That the Sonora lands can be sold for over $5 an acre the deceased set out that there was no doubt as the 100,000 acres he had sold to Mr. Heber is now selling for $20 an acre.

After all the legacies are paid Señor Andrade provides that the residue of the estate up to $300,000, gold, be devoted to establish at Hermosillo, his native city, a school for primary teaching and for fine and mechanical arts, to be known as the "Andrade Institute." This school is to be for young men and women not over fifteen years of age who are too poor to pay for an education. The sum of $135,000 is to be appropriated for the buildings, machinery, tools, and fitting the school with all necessary paraphernalia, and the remainder of the money, $175,000, is to be used as an endowment fund to maintain it. To Don Ramon Coral, actual president of the Interior; Don Juan D. Castro, actual president of the Bank of Sonora; Don José Garcia, merchant of Guaymas; Guatmoc Therri and Doña Luisa Goriata de Bustamante, are named as trustees to have charge of instituting this splendid gift to the city and community of Hermosillo, Sonora.

There are a number of trust funds provided for in the will, and to prevent discontent and opposition it is provided that any of the heirs feeling dissatisfied with the terms of the will, and having an intention to contest its provisions, shall at "that instant" lose all rights under its terms, and his or her share of the estate is to be distributed among the other heirs.

THE LAND SLID.

WON'T BELIEVE IT A BLESSING.

The act of God is being pleaded in a suit for damages that has occupied the attention of Judge Trask for several days. But the other fellow does not see things that way and is suing for $1000 as damages.

Mrs. Clara Cattern, as executrix of the Newton estate, is being sued on the ground that she opened a tract of land north of Villa street, laid out a street and turned the water that theretofore had been meandering as it would or could down a new channel. Just about that time last winter's rain began to fall. The storm waters came dashing down from the Altadena heights, and a more than fair share of the total amount found their way down the new channel cut for improvement purposes by the Newton estate.

One E. D. Campbell owns acreage about 1200 feet outside the city limits of Pasadena, and directly in the way of the small deluge of water that came tearing down through the new Villa street tract. Like all the other ranchers Campbell was thankful for the rains but he didn't want the waters coming in just as they did. Tearing their way through his land a settimentary deposit overlaid about two acres of his good agricultural land, and about ruining it as he maintains.

Mrs. Clara Cattern makes the contention that the abundant overflow of last year was an act of God for which the Newton estate could not be held responsible. Again, it has been claimed that instead of being a damage and a detriment to the Campbell lands the sedimentary deposit is a blessing, in that it has enriched the soil a hundredfold.

MISS PEABODY'S GIFT.

PROVIDES "HOME OF REST."

To probate the will of the late Miss Helen Peabody of Pasadena was yesterday admitted, though it is understood that a division of the estate will be made in accord with the wishes of the deceased and also in accord with the law of the State.

Miss Peabody sets out that all her property has resulted from a small investment made by her in 1885, upon entering the work in connection with the Western Female Seminary, Oxford, O., which has occupied her for thirty-three years. There is a house and lot in St. Louis, Mo., a house and lot on Los Robles avenue, Pasadena, and some other property on Euclid avenue, in the same city. All of this property is devised to establish a "house of rest" for ministers who are not invalids, and is to be administered by the Woman's Occidental Board of Missions.

Inasmuch as the State law forbids that anyone should leave more than a certain proportion of his or her estate to charity, it has been informally stated that an agreement has been reached by which the heirs of the deceased will get the value of the property above the actual amount allowed by law to be distributed in charity.

COUNTY STATISTICS.

REPORT FILED.

Yesterday afternoon J. O. Lowe, who was appointed by the Board of Supervisors two months ago as expert to collate and tabulate county statistics, made his report. The last Legislature amended an act to establish a uniform system of county government, so that the industries and products of each county might be tabulated and the status of the State established.

But owing to the forwarding of blanks from Sacramento, Mr. Lowe was not appointed early enough to do the work with any approach to completeness, and he presented to the board some of the reasons for this. The State Board of Agriculture insisted upon the returns made on the blanks furnished, and yet Los Angeles did not receive blanks until two months ago, despite the fact that at that time other counties were well ahead with their investigation.

"As a matter of absolute fact," said Mr. Lowe, "I could have spent almost all of the sixty days in investigating two or three of the larger industries. Then, too, the United States Bureau of Commerce and Labor had a corps of men investigating along almost identical lines, and they had finished their labors just about the time I was beginning mine. They treated their data as absolutely confidential and refused to give anything out, and so in going over a beaten track I found that business men were not eager to furnish the material I wanted. Some, indeed, peremptorily refused to give away any information regarding their business on the ground that their competitors would benefit."

Notwithstanding the drawbacks the report filed is a voluminous document and contains a mass of statistics never before collected and reduced to such form as to prove either of interest or profit.

FOR CONSOLIDATION.

Commission Probably to be Appointed With Funds to Carry on the Work of Framing the Great Reorganization Plan.

THE city and county consolidation project is about to be placed on a business basis. To that extent the final-action stage is nearer today than it ever has been.

It will be remembered that the original committee, appointed by the Chamber of Commerce with Oscar C. Mueller as chairman, reported favorably to that body, as the result of considerable hard work involving research and earnest discussion. There was then appointed a second committee, composed of President J. O. Koepfli of the Chamber of Commerce, President Niles Pease of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and President H. C. Witmer of the Municipal League. The last two bodies joined with the first in creating that committee. Instructions were to further canvass the situation and report.

The committee of three made independent investigations, and recently reported in favor of consolidation. This report was returned, with instructions to select a committee of citizens who should devise and recommend means of accomplishment, so that the project could be shaped up for actual presentation to the people.

WOULD THROW WORK AWAY.

After deliberating at some length the committee of presidents concluded that little of real effect would be secured by following instructions, inasmuch as a committee so appointed would be wholly inofficial and its recommendations therefore would have no official standing. Presidents Koepfli, Pease and Witmer so reported, with the suggestion that the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and Municipal League take steps to have an authorized commission appointed by either the City Council, the Board of Supervisors or those bodies jointly, with funds appropriated for the employment of a chairman of ability who should devote his whole time to collecting such information as would enable the commission to devise ways and means to bring consolidation about.

This report has been approved by the Chamber of Commerce, and that body has issued a letter inviting the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and the Municipal League to take similar action.

That letter reached the two organizations Saturday, and it is semi-officially understood that it will be acquiesced in. President Pease said last night that the M. and M. directors will meet Thursday afternoon and approve the plan. President Witmer was not so definitely advised as to the Municipal League, as he has been granted a three months' leave of absence from the city and has been busy putting his affairs in shape for a long health trip. However, it is to be believed that the Municipal League will join hands promptly at its regular meeting next Friday.

BIGGEST YET, SAYS KOEPFLI.

President Koepfli, discussing the report of the committee last night, said:

"To put the consolidation project in shape for intelligent decision by the people of Los Angeles city and county is such a huge and important task that it not only demands the entire time and attention of one fully qualified man, but the recommendations to be made by the committee deliberating on his reports must have an official standing. We felt that for us to undertake the thing would be to throw our work away, for when we had finished, our findings would have the weight only of suggestion.

"We were not prepared, moreover, to say whether the City Council or the Board of County Supervisors, or those bodies jointly, should have the naming of the proposed commission, and so we passed that point up to our three parent organizations. It would seem that inasmuch as city and county are equally concerned in the outcome, the governing bodies of both should have the naming of the commission of ways and means—a commission with work of more importance and greater magnitude to perform than any other in the history of Southern California.

"In proportion to the immense desirability of a consolidation of the city and county governments are the obstacles in the way of bringing it about; or, rather, of bringing it to the point of decision. That it can be accomplished is sure. That it will be accomplished I believe. But one who has not searched the problem for a practical solution can have no idea of the monumental work involved in 'bringing it to a head.' That work, we think, can best be done by a sort of freeholders' board appointed by the proper authorities."

"A FAIR EXCHANGE."

President Pease of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, discussing one phase of the project, said last night:

"Undoubtedly the adoption by Los Angeles of the Owens River water project has brought city and county consolidation nearer a reality than it ever was before, or than it could have been brought by any one other agency. The bringing of the Owens River to Los Angeles gives the proponents of consolidation a basis of fair exchange to work on in their approach of county territory. That is to say, such county districts and municipalities as decide to consolidate with the city will bear their proportions of the future cost of the water project and will receive an abundance of water for all purposes at a much lower cost than they otherwise could. As the development of vast electrical power is a part of the Owens River scheme, the same cost and benefit sharing will apply in the matter of lighting.

"In short, the bringing of 30,000 or more inches of pure water supply from Owens Valley to Los Angeles will go far toward making consolidation an accomplished fact.

"The preliminary work may occupy one year, or it may be cleaned up in three months. That depends."

WATER COMMISSIONERS TALK.

The Water Board at the close of its regular meeting yesterday afternoon discussed informally the tentative offer of eastern capitalists to relieve the city of the further expense of bringing the river to Los Angeles in exchange for the power rights, news of which was published in The Times last week.

The Water Commissioners have nothing to do at present but await developments. They gave the negotiating engineer the assurance asked for by him that they would seriously look into his proposal if it came to them officially and with thorough financial backing. He has departed for New York with that word, and the next move must come from the East.

Until the proposition comes before the board in official form the commissioners will not, of course, consider it in session; but it is too lively a project to escape personal discussion among them. Various opinions were informally canvassed after yesterday's meeting, and arguments for and against the relinquishment of power rights by the municipality were casually urged.

In certain quarters the belief obtains that Superintendent Mulholland's figures—$22,000,000—are far outside what the actual cost will prove to be, and that $14,000,000 to $16,000,000 comes nearer the probable expense. If that be correct, think some, the city would do a foolish thing in selling cheaply electrical power rights which likely will create a revenue of from $1,000,000 to $1,750,000 a year.

One of the members of the Water Board said yesterday: "If a syndicate had come to us at the inception of the project and offered to solve the 'big' problem in exchange for power rights, we would have jumped at it. By 'we' I mean the people. But now that we've gone at it ourselves, and realize to some extent what a gigantic plum we have treed, why, I rather think we'll be slow about letting the other fellow buy a bite."

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

Allen against the Los Angeles Railway Company, to recover $25,140, went to trial before Judge James and a jury yesterday, with Harris & Harris championing the cause of Allen and Attorney H. Sterry appearing for the defendant corporation. The suit had its origin in an accident that occurred at Ninth and Alvarado streets on May 24 of last year. Allen's buggy was struck by a westbound car and he received very serious injuries.

TWIN" GOOD FOR A MATCH.

Sullivan to Meet Jimmy Gardner as Agreed.

Fight Will Take Place on Thanksgiving Day.

Perilous Voyage of Aloha. Gans Breaks Off.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The match between Jimmy Gardner and Mike ("Twin") Sullivan, made last week, has not been broken off. Articles were signed for a 10-round fight in this city on Thanksgiving day. The side bet of $2500 which Gardner had put up was withdrawn, as Sullivan refused to sanction the side bet, declaring the public put no faith in such bets.

The fight will probably be held in Woodward's Pavilion. Both Gardner and Sullivan were present at the O'Brien-Kaufmann fight last Friday night, and were introduced to the crowd, which gave Gardner a great ovation.

Jimmy is the most popular man who has ever come from the East because of his clear-cut victories over Rufe Turner and "Buddy" Ryan.

GANS DROPS HERFORD.

WANTS A "SQUARE DEAL."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Joe Gans is no longer under the management of Al Herford. He said today: "Herford had too many business interests at home to give me much of his time, and we agreed to split. We parted good friends, but Al has nothing more to do with me. As I am without funds I came out here to fight, and I don't care whom I fight. I have spent the money I earned freely, and therefore haven't as much as some other fighters who have been more saving. Besides, a colored man never has the same chance as a white man. I would like to get with some man who would get me 'square deals'—give me a chance to do what is right."

It was Herford's management that made Gans unpopular, not his black skin.

HERNANDEZ GORED AGAIN.

HORN PENETRATES BODY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to the Tribune from the City of Mexico says Joaquin Hernandez was gored by the third bull yesterday, the horn penetrating the body. After falling to the ground, he was again gored in the right side. Physicians declare the wounds fatal. Saturday, the matador received a cable from Seville announcing the death of his father. He endeavored to secure a release from the contract to fight, but the management refused to comply with the request.

CATCHER O'CONNOR DIVORCED.

DECREE BY DEFAULT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jack O'Connor, champion catcher of the baseball world, was awarded a divorce from his wife, Cora, today, by default. It was shown by the testimony that Mrs. O'Connor was a frequenter of winerooms, where she indulged in highballs with a number of society swells. O'Connor told of having seen his wife, one evening, at Delmonico's in company with Ralph Orthwein, president of the St. Louis Browns. Others testified to seeing her in winerooms.

ALOHA'S PERILOUS VOYAGE.

YACHT IN A SQUALL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—After one of the most perilous voyages any yacht of the New York Yacht Club has had to record, Commodore A. C. James's magnificent Aloha, an auxiliary craft, put into port yesterday. The Aloha has been on a cruise along the coast of Scotland and Ireland, and had landed Commodore James and his guests at Southampton, and then started on the return trip October 5. She had hardly been twenty-four hours out when she encountered such a heavy gale that she was forced to "lay to" for four days.

About midnight, October 14, just after the starboard watch had gone below, the vessel ran into a terrific squall. Chief Officer Jacobsen sent three men out on the outer jib. They had hardly started up when a heavy sea swept over the yacht, striking it with such force that Andrew Anderson, a Scandinavian seaman, was carried into the sea.

Anderson is a burly fellow, and the best swimmer of the crew. He kept afloat of the seas for twenty minutes, when the crew jumped into a lifeboat and hauled him aboard, weak, but unharmed.

POSTPONE FIGHT.

HERRERA HAS COLD.

The Bishop-Herrera fight will not take place on November 3, as originally planned.

Yesterday a postponement of one week was effected, Herrera being laid up with a severe cold. Tom McCarey will not take the Mexican's forfeit money, but Eddie Hanlon, who is under considerable expense at the beach, has no such scruples. He took Auburn's $250 without batting an eye.

There is certainly to be a grudge fight. The boys never did like each other, and yesterday's occurrence will not promote good feeling.

The winner will be given a crack at one of the best lightweights in the game, hence Astrello's care to be in the best condition.

"Philadelphia Jack O'Brien" means to break his date with "Twin" Sullivan if McCarey has not been advised of it. Kid Gorman, who is to fight Wardrick a preliminary to the next bout of the lightweights, arrived yesterday.

ZAISER AGAIN.

DUCK "AIRSHIP LINE."

Deputy Fish Commissioner H. I. Pritchard descended again upon L. G. Zaiser yesterday upon the same old charge, having over fifty ducks in his possession, contrary to the State law. Zaiser came up in police court, and, as usual, demanded a jury trial.

"This is the fifth time I have had Zaiser in court," said Pritchard yesterday. "He is the most persistent and formidable opponent of the game laws with whom I have to deal; the fish commission men mostly obey the laws, but this man openly defies them and boasts of the 'underground railway' and 'airship line' whereby he receives more ducks than the law allows. He relies upon police court juries to get him off, and I regret to say this confidence has rarely been misplaced.

"There is a case pending against Zaiser for having salmon in his possession during the closed season, and it comes up November 7. The present duck case is set for November 14.

"I am going to stamp out this illegal selling of ducks if it lies in my power," says Pritchard. "It seems almost impossible to get a conviction with some of these police court juries, even on the most conclusive evidence, but I am not going to let up on that account."

SIGN PAPERS; GAME NOW ON.

POMONA AND U. S. C. PLANT DEEP THE HATCHET.

Signatures Appended to Contract for Early December Date—Teams Both Good, and Anxious for a Crack at Each Other—Fiesta Park Agreed Upon for Play.

Pomona and U. S. C. have finally signed a treaty of peace—buried the hatchet, kissed and made up, promised to be friends.

To one who has followed the local athletic situation for years, the childish college tiff included, this news seems like some pleasant pipe emanation, but the documentary evidence was prepared yesterday, when student-manager Leslie Fuller of Pomona, and the proper authorities of U. S. C., under the watchful eye of Prof. Harvey Holmes, affixed their signatures to a contract calling for a game of football at Fiesta Park December 9, paying a stipulated sum for the use of the field.

That something of this sort would be a feature of the present football season was predicted two months ago by Prof. Holmes, who, since he assumed control of athletics at U. S. C., has labored assiduously for an agreement with Pomona, feeling that there was little between the colleges except a misunderstanding. The settlement is in the nature of a tribute to the efforts of a man who is the subject of considerable "knocking," but thus far seems to have been on the square in his dealings with the athletic public.

The keenest of rivalry exists between the two colleges which play December 9, although there is great good feeling shown. Both have good teams. Coach Noble has done phenomenally well at Pomona in his first year, while Holmes's untiring efforts within the last month have doubled the chances of U. S. C., which were anything but bright at the start of the season.

U. S. C.'s football squad starts north Thursday for games with the northern universities. Scrimmage practice daily, with occasional minor games, is the programme this week.

POMPANO RUNNING.

SPORT IN THE BAY.

Lovers of the toothsome pompano will be rejoiced to learn that the gamy little fellows have reappeared in San Pedro Bay, not as plentiful as they were last winter, but at least two months earlier than they appeared at that time.

The fish are of good size, equal in breadth to the palm of an average man's hand. They are biting a little, though "snagging" is the method usually resorted to—essentially barbaric and unsportsmanlike, but admittedly deadly.

Of local anglers who fished San Pedro Sunday "Halibut Charlie" Merrill "snagged" a dozen pompano, and Tommy Prisdent and party, in a boat, "snagged" about three dozen.

The spotfin croakers were prowling about early in the morning. Eugene Elliott and "Billy" Stearns each got one; R. Campbell, D. Botiller and Tracy Shoults each landed a fine pair. The tide was the highest of the season thus far, and ran at such a pace that there was no fishing except at slack water.

PORTLAND TODAY.

M'CREDIE IS NEXT.

The next victims scheduled for sacrificial slaughter under the bats of the Looloos are Walter McCredie's Portland pitchers, who, on the last few days' form, may expect to get handed the first installment of what is coming to them this afternoon, beginning at 2:30.

McCredie has several new players on the list, mostly amateurs he is trying out.

PORTLAND WINS.

BAKERSFIELD GAME.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Portland and Seattle crossed bats in this city this afternoon before a large attendance. The game was advertised as a championship contest, but as it is against the rules to play for the pennant series in any city not in the league, the match was perhaps an exhibition, but both sides played to win and the spectators were treated to an excellent match. In the second half of the first inning the first three batters hit Vickers safely and earned one run. Then Jones and Blenkenship relieved Vickers and Frary and the game was a pitchers' battle for seven consecutive innings. In the fifth Croll made a two-base hit off of Callif, but he did not score.

Two men were out on the Portland side in the first half of the ninth and two strikes were called on Van Buren, when Jones shot a hard straight ball over the plate and the Portland batter knocked it into right field for a double. The crowd went wild when Mitchell rapped a safely past short, then Schlafly hit one to deep center for two bases, scoring Van Buren and Mitchell. McHale and Sweeney singled and before the Giants retired they made six hits, two of which were doubles, that gave them four tallies.

Excitement was intense when the first trio of Siwashes filled the bases, but Callif took a new lease and no runs were scored.

Both teams will play in Bakersfield next Monday. Score:

Portland, 4; hits, 11; errors, 2.
Seattle, 1; hits, 9; errors, 1.

POLO MEN UNITE.

ASSOCIATION FORMED.

At a meeting of delegates held Saturday afternoon in the Van Nuys Hotel, the Southern California Polo and Pony Racing Association was organized with the usual order of business, excepting election of officers which was postponed until the next meeting.

Coronado, Riverside, Santa Monica and Los Angeles were represented. Santa Barbara is understood to be in hearty accord with the movement, which has for its purpose the advancement and regulation of the pony sport in Southern California, the past having proved that the California association has all it can do to attend to the game north of the Tehachepi.

Among those present were Robert Lee Bettner of Riverside, with credentials from the Riverside and Coronado clubs, representing both; Messrs. B. N. Smith, Jr., Fairman, Young, Edmonds and Bundrem of Los Angeles Polo Club; George L. Waring and T. H. Dudley of Santa Monica, and J. H. Wright of Riverside. There were to have been two delegates from each club.

M. M. Potter offered headquarters in the Van Nuys and the association gladly accepted them.

Each club is to have two representatives on the board of directors, while two will be apportioned the membership at large which is provided for the accommodation of "unattached" polo players.

Another meeting will be held next Friday. The scheduling of dates for the coming season will be taken up at once, and the arranging of a programme for the Coronado Club's coming polo and pony meet will also be started, at their request.

SEEK DESERT THIRST VICTIMS.

HOFFMAN IS LIKELY ONLY ONE ALIVE.

Though Broken in Body and Mind from His Sufferings, He Expresses His Willingness to Accompany a Searching Party Back up the Coast to Where His Companions Started.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Oct. 29.—J. E. Hoffman, of the Grindell party, who arrived in Guaymas three days ago, undoubtedly is the only member of the expedition left alive. For weeks he had been drifting down the coast eating shellfish and living for days at a time without other water than that secured from chewing cactus pulp. Finally he fell in with several Mexican fishermen, who cared for him kindly and eventually brought him to Guaymas.

Though broken in body and mind from his sufferings, Hoffman expresses his willingness to accompany a searching party back up the coast, to the point where his companions started into the desert from the seashore.

From his description, it is apparent that the expedition was of the "tenderfoot" kind, illy provided against the perils of the waterless land. It was in June that T. F. Grindell, Hoffman, "Doc" Rawlins and one Ingraham left Douglas, bound for Tiburon Island, in the Gulf of California, where Grindell reported he had heard of a great gold ledge. The Papago guide who was found lately in Hermosillo, gave them satisfactory service, but left the party a day's march from the coast.

With a water supply of only four five-gallon oil cans of water, the men made the coast somewhere north of Tiburon. A couple of days later they arrived opposite the island, which is separated from the mainland only by a shallow strait, of several miles width, that is even dry in very low tides. An attempt to wade over to the island had to be abandoned, as the tide was running strong and the water came up to the men's armpits. Hoffman tried distilling water, but did not succeed. The party then tried to find a ranch of which they had heard. The men were on foot, except for burros, their horses having been lost before they struck the coast. With two of the best burros, Rawlins pushed on ahead. The others found his camp a couple of days later, near-by lying one of the burros, that had died of thirst. Then Grindell left his companions, following after Rawlins, and never was seen again. This was about June 28. Ingraham became delirious from thirst and tried to kill Hoffman, who finally had to leave him. It is probable he died very soon after, as he had no water.

Capt. Rynning of the Arizona Rangers has gone to Hermosillo, whence he will lead a second searching party into the desert coast country, though with no hope of finding more than the bodies of the Americans. A Mexican party already has started.

EXPLOSION MYSTERY.

The explosion of engine No. 2736 near Yuma Friday is said to have been the tenth that has occurred among the abnormally large "battleship" locomotives of the type now used on this division by the Southern Pacific Company. The reason of the explosion has not been found by the railroad men. It is not believed possible that the water was too low. The locomotive had just started up a steep grade and was working under full pressure when the boiler burst, tearing the upper works of the locomotive into shreds and fragments, but leaving the trucks and running gear still on the track, practically uninjured.

The engineer and fireman were instantly killed, the only mutilation being that the fireman's body was found with both arms gone. The engineer, J. W. McClain, and the fireman, R. C. Christensen, both were residents of Tucson. The former was married. He had been in the service about ten years and had made a record as a careful and expert engineer.

NEW ROUTE FOR FREIGHT.

From apparently authentic sources, information is given out that the Southern Pacific will complete its Gila Valley line between Mesa and San Carlos at the earliest possible date and will thereafter route practically all through freight over the new road by way of Bowie, San Carlos and Tempe, rejoining the main line at Maricopa. The extension from Phoenix to Yuma is not to be taken up until some future time. This still leaves grades to be surmounted between Maricopa and Yuma but will cut out much heavy hauling east of Tucson. Thirty-two miles of the Gila Valley, Globe and Northern, north of Bowie, are being rebuilt in preparation for the heavy traffic that is to come.

TERRITORIAL BRIEFS.

Several hundred men and two large dredgers are working on the Laguna dam above Yuma. The contractors have increased wages for ordinary laborers from 15 to 20 cents an hour.

More than a mile of the new Colorado River levee below Yuma has been completed by Miller & Beasley, the contractors. The contractors have clashed with the managers of the Ludy canal system, whose headgates are on land that will be dyked by the new levee.

International trouble has cropped out at Douglas. Frequenters of a Mexican drinking saloon have been amusing themselves by discharging rifles across the border apparently aiming at the United States customhouse. The Mexican authorities have arrested four Mexicans and have forbidden the wearing of firearms in that vicinity.

The proprietors of the international American newspaper at Douglas have been sued by Julius Weigehausen for $13,000 damages for alleged libel. Several weeks ago the same plaintiff sued the paper for $5000 damages. It is stated that the newspaper was overly frank in its consideration of some interesting happenings within the Weigehausen household.

Ramon Garcia is alive in Bisbee, though stabbed through the muscles of the heart with a miner's candlestick. Pedro Burola is in custody, charged with the crime.

At Mammoth, north of Tucson, last Wednesday, Gil Ariza shot and mortally wounded his wife, while intoxicated and in a jealous rage. Justice of the Peace Kegel hastened to the scene, but was defied by Ariza with brandished pistol. Whereupon Kegel took the law into his own hands and shot the murderer down, Ariza dying instantly.

Engineer Cook, late of the Mina Grande shaft at Cananea, has returned to his work. A few days ago he hoisted a cage to find it empty, where it should have contained a Mexican miner. The miner was found at the bottom of the shaft, dead, having fallen from the cage. The engineer promptly fled, to avoid the customary incarceration in a Mexican prison until the case was cleared up. The Mexican authorities found that the miner's death was due to his own carelessness, so Cook came back.

Bisbee has organized a Chamber of Commerce, with a membership of 168. J. T. Hood is president and Frank J. Graff secretary.

W. L. Gibbons of Ocean Park, Cal., will erect an $18,000 business block in Tucson, opposite the Santa Rita Hotel. Another Californian, Alfred E. Nutt, State Senator from San Diego, is building a $5000 winter residence in Tucson.

The Mexican customs authorities lately made changes in their method of export inspection that are proving decidedly troublesome to the cattlemen. All animals crossing the border must now be inspected by a Mexican sanitary officer, whose residence and station is at Nogales. If cattle are to be crossed elsewhere than at Nogales the inspector must be sent for, his expenses paid, as well as a fee of ten cents silver for every head inspected.

A new postoffice has been established at Mowry, fourteen miles from Patagonia Station, once the most important mining camp of the Southwest.

Judge E. A. Tucker, who recently resigned from the Territorial bench under charges, has stated that he will remain in Arizona and that he intends to practice law in Solomonville.

Mrs. Emma Tevis, wife of Capt. J. H. Tevis of Bowie, followed her husband to the grave, only two months after his death. Her death occurred at the home of her daughter at Visalia, Cal., though interment was by the side of her husband at Bowie. She was 49 years of age and came to Arizona only a short time after her husband, one of the first pioneers of the Southwest.

At Tombstone, a license to marry has been issued to Charles H. Hubbell of Bisbee and Isabel Flores of San Bernardino, Cal.

Dear Sir—I have a Reo Light Touring Car purchased from you and have driven it more than 800 miles. As you are aware I used to be a locomotive engineer, and really, I had some doubts as to how an automobile would stack up beside the real thing.

But I have doubts no longer. I am delighted with my Reo, and it fills the bill on every possible test. As I said, I have run over 800 miles, and it has cost me less than $15 a month outside of expenditures for gasoline and cylinder oil.

PLAYHOUSES AND PLAYERS.

MASON OPERAHOUSE — "Merely Mary Ann" is not a play; it is a progress—the progress of Mary Ann—merely.

The story is arranged by Zangwill probably with some outside assistance. And since great dramatic art like all other arts consists not in the bewildering complexity of the artificial, the author has held the mirror up to nature, and with the mirror taking out certain photographic crudities, has let nature do the rest.

Mary Ann is a lovable type, a poor little girl from the country of England, a plaintive-voiced child whose mother left the earth when she was very young, and her mother when she was even still younger. Coming from the country of England into England's greatest city, she is still more a child, and more pathetic than ever. Through it all, however, through the smut and dirt that stains her face in the south of London lodging-house, there is left the unstinted sweetness of her spirit, and the touching kindliness of demeanor that one learns, as the story goes, are the two chief characteristics staying with her through poverty and prosperity.

At the last, in a great stroke of good fortune, half a million pounds came to her hand. Bewildered at first, crying in sheer fright at the dazzle of gold, she is separated from those she loves, and six years elapse before she and her higher-bred affinity are brought together again. He presses his suit, but she says "impossible!"—just as he said it before, when she stood before him in cap and gown and smutty face. In a quiet despair he sits at the piano, playing mournfully an old familiar tune—when there enters—not the heiress—but submissively, in quiet cap and even her silly little gloves—just "Merely Mary Ann."

It would take a long space, a very long space, to account for all the pretty little human turns that Zangwill has put in this play. With them, too, he has mixed some old cheap tricks of the stage—such as the device of unconsciously pouring tea on the carpet, and violently smashing dishes against the wall, to the great delight of the simpler element. But these theatric occasions are fortunately very few, and for the most part there runs on the gentle thread of the sweet, tender and very undramatic history of Mary Ann the slavey.

Miss Robson's portraiture is a work of genius. She has created the role, and it is forever hers, just as Richard Mansfield took Baron Chevrial to himself for all time—or E. H. Sothern the poetic Francois Villon. And in her way it is quite as artistic as anything attempted by these famous gentlemen.

Miss Robson does not act Mary Ann. She is Mary Ann. And that is all there is to it.

She is very well supported, first by H. B. Warner, as Lancelot, her musician-lover. Others who come most harmoniously into the idyll are Miss Ada Dwyer, as a lodging-house mistress; William A. Hackett, as a country vicar; Ernest Mainwaring, as Peter, and Miss Margaret Fuller, as Rosie.

The sketch, which was fortunately patronized by a large audience, will continue through the week.

BELASCO. William Gillette's "Secret Service" is an unusually well-written play, working up to the stronger situation without undue strain, and preserving all the unities. The Belasco players are to have it on the boards for a week. Their rendering of it was a trifle frazzled at the edges last night, but it will doubtless be smooth enough before the week's end.

Mr. Galbraith takes the part of the hero, Capt. Thorne, and it is perhaps needless to say that his work in the role is painstaking and intelligent. Miss Lawton's Edith Varney leaves little to be desired. This capable actress is forging steadily to the front, gaining perceptibly in ease and finish from week to week. Her grasp of the intense emotions, too, is firmer and truer. She has learned the power of repose, and uses her knowledge with discretion.

Miss Brissac gave a delightful characterization of Caroline Mitford, a veritable bright, saucy, winning southern girl, never at any moment overdrawn. William Bernard, however, was not quite so convincing as Mr. Arrelsford, a southern gentleman. Mr. Bernard has a most painful and unfortunate tendency toward rant. He "tears a passion to tatters," making rampant melodrama out of the finest and soberest dramatic situations. He had an excellent opportunity in Arrelsford last night—but he let it slip through his fingers.

For the rest, the different roles in "Secret Service" were creditably rendered. The scenic settings of the play are up to the high standard of this theater.

BURBANK. "May Blossom," a play that may be called pastoral without being pastoral, is to be seen at the Burbank this week. It deals with a country scene, but unlike some country plays, the principal characters are not farmers. They say that David Belasco had his pen in its pages; at any rate, it is not at all dull, and whoever the author or adapter may have been, its dialogue is set down with a keen eye to the necessities of action.

The whole story settles upon the fate and adventures of two men and one woman. Both men love the woman, and when man number one is absent, long at the front of war, and is suspected anyway of being a spy, word comes back that he is dead. His people believe it, and finally the woman marries man number two. Afterward man number one comes back. Great grief among all parties, eternal disappearance of number one, and temporary absence of number two for a period of several years.

In the cast Blanche Hall is the eternal feminine, Desmond is man number one, and Earle Ryder man number two.

Besides these principal parts, there are a number of character roles. These are taken by Henry Stockbridge, Willis Marks, Harry Llewellyn and several others.

ORPHEUM—The shortest programme of many seasons is carried out at the Seventh-street theater this week, and for its brevity does not work against its excellence, for even the holdovers are of the best. Two of the things which are new this week are sketches—one "The Two Rubies," based on a woman's jealousy, and the other "Going Abroad," said to be for "laughing purposes only." Both fill the bill, and the work of Arthur Forbes in his imitation of an insane husband in the first of the two, is better than the usual run of the "legit." "Going Abroad" is sheer nonsense, but one of the men who plays it is so fiercely homely that he see him is to laugh.

Acrobats and equilibrists open and close the show, Browning and Wally in the beginning and the three Nevaros at the end. Both teams have many new "stunts," at least some of which will interest those who care for this sort of athletics. The Nevaros are exceedingly good in hand and foot work, while the former pair are better on the ropes and bars. Added to these, Capt. Simons gives an interesting series of experiments in wireless telegraphy, setting up his sending station in the theater while he operates the receiver on the stage. Many of the multifarious uses of the invention are demonstrated, from the ringing of a bell to the firing of mines and a cannon.

The holdovers are the Melani Trio of street singers and Arthur Prince, who is far and away the best ventriloquist ever seen in Los Angeles. Motion pictures round out the bill.

GRAND OPERAHOUSE. "At Risk of His Life," is the name of that which gushes forth in bright incarnadine from the stage of the Grand this week.

It is filled to its excitable finish with thrills of the sort the gallery loves, and as the melodrama-loving audience applauded it with the customary gusto on Sunday, it is to be understood that it is fully up to the standard of its kind.

The Cooley company, presenting it, is better in point of principals and general support than many of the traveling organizations.

NOVELTY. The bill at the Novelty Theater this week includes Tatum, the mind-reader; the Hawaiian quartette; the Deitrich brothers, European acrobats; Sanderson and Bowman, sketch artists; Jennie Ople, soprano; Hayden, concertina player, and Barlow's animal show.

Clean Bedding

Comparatively few women have given the subject of cleanliness in new bedding any more consideration than one of our out-of-town customers who recently requested some gray blankets sent on approval. We wrote her that, for sanitary reasons, we never take back or exchange bedding that has been out of the store over night.

Later, in her order, she wrote:

"I regret that I did not realize the existence of such an obviously necessary rule about bedding. I am very glad that you make no exception—it gives me confidence in your store. You see, I had never thought of the possibility of people using what was not their own."

You are assured of absolute cleanliness in all bedding bought in THIS store.

The ladies of the outdoor section of the Civic Federation of which Mrs. Willoughby Rodman is president, have kindly offered their assistance at the affair and will serve refreshments every day.

For Miss Moore.

One of the loveliest affairs of the week was the reception given yesterday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock with Mrs. Margaret Hughes, that gracious white-haired lady of St. James Park acting as hostess, the affair having been planned in compliment to her granddaughter, Miss Rowena Moore, who on Wednesday is to become the bride of Paul Selby, the wedding taking place at the bride's home.

Yesterday the Hughes home was a glow of bright blossoms and pretty girls and matrons in fetching gowns added to the attractiveness of the affair.

In the drawing-room great baskets and bowls of Maman Couchet roses and ferns were gracefully arranged and asparagus plumosus trailed lightly over snowy lace curtains. In the library the same flowers were artistically utilized and in the hall, where a glimmering punch bowl was set mid soft greenery, great snowy chrysanthemums rioted over the stairway and in windows.

In the dining-room pink and white chrysanthemums were effective, over buffet and mantel the fluffy blossoms appeared and in the center of the table set on an exquisite lace piece rested a lovely French basket from which masses of the snowy blooms peeped, caught in the center with a misty bow of white tulle. Pink and white ices, cakes and bon-bons carried out the pretty effect, and Mrs. Harold Braly, attired in a stunning gown of pale blue silk with lace insets, presided here, while a dainty little miss in pink organdie assisted.

Mrs. Hughes was becomingly attired in a handsome gown of black silk with trimmings of point lace and wore diamonds. Miss Moore was charming in a fetching frock of pompadour silk adorned with great pink roses and trimmed with lace flounces.

Mrs. Josephine Butler, attired in pale blue brocaded silk and Mrs. Fannie Shoemaker in white lace and pearls, daughters of Mrs. Hughes, received with her.

Others who assisted were: Mrs. H. C. Hargreaves of Fallbrook, who wore pale blue silk with lace; Mrs. Paul Burks in green chiffon; Miss Marguerite Moore, white liberty satin and pearl passementerie; Coralie and Edith Selby of Oakland, in white organdie and lace; Miss Marian Walsh, pink and white flowered chiffon; Agnes Arnell of Ventura, pink and blue creation; Miss Frances Coulter, white chiffon and lace; Lucy Clary, white dimity and lace, emerald ornaments; Miss Edna Bumiller, white silk; Miss Pansy Whittaker, pink pompadour silk; Miss Edith Whittaker, white liberty silk and lace; Miss Belle Whittaker, pale green silk and lace; Miss Elizabeth Wood and Miss Helen Downing of Anaheim. More than one hundred and fifty of Miss Moore's young friends were present in the course of the afternoon.

Mr. Selby, with his mother, arrived in the city yesterday for the wedding. Mr. Selby belongs to one of the finest families of Oakland, being a son of Mr. Selby of the Selby Smelting Company, one of the largest firms of the North.

Return from Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson have just returned from a five months trip abroad. Most of their time was spent in London and Paris, seeing the sights and on their way home they stopped in New York for a short stay. They are at present staying at their home on Orange Grove avenue, Pasadena.

Miss Dorsey to Wed.

Society will be much interested to learn of the engagement of Miss Jane Dorsey, daughter of Mrs. Frederick Dorsey of No. 382 Compton avenue, and William Richards of the First National Bank. Miss Dorsey is one of the best known and most popular girls in society, being a member of one of the oldest families here. She has always been one of the favorite belles, and no one has been able to decide just who the fortunate man would be but at last it is out and the wedding is to take place some time in February. It is whispered it will be a large church affair, with a host of pretty girl attendants, but that has not quite been decided yet.

First Meeting of the Year.

Mrs. George G. Mullins and Miss Mary Mullins of No. 3115 South Grand avenue entertained members of the Monday Musical Club yesterday afternoon this being the first meet of the season. The afternoon was really devoted to a few social hours interspersed with some delightful music and those who contributed to the programme were: Miss Adele Conway, pianist; Mrs. W. F. Botsford, vocalist; Mrs. Charles M. Clark, violinist, and Miss Geraldine Thompson who sang several fascinating little Russian songs. Mrs. Frank Colby also delighted her hearers with her sweet singing.

The next meeting of this popular musical club will take place at the home of Mrs. W. F. Botsford of No. 1213 Orange street on November 13.

Entertains Visiter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Carr of Avenue 41, Casa Alta, are entertaining as their guest for a few weeks, Miss Mary Worden, a pretty girl of Tacoma, Wash. Mrs. Carr and Miss Worden were school friends and this is Miss Worden's first visit to Los Angeles. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Carr entertained a few friends informally at tea.

To Give Tea.

Mrs. W. H. Matthews of No. 1754 West Twenty-fourth street will entertain with an informal tea on Wednesday afternoon, for which no cards have been issued.

Luncheon at Fremont.

Mrs. Howard W. Mills entertained with a luncheon at the Hotel Fremont on Friday, entertaining the Executive Committee of the Woman's Board of Missions of the Pacific Coast. There were present Mmes. Brainerd, Koethen and Miss Mary E. Mills of Los Angeles.

Halloween Frolic.

Last evening the annual frolic of Los Angeles Parlor, N.D.G.W., was enjoyed, the affair taking place at the Native Sons' Hall on West Second street. A short programme was first given, followed by a dance. Many of the old-time dances were enjoyed, the young people tripping lightly to the tunes of "Money Musk" and the Virginia reel. Ladies on the Reception Committee included Mmes. Bert Parner, W. J. Dorr, C. C. Modle, Misses Anna Stoermer, L. Weiss, Dane Burgess, Ethel Belcher, Jeanette Cummings.

Theater Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simpson entertained with a jolly little theater party, followed by a supper on Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. Sperry of the Berkeley football team.

O. E. S. Guest.

CAPTAIN F. EDWARD GRAY,
president Southern California Horticultural Association.

GORGEOUS WILL BE THE DISPLAY.

PREPARATIONS COMPLETE FOR THE FLOWER SHOW.

Finest and Rarest Blossoms Obtainable in This State of Flowers Will be on Exhibition—Water Lilies and Orchids Will be Special Features. Bouquet-making Contest.

The display at the coming exhibition of the Southern California Horticultural Association, which begins at Blanchard Hall Thursday and continues until Saturday evening, promises to be more elaborate than any similar exhibition ever attempted in Los Angeles. The work of installing the exhibits will begin tomorrow, the intention of those in charge being to have everything in its place when the time arrives for the opening of the doors to the public.

The finest floral specimens in this part of the State—and that is saying much—will be on exhibition. A notable feature of the show will be specimens from the Schiffman collection of orchids, worth thousands of dollars, and the orchid collection from Eastlake Park. Chrysanthemums of largest size and exquisite hue, carnations, American Beauties and bride roses grown under glass, as well as the commoner out of doors varieties, will be in abundance. The collection of palms, tropical, economic and ornamental plants will be the best that can be gathered.

A large pond of water lilies will be an attractive feature, in which the superb Victoria Regia will have a place. A novelty will be a table of Gerbera, the new red Transvaal daisy, an effective flower for garden or decorative purposes.

In Symphony Hall the florists' exhibit will be shown, consisting of bridal canopies and mantles; bouquets on Thursday, tables on Friday and baskets on Saturday.

A bouquet contest, participated in by the most expert professional workers in flowers in the city, will be held on Friday evening, a Matilija poppy pin, the emblem of the society, being offered for the best and quickest-made bouquet of 100 Maman Cochet roses.

The Southern California Horticultural Society, while composed largely of men and women whose interest is commercial, is not confined to professionals, the membership list containing many names of other people who are interested in plant life and culture.

Captain F. Edward Gray is president of the society. Ernest Braunton is secretary. The executive committee in charge of the exhibition is composed of Fred H. Howard, chairman; F. Edward Gray, Walter Raymond, O. H. Woods, H. W. Kruckeburg, Ethelind Lord, Ernest Braunton and Winifred Waite.

Twelve silver cups, now on exhibition in a prominent jeweler's window, have been offered as special premiums, in addition to honor premiums offered in every class for competition.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome California blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

LITTLE BOY ONE MASS OF SORES

Not One Square Inch of Skin on His Whole Body Unaffected—And Suffering from Raw Itching Humor—Screams Were Heartbreaking—Skin Peeled 20 Times

WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. There were blisters prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not get him say more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical Cure, but its treatment did no good. At last time I was induced to try Cuticura, he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hands. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The scabs used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams of the poor child were heart-breaking. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. Now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger, healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day. Robert Watson, 6622 Cottage Ave., Chicago, Ill., Dec. 30, 1904."

DEATH MAY BE HER PORTION.

Margaret Williamson on Trial for Her Life.

Case Appears to be One of Deliberate Murder.

Almost Fiendish Temper of Defendant Revealed.

The first woman to be tried for her life in several years in this part of the state is facing Judge Smith and a jury, her fate hanging in the balance.

She is the lodging house keeper, Margaret H. Williamson, who shot and killed one of her men boarders last July.

Her defense is that the man insulted her; he was a young fellow from Compton, Richard Saunders Perry, who had always borne an excellent reputation.

This woman shot him to death, then daubed her fingers in his bleeding wound, exulting openly and with an oath.

She is not the sort of woman one would expect to go with this dreadful drama. Not the brazen fast woman, but a weakened, shriveled little creature who looks as though she might pock if you held anything out at her.

Since her arrest she has displayed the temper of an arch fiend.

When her trial opened yesterday morning one of the court attendants asked her for her first name. She turned on him, snapping like a little dog. "No," she snapped, "I won't tell."

Not long before the trial an attempt was made to take her photograph for the "rogues' gallery," as the law requires. She fought like an enraged wildcat, clawing and fighting.

Even after they gave up the attempt and with a new and rather scared respect told her she need not have her picture taken, the woman stood in the middle of the room and shrieked and howled and stamped from sheer diabolical rage.

In this trial she has been made to realise that such an exhibition may cost her her life and bring her to the gallows. Her struggles to suppress her own temper are amusing.

Many times yesterday she would grab at her attorney, Jud Rush, Esq., and expostulate with him in a high hysterical squeak, only to be effectually "sat on."

Her hope of escaping death by hanging lies in proving that young Perry insulted her by appearing before her in a naked condition.

One of the witnesses who testified against her yesterday was Paul Schultz, a lodger in her house. The Piedmont, at No. 118 East First street. He roomed next door to the young man who was shot and was almost an eye-witness to the shooting.

He said that he heard a commotion in the hall and went out to encounter her standing there alone, very much excited. She told him that the man in "No. 19" had insulted her and that she allowed no one to insult her.

She went hurrying down stairs and he returned to his room. In a little while a pistol shot rang out and he ran out to find her there with a revolver. He opened the door of the room and found Perry lying on his back, unconscious.

Witness said the woman went up to him and put her fingers to the wound, in his forehead, sopping them with blood. After this, she went down stairs and called the police.

Although she said that he had appeared naked before her, Perry was fully dressed when he was shot except that his coat was off.

"Didn't she tell you that she had ordered Perry out of the house because he had appeared naked before her?" asked Mr. Rush, on cross-examination.

"Yes sir."

"When she described his having insulted her, you were both standing near his door?"

"Yes."

"He must have heard you talking from his room?"

"Yes."

"And he did not open the door to deny it?"

"No."

Witness said when he came out of the room and saw her with the smoking pistol, she exclaimed, "He insulted me; I killed him."

Detective Craig testified that when he placed the woman under arrest, she asked him to find out if her victim was dead. Finding he was not, she made an angry exclamation and said, "Well, damn him, I'll kill him."

Attorney Rush subjected Craig to a withering cross-examination demanding to know why he had not given this testimony at the preliminary examination.

"Wasn't asked; lawyers kept cutting me off," said Craig.

Shortly before court adjourned, one of the prosecutors asked if Mrs. Williamson hadn't gone back to the scene of the murder the next day after the killing to get some money she left in the house.

"What has that to do with it; I object to the question," said Rush.

"Well, I don't know," said the Court perspicuously; "maybe it has or maybe it hasn't; I don't know."

Judge Smith looked inquiringly at the two Deputy District-Attorneys McComas and Fleming, as though to ask to what the question pointed; but they replied mysteriously that it had a great significance to appear later; however, they withdrew the question temporarily.

This woman is one of the loneliest defendants that ever sat in Department One, dreading fate. For a long time she was absolutely alone yesterday. At last, some woman came to sit with her, and two more drew up to her side after the adjournment.

No sooner had the last juror left his seat than the woman fell to berating her lawyer and the witness in a quarrelsome squeal.

The case will go on again today and for many days. It will probably be a notable criminal trial.

BRENT'S SUCCESS.

Merchant and Wife Build up Big Business from Nothing—Opening at New Quarters.

Fourteen years ago E. J. Brent opened, practically without capital, a small house-furnishing business in one room of a building on the site where now stands the Angelus Hotel. Yesterday morning Brent's house-furnishing establishment, occupying at Nos. 713-715 South Main street what is probably the largest mercantile building in Los Angeles, was thrown open to the public—with a stock worth $100,000 and ranging from potato-mashers to pianos, to choose from. The business as it stands today was built up from nothing by Mr. Brent and his wife.

Yesterday's opening marked the removal of Brent's from No. 530 South Spring street, quarters there having become inadequate to the volume of trade. The new establishment fills the entire four floors of what was the Hulse-Bradford house, and the total floor space is 96,000 square feet. "I have investigated," says Mr. Brent, "and am satisfied that this is decidedly the largest building under one roof devoted to mercantile business, in the city."

The fourth floor is given over to bedroom furniture of every description. On the third are dining-room, library, parlor and office furniture and furniture and furnishings, and art goods. Floor coverings—carpets, rugs, mattings, linoleums—and draperies, together with a piano salesroom, occupy the second floor. The first floor balcony is taken up with rattan goods, rockers, chairs, trunks, suitcases and all sorts of house leather goods. The first floor proper holds the kitchen utensils department, glass goods, crockeries, fancy chinese and silverware, bric-a-brac, bed coverings, were shown over the several floors by a large corps of clerks. One thousand dummy bank-books were given away to the visitors, every tenth one containing a numbered coupon entitling the holder to a prize ranging in value from $1 to $15. Next Saturday night, at the formal opening of the house, these prizes will be distributed.

ORGANIZED THE VETERANS.

Mrs. M. T. Boyd, accompanied by Mrs. Ella M. Thatcher, national superintendent of soldiers' and sailors' work of the W.C.T.U.; Mrs. Ella Bradley, State superintendent for Northern California, and Mrs. Emma Palmer, county superintendent for Los Angeles county, went to the Soldiers' Home yesterday and organized a temperance union. Fifty veterans signed the pledge and will hold regular meetings hereafter. The music was furnished by Mrs. Alice Past and a quartette from Sawtelle.

WHEELS KILL SWITCHMAN.

SWIFT DEATH FOR HIM IN SAN BERNARDINO.

Knocked From Side of Car by Projecting Fence Rail He Falls Beneath the Train, Which Crushes His Life Out—Teamster Dies by Accident at Hesperia.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Burt C. Talmadge, a Santa Fé switchman, met a shocking death on what is known as the Katz figur of the company's line, between G and H streets this afternoon.

He was knocked from the side of a car by a projecting fence rail, and, rolling beneath the train, the wheels passed over his chest, crushing out his life.

Talmadge was an old-time railroader. He was yardmaster for the Santa Fé here until two years ago, when after an illness he took a switchmans' run. Last week he fell from a train, being struck by an engine and his clothes being torn from him. He was 50 years old. He leaves a widow and daughter, Miss Birdie Talmadge.

SAN BERNARDINO BRIEFS.

Coroner Pitiman returned this afternoon from Hesperia, where he held an inquest in the case of Juan Aguiar, a teamster, who while intoxicated this morning, fell beneath the wheels of a heavily-loaded wagon.

TROLLEY CLINCH, SILVER SPIKE.

FORMAL COMPLETION AT SANTA ANA TOMORROW.

Ceremony Will be in the Presence of a Party of Pacific Electric Officials, Who Will be There on a Visit of Inspection—Delgado Gets Light Sentence.

SANTA ANA, Oct. 30.—The completion of actual construction on the Santa Ana electric line will be signalized Wednesday morning by driving a silver spike to clinch the last rail at the corner of Fourth and French streets. The ceremony will be witnessed by a group of Pacific electric officials, who will be here that day upon a visit of inspection. Half-past ten o'clock is the hour set for the event. The actual opening of the road will not take place before Sunday, and the formal celebration will be held on November 22. Committees made up of fully one hundred leading Santa Anans are now working diligently upon the various features of the big day, and the greatest gathering ever witnessed in Orange county is expected, for that time.

Santa Ana High School, in a game of football with Russ High School, played on the latter's home grounds Saturday, won by the score of 16 to 0. Santa Ana exhibited superior team work and weighed more than the San Diego rushers.

Marriage licenses have been granted here to Dell C. McCluer, aged 32, of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Emily H. Perry, aged 28, of Boston; to William E. Barnum, aged 44, and Delia E. Alvord, aged 40, both of Orange; to Morton Blackford, aged 23, of Fullerton, and Edna M. Moss, aged 18, of Anaheim.

Pedro Delgado, who has been languishing in the county bastile awaiting trial on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder, had the good luck to escape State's prison today by pleading guilty to a charge of simple assault and receiving a ninety days' sentence in the county jail. Delgado split open the head of a Mexican section hand at Fullerton with a shovel more than a month ago.

RIVERSIDE.

TEN-MINUTE DIVORCE.

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 30.—In just ten minutes today, Mrs. Estella Hilverkus secured a divorce from Gustav Hilverkus and was permitted to resume her maiden name of Estella Baker. Mrs. Baker, as she will hereafter be known, came to Riverside about a year ago from Burlington, Iowa, and secured a position as forewoman in one of the leading dry goods houses of the city. After completing her year's residence, she began a suit for divorce.

It is alleged that her former husband treated her cruelly, and constantly used violent language to her. Her husband followed her to Riverside and recently created a violent street scene. His wife was leaving her place of business accompanied by Mrs. Gilfoy, when Hilverkus suddenly confronted the couple, seized his wife by the arm and marched her to the city park, where he threatened, according to the allegations made in court today, to kill her unless she returned to live with him.

Mrs. Gilfoy followed the couple to the park and was a witness to the scene. On this occasion he left her saying he "would not leave her corpse there that night," but if she attempted to secure a divorce she was as good as a dead woman.

Hilverkus lives now in San Bernardino and has frequently dogged his wife's footsteps and made her life miserable, according to the story she told in the Superior Court here today.

COMPLETES INCORPORATION.

The Driggs-Atwood Gold Mining Company, composed of Riverside men, has completed its incorporation for $1,000,000. The company is organized under the laws of Arizona. Joseph Urquhart, the manager will leave for Atwood, Nev., tomorrow to install machinery and begin mining. Today a distribution of the stock was made. The officers of the new company are M. R. Whiffen, president; R. F. R. Strange, secretary; directors, Reginald Brinsmead, Joseph Urquhart, W. H. Griggs, H. S. Hubbard and F. E. Godfrey. According to recent reports from the mine, at eighty-five feet a cross cut has developed a larger body of ore than was expected and the vein matter continues to run over $100 to the ton of free milling ore.

GROOM KILLED BEFORE SALOON.

PISTOL BULLET ENDS LIFE OF HARRY CROMWELL.

Weapon Taken from Drunken Shooter Goes Off in Hands of Bartender Who Displays It—At Hospital Dying Man Exonerates Wm. O'Brien of Intent to Harm Him.

Harry Cromwell, bridegroom of two weeks, a machinist employed by the Lacy Manufacturing Company, was accidentally shot by William O'Brien, bartender, in front of the "Hot Rivet" saloon, No. 1006 North Main street, at 9 o'clock last night. Three hours later Cromwell died in the Receiving Hospital.

Cromwell was a victim of O'Brien's carelessness in handling a loaded revolver. Earlier in the evening a drunken man got hilarious on North Main street and fired several shots from a pistol. He entered the saloon and wanted to shoot up the place, but O'Brien promptly disarmed him and secured the revolver, which he placed in the safe. Later O'Brien started to exhibit the weapon to Cromwell and John R. French, who were standing on the sidewalk in front of the place, and in order to show the mechanism, O'Brien tried to "break" the revolver, which contained two cartridges.

In some manner the weapon was discharged and the bullet entered Cromwell's abdomen. It ranged downward and passed through the liver. At the Receiving Hospital Drs. Quint and Freedman operated on Cromwell, but the case was hopeless from the start.

O'Brien was placed under arrest, but Cromwell confirmed his statement that the shooting was purely accidental and the prisoner was released. Cromwell resided with his bride of a fortnight at No. 246 South Grand avenue. The remains were sent to Pierce Bros.' morgue where an inquest will be held today.

NOTE TO CORONER.

Suicide Swallows Strychnine, Asks that Body be Kept from Hands of Medical Students.

"To the Coroner: No inquest is needed. I die from the effects of poison taken for the purpose of killing myself. Please do not let any medical students have my remains.

[Signed] "I. GONDEY."

After having scribbled the foregoing message on a leaf of his notebook, a well-dressed man apparently 55 years old swallowed the contents of a bottle of strychnine and lay down to die in a sequestered corner of Eastlake Park near the Zoo.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Special Policeman Stellmacher found Gondey's dead body. The man possessed a watch, but aside from the note left for the Coroner there was nothing by which the body could be identified.

Workmen in the park say them noticed Gondey strolling around early yesterday morning, and others say they saw him in the park shortly before noon with a middle-aged woman and a girl of apparently 13.

The body was sent to Breese Bros.' morgue, where an inquest will be held today.

BRIDEGROOM INSANE.

Young Man from San Pedro Recently Arrested and Released, Loses His Reason.

Charles Peterson, a bridegroom of two weeks, who was arrested a few days ago on a warrant charging him with obtaining money by false pretenses, was found on Pasadena avenue yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Hoffman and taken to the City Jail and lodged in a cell as an insane patient.

Peterson is said to have applied himself to the teachings of Christian Science with more than ordinary vigor, and as a result his mind became unbalanced. While he had been married but a few days, he left his wife, it is said, and went to San Pedro, where he was found wandering about, and after journeying to Los Angeles was served with a warrant. His case was to have been heard at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but the man's physical condition prevented any examination. He had been released from custody on his own recognizance.

TARTLY THIS WIFE REPLIES.

Hot Shot Fired at Gordon by Young Spouse.

Half His Property is Hers She Declares.

Reward Offered to Whoever Can Find Him.

Another shooting, of sarcasm, not bullets, has clouded the domestic atmosphere of Col. L. Gordon, the fiery capitalist.

Just when it appeared that Col. Gordon and his handsome wife were at peace again, a happy household once more, comes another sputter and explosion.

The public has been notified in a stinging notice in the public prints that Col. Gordon of the Gordon Block will no longer stand sponsor for his wife's debts.

Forth from Mrs. Gordon's oft-barricaded fortress on St. Andrew's Place has come this gorgeous piece of sarcasm in reply:

It is nothing bigger than a little printed notice in fine type among the "legal notices," but it roareth with a rushing mighty wind of wifely rage, well concealed behind fine satire. Maybe satire doesn't roar; well, anyhow this is what Mrs. Gordon's says:

"To all whom it may concern:

"My dear and venerable husband, Hanford L. Gordon, has recently been misled to publish in certain of the daily papers an ungenerous notice with intent to impair our community credit and my own personal interest in the community property now in litigation."

Col. Gordon is a man of many years; his wife, whom he has sued for divorce, is still in the flush of youth.

She quotes ironically from his warning to those who might trust her, his fascinating spouse, and "hands him one" in return:

"I, therefore, give notice to all that I own and claim one-half of all the property now held by, or standing in the name of my said husband, whether in the State of California or elsewhere, my community interest being valued at about $100,000.

"I hereby notify all that an order of the Superior Court of this county is of record, binding our very valuable property called the 'Gordon Block,' situated on Broadway, near Second street, in Los Angeles city, State of California, which property will amply respond for all debts contracted or incurred by me or either of us, as we are both exceedingly frugal in our habits and economical in our living expenses.

"The rage of Col. Gordon, who won for himself a name for gallantry during the Civil War, and who is a fiery and courageous man, can be imagined when he reads this next shot. Sounds as though he were a bad little boy:

"I hereby notify all that since the commencement of the pending action my repentant husband, escaping from the wiles of his mal-advisers, returned to me and lived with me at our happy home at No. 1518 St. Andrew's Place, in this city, and we then fully condoned our respective charges, and he, as in duty bound, then paid many of our outstanding community debts."

This precious document then continues:

"I regret, however, to state that my poor and misguided spouse has again left me, for the peevish reason that I refuse to abandon my defense and sell to my dear one my valuable community interests for the niggardly sum of $500, as suggested by those unduly influencing him, because of his very mature age and tender susceptibilities.

"I hereby notify and warn all persons not to buy or receive from him any real property standing in his name of record in this county or elsewhere, without first procuring my signature to such conveyance, as I have an indisputable community title and interest therein.

"I also notify all that, in my opinion, the Gordon block, now secured by said order of court, will be quite sufficient to justify all tradesmen and other persons in extending liberal credit both to me and my venerable husband until the end of the trial, or other happy termination of our merely temporary estrangement.

"Notwithstanding our community interest, in order to guard properly my own individua separate estate, I notify all persons not to trust or extend credit to by poor but errant husband, without my written order, as I will not be personally responsible for his debts or separate maintenance out of my sole estate, while he continues to remain away.

"If my aged partner can again escape from his thraldom and return to our pleasant home at 1518 St. Andrew's Place, I shall gladly restore him to my longing affections and see that his personal credit and financial status are no longer impaired.

"A liberal reward, payable out of my separate property, is guaranteed to anyone who will remove him from his present place of concealment and return him safely to me at our present deserted homestead at the above street and number.

[Signed.]

"MRS. HANFORD L. GORDON."

Col. Gordon's attorney stated yesterday that the irate lady's offer of a reward is only part of a very obvious joke; his whereabouts is not a secret.

HAD CATARRH

FOR FIFTEEN YEARS AND DREADED CONSUMPTION.

Mr. Arthur Gaul of Wellsville, Ohio, writes: "I wish everyone suffering from catarrh or bronchial troubles knew the value of Vinol as I do. Before taking it I had catarrh for fifteen years, and for the last year I had a pain in my lungs and coughed night and day, which caused me to lose flesh. I felt sure I was going into consumption, as nothing seemed to help me.

"Vinol was recommended, and after taking four bottles I am entirely cured. I would not take $1000 for the good it has done me. I wish I could persuade everybody who suffers from catarrh and bronchial troubles, or who dreads consumption, to try Vinol."

To further convince the people of Los Angeles in regard to the value of Vinol, we, The Owl Drug Co., declare it to be the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil for all wasting diseases, the greatest health restorer and strength creator for the weak, the convalescent and the aged which we have ever sold.

We can only ask every person in Los Angeles to try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails. This is a fair, honest offer on which you cannot lose.

Contracted Diseases

Always become chronic if improperly treated. DR. HARRISON'S long experience has brought him perfected methods that are the very best that modern medical science can give. So successful is he that many specialists make futile endeavors to copy his methods. The happy results of his treatment are becoming widely known. Cured patients are sending their friends to us from the fact that they are satisfied with our ability to cure where others fail. Contracted disorders should never be neglected. If you are unfortunate, attend to the trouble at once. Consult an experienced specialist.

Stricture

We cure in as short time as possible from the nature of the trouble; the nature of stricture is easily understood only by educated physicians and surgeons who have had experience in this particular trouble. So-called specialists who are not physicians have no knowledge how to treat stricture. Many a man is ruined by quackery. Consult the best and none but the best. The public will tell you of us and our ability.

Varicocele

It is especially gratifying to us that men now understand that DR. HARRISON ABSOLUTELY CURES VARICOCELE. There is no deception about this. It is a fact which can be proven by referring to dozens of leading business men whom we have cured. The matter has been placed before the public so plainly by us that there cannot be the shadow of a doubt of our ability to do exactly as we say. We ask every man afflicted with varicocele to note and remember that DR. HARRISON will give $1000 for a case of varicocele he cannot cure, and $1000 for a case of varicocele that can be cured other than by his methods. Call and see us about it. No charge for consultation.

Vital Decline Can be Cured

Vital decline, commonly called weakness, is the result of a diseased condition, which weakens the vital nerve center. This disturbing cause is nearly always found in the prostate gland, where the nerve center is located. The prostate becomes affected by one or more of several things, such as badly treated local diseases, indiscretions, excesses, varicocele, etc. We positively guarantee that our new method given out on the prostatic trouble as the cause of vital weakness; since that time our success here and accepted by all the best eastern specialists and at the same time every pretender, specialist copies our advertisements, knowing absolutely nothing of this trouble, no one but a thorough specialist can succeed in curing these conditions. Anybody can advertise, but the educated physician and surgeon only can satisfy the patient and give him value received.

[NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.]

TWICE SHE MEETS BURGLAR.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE OF A PASADENA WOMAN.

Nocturnal Visitor Flashes Electric Pocket Light in Her Face and When She Goes to a Neighbor's Telephone She Meets Him or Another One—Patrolman's Futile Chase.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 26 South Raymond avenue, Oct. 31.—When Mounted Patrolman Reese gave chase after a fleeing burglar in the wee small hours of Sunday morning he little recked that the man who escaped had just plundered at least two residences in the heart of the fashionable east side district. The facts came out yesterday that a burglar, presumably the same that Reese had unsuccessfully pursued, had entered the newly completed residence of Mrs. Margaret Mitchell, at No. 79 South Madison avenue, and stolen $16 in coin and a valuable gold watch therefrom.

Mrs. Mitchell was alone, except for the servants in the house at the time, and she was awakened by the gleam of the burglar's electric flash lantern in her face. She screamed, and as she did so the fellow bolted. He disappeared through a bedroom door, and was swallowed in the darkness.

Mrs. Mitchell soon after bethought herself of notifying the police, but remembered that her own telephone had not yet been put in. So she decided to go over to the McKellar residence, which is almost next door, and telephone from there. As she was doing so she discovered a man coming out of the McKellar premises with a wheel. It seems that the nervy burglar, elated at his success at the Mitchell residence, thought he would try others in the neighborhood, and he had been through the lower floor rooms of the McKellar home, only taking a souvenir spoon, when he was apparently frightened away by the sound of Mrs. Mitchell's approaching footsteps.

Later the fellow was flushed on South Raymond, and upon being accosted by Patrolman Reese, fled, leaving the stolen wheel behind. Reese took the machine to the station, where it was identified yesterday as having been taken from the McKellar porch the night before.

SELF-SUPPORTING WOMEN.

That the newly organized Young Women's League is fulfilling a long felt want among the many self-supporting women of Pasadena was the keynote of a much enjoyed informal social ingathering of the league last evening at Hotel Maryland.

Manager Linnard's invitation lay behind the assembling, and Mrs. W. D. Turner, the Shakespeare Club president, officiated as hostess. She gave a number of readings, including especially Margaret Cameron's monologue, "Unexpected Guests." Miss Husted, late of Buffalo, N. Y., gave a number of pleasing piano selections, and light refreshments were served at the conclusion of the informal programme.

WOULD GIVE ANOTHER SITE.

Ex-Senator Stephen W. Dorsey made a tentative offer of fifty acres for a site for the proposed women's college at a dinner to the Executive Committee of the Board of Trade at the Maryland last night.

"I am thinking of offering the committee fifty acres of the Crank Place (the Fair Oaks Ranch.)" said Senator Dorsey. "The ground lies above and beyond the so-called Dorsey syndicate holdings, and is in no sense a part of that tract."

ANIMAL DRIVER PUNISHED.

C. F. Tufts, a Los Angeles tradesman, was haled into Justice Klamroth's Court yesterday afternoon, upon complaint of Field Agent B. E. Sherwin of the Pasadena Humane Society, who alleged that the defendant was guilty of having driven an extremely lame horse last Sunday. Tufts pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $15.

The Humane officer testified that he came across Tufts in the act of driving the horse in the vicinity of Lamanda Park. He at once confiscated the animal and placed the driver under arrest. Later it was claimed that the horse showed such lameness that it fell down several times in being transferred from one stall to another. It is now in the care of an experienced veterinarian and will not be given back to its owner until it is in good condition again.

DEPUTY SHERIFF DYING.

Deputy Sheriff John R. Slater, for many years connected with the Sheriff's office, is dying at his Pasadena home. For several years Slater lived at Pomona and there occupied the position of an outside deputy; then for two years was assistant bookkeeper in the Sheriff's office; and for two terms served as constable at Pasadena. Always regarded as a conscientious officer, Slater has made a wide circle of friends who will regret to hear that he is declining under the baleful influence of tuberculosis at the early age of 38 years.

HERE AND THERE.

The police have recovered a valuable wheel that was stolen from in front of a Colorado-street dry goods store on October 1, and the machine has been restored to its rightful owner, John McKee of Orange Place.

J. W. Ritzman, the city street-sprinkling contractor, was before Justice Klamroth yesterday to answer to a charge of cruelty to animals preferred by R. H. Sherwin, executive officer of the Humane Society. Sherwin alleges that Ritzman drove a sick and decrepit mule to one of the sprinkling wagons, and yesterday Ritzman entered formal denial of the allegation. A jury will hear the case on November 6.

Tommy Barker, one of the men suspected of the Los Robles depot robbery, was arraigned before Justice Congdon yesterday and through his attorney secured a continuance. Barker has retained Attorney David T. Jones and hopes to prove an alibi.

SAN PEDRO.

MANY GRADERS WORKING.

SAN PEDRO, Oct. 30.—H. E. Huntington this morning placed about one-hundred teams and 150 men at work here grading and laying tracks under the franchise held by him over the several streets in San Pedro. It is stated that about twenty-four miles of street railway will be constructed within the city limits. The present operations will extend down Fourteenth street to Pacific avenue, down Pacific avenue to Sixth street, and down Sixth to Front street to connect with the line now operated by the Pacific Electric. It is stated that with the finishing of the trackage and relaying operations at Santa Ana a large force of laborers will be transferred to San Pedro and that it is the intention of the Huntington interests to begin work on the large wharf or mole in the outer harbor within a few weeks.

HARBOR TOWN DRIFT.

Jens Olsen, a sailor on the schooner Borealis, had a narrow escape from drowning last night at the foot of Fifth street. Olsen fell from the wharf into the water and was slowly sinking when rescued by Cyrus Duffy, a boatman. The sailor was only restored to consciousness after a physician had worked over him for an hour.

Capt. Rass and Inspector Mayo of the Lighthouse Service, made an inspection of Point Firmin light and the beacon in the inner and outer harbors today.

PULPIT TURNS GUN ON PSYCHIC.

"PRICEISM" DENOUNCED BY LONG BEACH PREACHER.

Sharp Attack is Made on Head of New Thought Institution—Substitution for Scriptural Account of Virgin Birth of Jesus is Decried. Price's Assistant May Reply.

LONG BEACH, Oct. 30.—Dr. W. R. Price, formerly a Baptist clergyman, came to Long Beach several months ago and organized what is called the Psychic Research Society. Lessons were given in divine healing and so popular was the doctor that his society flourished, gaining adherents from nearly every denominational church in the city.

After a while the old name was dropped, and the society was called the Society of the New or Practical Psychology. It had a membership of 200 and under Dr. Price's leadership began the erection of a temple of psychology, four stories high.

There was a little trouble at the start regarding the ownership of the land, it being hinted that Dr. Price wanted control, but this was amicably settled and the building has now reached the second story. Then Dr. Price went to Mexico, secured mines of stock of a million and a half acres and came back with the announcement that he bought it to make his people rich. The Guerrero Development Company was organized and the doctor announced that to be a stockholder one must pay $10 for his first course of psychic lectures and his pupils could then purchase a $200 share or not more than five shares, which were to be repaid at the end of a term of years, meanwhile drawing 10 per cent. dividends. He advised his people to mortgage their homes to invest in his society and his company.

This has aroused the ire of the regular pastors and in a sermon last night at the First Christian Church by Rev. McKellar, the pastor, Price's scheme was denounced in stormy terms. The nature of the society was declared to be antagonistic to the churches, as it was a rival religious organization, notwithstanding Price's repeated assertions to the contrary. The nature of the society was declared to be infidel, in the utterance of Dr. Price in denying the scriptural account of the virgin birth of Jesus and substituting therefor the psychic theory. He classed "Priceism" with Brigham Young's Mormon colonization in Utah, John Alexander Dowie's Zion, and the Owen's movement in the establishing of New Harmony, Ind. He charged that Price's claim that he came in only after the enterprise was an assured success was misleading, as he came in in the beginning $10 for the secret of lectures, in the middle in owning a block of stock in the concern, and at the end, in realizing, as he claimed he would, as much as $100,000 annually.

He said that Price's repeated entreaty, "Don't Throw Mud," was a psychic dodge to ward off criticism and predisposes the unwary to a favorable reception of the dream.

"When Dr. Price advises Long Beach people to mortgage their homes so as to invest in his society and his company," said Mr. Kellar, "it is high time that he and his methods receive a searching criticism."

Dr. Hayn, Price's assistant, took exception to some of Rev. Kellar's points and may reply. The address has caused considerable comment throughout the city today, and further attacks on Price are looked for.

BONDS FOR PIER BOTTOM.

City Engineer Foster submitted a report on the condition of the city wharf today in which he arrives at the conclusion that the erosion on the bottom is not caused by any alongshore current, but is due to the obstruction offered by the cylinders to the storm swells of the ocean. In his opinion the most efficient and cheapest protection would be a layer of random stone, from two to four feet in depth and covering the whole area of the wharf property and ten feet beyond it all around. The amount of stone required will be 5000 tons. Braces connecting the cylinders are all recommended. The City Trustees accepted the report and instructed the City Attorney to begin necessary proceedings for a $16,000-bond issue for the repairs recommended.

LONG BEACH BRIEFS.

Mrs. W. D. Cason, wife of Deputy Constable Cason, received a visit Saturday from a nice looking young man who rented a room from her for a week and paid in advance, handing her a $20 bill, for which she gave him change. The bill proved to be worthless. The sharper was 22 years old, with smooth face and dressed in dark gray suit, black shirt and soft hat.

Miles Bunett, a painter, 40 years of age, was arrested by Officer Folsom this afternoon on a charge of rape. His alleged victim is Grace Napper, a school girl 13 years of age, who is virtually an orphan, her parents being separated. Bunett denies his guilt. He will be arraigned Tuesday morning.

Clint Mallony, Horatio Bolster and Frank Brown, arrested at Sawtelle last week for alleged illegal sale of liquors within the limits of the Soldiers' Home, and who have since been in jail, were brought before Justice Brayton this afternoon and changed their plea of not guilty to the affirmative. Bolster was fined $25 and thirty days in jail and Mallony drew $100 and thirty days in jail. It being shown that Brown was only Mallony's clerk, he was released on his own recognizance.

The Pacific Electric has begun work on its line from Long Beach to San Pedro by way of Wilmington, avoiding the long detour by way of Domingues. The new line will skirt the bluff to Fourteenth street, crossing the San Gabriel on a bridge and thence on a straight line to Wilmington.

VENICE SHORE REACHING OUT.

ACCRETION FOLLOWS BUILDING OF BREAKWATER.

Beneath the Pavilion, Which Formerly Was Under Water at All Times, Except During Extreme Low Tide, There is Dry Sand Over Which Highest Seldom Reaches.

VENICE, Oct. 30.—The low tides of the past few days have been so very low that the bathers' life lines have been left to dangle in the air over dry sand and the in-take pipe of the Venetian Canal system has had its nose high in the air. The neap tides have been minus ones and the clam-diggers, with their rakes, are reaping a harvest at points which with ordinary currents would be considered far out. The rakers have been busy at the very foundations of the ship Cabrillo, while some have dared to scratch the sands beneath the hull of that unique structure.

The contour of the beach line is undergoing rapid change in the vicinity of structures clustered about the Windward avenue pleasure pier and within the zone that is afforded protection from the breakers by the breakwater now in course of construction. The curve of the almost perfect crescent that heretofore existed is broken and there is a jutting point of sand that is reaching daily farther seaward and promises soon to leave the Cabrillo and even the Auditorium supported upon piling about which the breakers no longer roar.

Beneath the pavilion, which formerly was directly over the water at all times except during extreme low tide, there is dry sand, and even the highest tides now seldom leave their riffle marks upon the shore. This condition is accounted for by the action of the sea wall in robbing the breakers of their force.

The tides now roll quietly in within the territory protected by the rock mass. The current is sluggish and the receding waters are so slow of motion that the silt and sand carried by them is deposited at the turning point. Higher and farther out this embankment is builded day by day, and as there are no swift eddying currents to carry the deposit to sea again the ocean, by its own action, is extending the shore line and adding new territory to Venice at a point where it is neither needed nor desired.

FAREWELL TO BAND.

The leave-taking of Arend's Venice Band was not without its sadness, although the affair was a musical and social success. Before the band faded from the stage to the dying notes of "Auld Lang Syne," C. H. Brown, on behalf of Venice friends, presented Mr. Arend with a gold watch, and a member of the band, who made a presentation speech for his fellow musicians, added a gold chain to the testimonial. The band, on its part, remembered Mr. Kinney with an enlarged framed picture of the first Venice Band.

Rev. Dr. Spalding, rector of the Episcopal Church at San Diego, was a guest of Rev. Chas. Bentham and wife here the past week.

W. W. Seaman has subdivided his ten acres, situated on Grand View and Highland avenues.

Rev. Dr. Campbell and family are expected to arrive from Illinois this week. He will fill the pulpit of the Congregational Church next Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Rice have arrived from an extended visit at their old homes in New England.

SANTA MONICA.

LEMCKE CONFIRMS PURCHASE.

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 30.—H. W. Lemcke, general manager of the Huneneme, Malibu and Port Los Angeles Railway, now being built as a standard-gauge line along the beach north of Santa Monica toward Ventura, arrived home this afternoon from Santa Barbara. While in the Channel City he says he concluded the purchase for the Independent Railway Company of a one-half interest in the Dirke Thompson Rancho of 2300 acres. The consideration is stated as being on a basis of $375,000 for the entire estate, which includes desirable water rights and privileges.

Mr. Lemcke announces it as being the purpose of the new owners of this property to establish a modern beach resort there. He says $100,000 will be expended in improvements. He states positively that the purchase was not made by or in the interest of the Adams-Phillips Company of bond buyers.

SOLDIERS' HOME.

CAR STRIKES VETERAN.

SOLDIERS' HOME, Oct. 30.—Edward McCarthy, a veteran of home Co. H, while crossing the street on Oregon avenue last evening, miscalculated the nearness of a passing Los Angeles-Pacific car and was thrown to the ground. The home ambulance was telephoned for and he was conveyed to the hospital, where it was found that he had escaped with a contusion on the back of his head and a sprained right hip. His condition is not considered serious.

THE PALMS.

VISIT OF GENERAL FUNSTON.

THE PALMS, Oct. 30.—Gen. Frederick Funston, in command of the Department of the Pacific, with headquarters at San Francisco, spent the day here as the guest of James Fennis. They served together as comrades during the Cuban campaign, when both were wounded.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Bauer at Dinner.

Harold Bauer at dinner is just as delightful a fellow as Bauer at the piano on the concert platform. Half a hundred members of the Gamut Club learned that last night, at their feast of royal good-fellowship in the Hollenbeck.

The virtuoso was the guest of honor, and proved his ability to talk as well as any of the half-professional speech-makers who toasted him.

The word half-professional is used advisedly. No man who is a practicing musician could be classed as a professional orator, and yet there ought to be some recognition of the genius of those who scintillated last night.

Adolph Willhartitz, who has accumulated some of the wisdom of Socrates with his gray beard, was the chief fountain of conversational refreshment.

He was assisted in a most informal manner by Harley Hamilton—who is a dinner-table prodigy in repartee—L. E. Behymer, W. Francis Gates, Charles Edson, Joseph Dupuy and a number of others.

Then, Bauer was made an honorary member of the club, and as he constantly referred to himself as a "member," the assembly felt thoroughly at ease.

His single concert, for which he has prepared a brilliant programme, will be given in Simpson Auditorium this evening.

Chiaffarelli Programmes.

Manfredo Chiaffarelli will offer novelties in his afternoon and evening programmes today. In the afternoon he has scheduled Tobani's "I Granatieri," melodies from "Pif-Paf-Pouf," a new march by Godfrey, the overture to Rossini's "La Cenerentola," and the overture to "Orpheus."

In the evening he will give a new march of his own composition, the full overture to Bazin's "Saul," Di Kontski's "The Awakening of the Lion," a new waltz by DeAngelis, the overture to Mozart's "Magic Flute," and Bizet's second "Suite L'Arlisienne."

WILL ASK GOVERNMENT AID.

Rufus P. Jennings, president of the California Promotion Committee, returned from San Diego yesterday, where he investigated the silk industry and became greatly interested in it. He is of the opinion that silk culture can be developed on a commercial scale in California and will urge Secretary of Agriculture Wilson to lend the aid of the Federal government towards it development. Mr. Jennings and party left for the north last night. There will be a meeting of the Promotion Committee at Santa Barbara December 12, at which California's needs for national aid will be discussed.

At San Francisco George D. Collins was yesterday denied a change of venue from Judge Lawlor's department of the Superior Court. The decision was rendered by Judge Lennon of Marin county, after he had sharply rebuked Collins for indulging in personalities. Collins gave notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court.

THEIR BUSIEST DAY OF WORK.

W.C.T.U. Delegates Consider Many Subjects.

Effort to Change Bylaws Causes First Flurry.

Resolutions that Have an Earnest Ring.

The first flutter of excitement passed over the deliberations of the W.C.T.U. convention yesterday morning, when an effort was made to change the bylaws. Miss Ensign of Ohio presented an amendment to the bylaw which gives the president the right to nominate the vice-president-at-large and the recording secretary the right to nominate her assistant. The motion was no sooner offered than a dozen delegates were on their feet and a breeze followed which threatened a cyclone. Miss Brehm of Illinois spoke warmly in favor of the amendment in that too much power was vested in the general officers, and the Illinois delegation stood almost solidly for the amendment.

Mrs. Benjamin, national superintendent of parliamentary usage, spoke against the amendment and declared that all power inheres in the people, however the officers may be nominated, for they cannot be elected except by a majority vote. A rather peppery retort came from one of the delegates, who said that Mrs. Benjamin knew that the way of nominating as now carried on was unparliamentary, whereupon Mrs. Benjamin responded with the retort, courteous, and quoted Roberts's rules of order, declaring that there was not a word against proceeding just as they had been doing. "Surely there is no inharmony here," she said; "our members are by far too broad to bring accusations that would be unfounded. I move that it is the sense of this convention that this discussion has been conducted in good form—and good temper," which raised a general laugh in view of the very lively passage at arms, and when the motion was put, brought out a storm of "ayes." After a forty-minute discussion, the question was put, 410 delegates voting against the amendment and 74 for.

It was the general opinion that the effort to amend did not spring from any dissatisfaction with the personnel of the officers, but rather with the method of appointment. "We are all very warmly attached to our officers," said a prominent delegate in discussing the situation with a Times reporter, "and it was not intended in any way, I am sure, as a mark of disrespect or a lack of confidence in their judgment." The overwhelming majority which ruled indicated the general trend of opinion.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Very sweet, and tender, and solemn was the annual memorial service held just before the noon adjournment. The decorations, out of respect to this occasion, were limited solely to white flowers. A large portrait of Miss Willard mounted on an easel and encircled by a magnificent wreath of pure white blossoms tied with broad satin ribbons, occupied a conspicuous place on the platform, and just at one side was a great arch with a crown suspended within, the whole made of golden chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Stevens read the long roll of prominent white ribboners who have been called to their reward during the year, the whole convention standing meanwhile. Mrs. Katherine Lente Stevenson eulogized Mrs. Mary A. Livermore; Miss Marie C. Brehm gave an eloquent tribute to the memory of Mrs. Lucie B. Tyng, the well-known crusader of Peoria, Ill., and Mrs. Frances W. Graham spoke loving, tender words of the late Mrs. Emelie U. Burgess, who died literally in the harness, being seized with a fatal illness from which she died in a few hours, while she was delivering a temperance address in New York. Upon Mrs. Stevens devolved the sad duty of speaking to the memory of Miss Cornelia Neal Dow, daughter of the Hon. Neal Dow, whose death occurred only a few days ago. Miss Dow had made all preparations to come to California to the convention and each day during its sessions the Maine banneorette has been at half-past and each morning fresh flowers have blossomed from it in memory of their dearly loved and deeply mourned sister. The entire Maine delegation stood with bowed heads and tearful eyes while the eulogy was pronounced by the president. Among the many who have passed away during the year is Rev. Elijah Cash, husband of Mrs. Emma Cash, president of the California W.C.T.U., to whom tender sympathy was offered. Mrs. Mary Grant Cramer, a sister of Gen. Grant, was also among the list of the dead. A beautiful memorial song, the words written by Frances E. Willard and the music by Lady Henry Somerset, was sung at the conclusion by Mrs. Frances Graham, whose sympathetic voice brought out its tender sentiment.

A PERUNA ILLUMINATION.

The feature of the afternoon session was the "Peruna Illumination," by Miss Anna Gordon, vice-president-at-large. The story of Miss Gordon's entering the W.C.T.U. work under Miss Willard, more than twenty years ago, when she was a young girl, is familiar to everyone, but it is not generally known that Miss Gordon is the youngest of a trio of sisters, all of whom are actively engaged in public work. The oldest sister, Mrs. Alice Gordon Gulick went with her husband as a missionary to Spain many years ago. As a result of their work there a national movement for the higher education of women began and there is now in Spain a great American college, which stands as a monument to the efforts of Dr. and Mrs. Gulick. Another sister, Miss Elizabeth Gordon, affectionately known as "Bessie Gordon" among the W.C.T.U. women, is the Massachusetts national organizer and also an evangelist. She is a very gifted writer, as well as an effective speaker and has done much journalistic work and is now editing and preparing the biography of the late Dr. Cornelia A. Green, the celebrated hygienist and pioneer woman physician of this country. All the Gordon girls were educated at Mount Holyoke seminary and their father was a director of the American Board of the Missionary Societies for many years. They resided in a beautiful home in Auburndale, Mass., and the family stood among the most prominent and cultured in that exclusive suburb of Boston.

Miss Gordon's "illumination" yesterday afternoon, came with telling force in that, it was a literal illumination eloquent with visual tests. She had a bottle of Peruna in her hand and before the eyes of the audience poured a couple of ounces into a glass retort, which she placed over an alcohol lamp and distilled enough alcohol from the stuff to light the Welsbach burner to which the retort was attached with such a brilliant illumination that one could easily see to read the text of the recent decision of the internal revenue commissioner of the United States, whereby after December 1, all patent medicines having a large percentage of alcohol shall be taxed the same as alcoholic liquors.

While the Peruna was "coming to a boil," Miss Gordon touched a match to a saucer of Sanford's Jamaica Ginger, which burned with as much vim and for a longer time than the brandy on any Christmas pudding you ever saw.

RESOLUTIONS.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions occupied the last half of the afternoon session and there was so much hair-splitting and amending and tabling and referring that the matter pulled the convention over an hour beyond the regular time for adjournment. Throughout the ordeal the president never once failed in absolute justice and courtesy to all concerned even when the most impossible amendments were suggested. Indeed, it would seem to an outsider that she won the right to a martyr's crown. Once only was there the tiniest note of sarcasm in her even tones when, as a persistent delegate occupied the precious moments with unnecessary length, she responded politely, "Certainly, there is plenty of time," with the slightest possible accent on the final noun as she sank into a chair beside the desk, glancing at the clock which stared the whole convention in the face. Finally, the following resolutions were passed:

In humble reliance upon God, we, The Women's Christian Temperance Union, rejoice in the wonderful progress that has marked our efforts during the past year in the fields of Organization, Prevention, Education, Evangelistic, Social and Legal Work. We reaffirm our belief in the fundamental principles of total abstinence and prohibition, and adopt the following resolutions:

Whereas, The liquor traffic is the darkest, direst, most widespread and most persistent curse in this nation, a menace alike to the individual and to the home, and a foe to national prosperity,

Resolved, That the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union is unalterably committed to a belief in the righteousness of the principle of prohibition and will pray and work for the absolute suppression by law of the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors, and stand unalterably opposed to every form of licensed liquor traffic, including the Gothenburg and dispensary systems.

Believing as we do that prohibition is the living issue of the day, we express our high appreciation of those voters who, through their ballots, prove their loyalty to prohibitory law and to its enforcement.

Resolved, That we hereby make our most respectful and earnest request to the Congress of the United States:

First. For the passage of a law prohibiting the importation of alcoholic liquors under protection by Federal law (either by interstate commerce or internal revenue,) in any territory where prohibition against the importation, manufacture or sale of alcoholic liquor prevails.

Second. For the enactment of such legislation as will prohibit the carrying and distribution of all liquor advertisements through the United States mails.

Third. That Congress, in permitting Indian Territory to enter the sisterhood of States, shall require a faithful recognition of the existing law of prohibition, according to the solemn pledge on the part of the United States government in its many agreements and treaties with the Indians of Indian Territory; and be it

Fourth. That in providing Statehood for Oklahoma, its Constitution shall forbid the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors.

Fifth. To expel Senator Reed Smoot of Utah from the Senate of the United States, because of his official relation to the Mormon Church, which demands allegiance to itself above that to the government.

And further, we pray for an amendment to the Federal Constitution, defranchising all polygamists and removing the question from the State courts to the Federal courts.

Sixth. Believing that the provisions of the Pure Food Bill are essential to the health and safety of the people,

Resolved, That we urge the passage of this Bill in Congress.

Resolved, That we reaffirm our belief in the value of total abstinence in the U. S. Army, both among officers and enlisted men, and to this end we will continue our efforts against a repeal of the anti-canteen law.

Resolved, We rejoice in the fact that Congress has appropriated $1,000,000 for post exchanges and buildings for canteens, halls, at army posts, for the use of the men in the ranks; and further,

Resolved, That we urge continued appropriations at the hands of Congress until every U. S. garrison or post or navy yard is suitably equipped with a place of recreation and education.

Resolved, That we recommend that the States having no prohibitory law endeavor to secure the enactment of a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor within a radius of four miles from all army posts and government reservations.

Resolved, That we protest against the fraudulent patent medicine advertising now being largely circulated in the daily press, and that we continue our efforts in national and State legislatures for laws requiring the labeling of liens or proprietary medicines, showing in each case their ingredients.

Resolved, That we protest against objectionable advertisements and pictures being posted in public places or published in newspapers or magazines which enter the home. We appreciate the efforts of the postal authorities toward suppressing post cards bearing obscene pictures, and pledge ourselves to assist in this commendable effort.

Resolved, That we rejoice over the cessation of hostilities between Russia and Japan, and express our gratification that the President of the United States was largely instrumental in bringing to an end a most deplorable war.

We desire to express our most grateful thanks to our white ribbon hostesses and the good people of Los Angeles for their gracious hospitality in receiving us into their homes and making our stay in this beautiful city a delight, also to the press of the city for their full and unbiased reports; to the pastors who have shown their appreciation of our speakers by opening their pulpits to us on the Sabbath; to the musicians and singers who have cheered us with their inspiring music; to the pages who have been untiring in their service to speakers and audience; to the Underwood Typewriter Company who furnished a machine to the editor of the Union Signal during the convention; to the Flower Committee, who have converted the Auditorium into a bower of beauty each day; to the Chamber of Commerce for their delightful reception; to the committees who planned the conventions, and to all who in any way contributed to the success and pleasure of the convention.

EVENING VERSION.

The evening session included a long list of speakers on the general subject "The Waterloo of the Rum Traffic." One of the best and most representative speeches was made by Miss Elizabeth Gordon, the sister of Miss Anna Gordon, who spoke on prohibition in Maine. "There is not one brewery or distillery or one legalized saloon in the State of Maine," she said. "The whole liquor business is under the ban of constitutional prohibitory law and the liquor seller is an outlaw—a criminal. There is more money in the savings banks of Maine than in the great distilling and brewing States of Illinois and Ohio and each has a population five times greater than the State of Maine. There are thousands of boys and girls in Maine who never saw a saloon and the rally cry of the L.T.I. is different from that of the boys and girls who live in licensed States who sing 'Saloons must go.' The Maine boys and girls shout, 'Saloons must stay out.'"

At the close of Miss Gordon's spirited speech the Maine delegation rose and gave the rally cry waving their banderettes decorated with branches from trees of the "sweet country of the pointed fir," and as Miss Gordon presented the national president, Mrs. Stevens, with some beautiful flowers she said "As Neal Dow was called the father of prohibition you should be called the mother." With the Maine delegation leading, the whole convention burst into the refrain "We're out for Prohibition, hurrah, hurrah!"

WOMEN WHO VOTE.

"It's simply astonishing how many otherwise intelligent women don't know that there are States where women have the franchise and can vote on every question from the presidential election down," remarked Dr. Maude McIlvain Sanders, the pretty little Colorado woman who is national superintendent of the franchise department. "Why, an intelligent New York woman asked me yesterday that she never knew before that we Colorado women voted for anyone but school officers. There are at this convention now, twelve Colorado women who have voted on every single question for a period of ten years and two of them have voted for twelve years. It is such a common thing there that we think nothing of going to the polls any more than of going to church. Fathers and mothers, sons and daughters, husbands and wives go together in carriages or automobiles the same as they would go to an entertainment or to church. Not 5 per cent. of our women but take advantage of their privilege to vote. All the influential women in Denver cast their ballots regularly. Our largest women's club of 800 members, our twenty W.C.T.U. organizations—all are interested and alive, and our husbands, fathers, lovers and brothers take just as much interest in our voting as we do ourselves. The number of dry towns in Colorado is constantly increasing and in the enforcement of prohibitory laws and campaigns the women lead."

AIMS OF W.C.T.U. EXPRESSED BY PRESIDENT.

The present national W. C. T. U. convention has been inspiring and successful. The earnest spirit and lofty ideals of the organization have never been more manifest than in these sessions in Los Angeles. The delegates apparently have taken their cue from the eloquent annual address of Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, the national president, which expressed in vigorous words the aims and purposes as well as the achievements of the union and has made a deep impress upon the convention.

Mrs. Stevens.

Mrs. Stevens declares that Southern California has done much towards whitening its map in relation to the saloon. In fifteen of the neighboring cities around Los Angeles the saloon has been outlawed and in the State the area of prohibition is steadily increasing. Throughout the country, while there has been some discouragement, says Mrs. Stevens, the shadows have been spanned by the bow of promise and many State leaders tell of gains and victories.

Mrs. Stevens expresses disappointment that the closing session of the Fifty-eighth Congress left incomplete so many reform bills in which the organization has an especial interest. On this subject she says:

With increased vigor and persistency we must help to secure the passage of those bills in which are involved that which touches the life and well-being of the home. At mention of this there rises before you visions of petition you have circulated, memories of weary miles you have traveled, rebuffs you have endured, arguments you have presented, delays and postponements; but no memories of defeat, for you have wrought with a triumphant spirit and that same spirit is ours today as we look forward to the coming months.

The text and object of the Hepburn-Dolliver bill are well understood by all who have an intelligent interest in the temperance question. The unanswerable arguments in the Senate hearings on this bill furnish proof that the liquor fraternity will use its combined strength to defeat it. It is manifestly a great injustice to allow liquor dealers in one State to ship liquor in the original package or in any form into prohibitory States, or into local option districts in other States (such a favor not being enjoyed by the law of the State into which it is shipped) until it is delivered to the person who has ordered it.

Since liquor selling has been banished from the national Capitol building, the Army and Navy buildings, the Immigrant stations, it is not too much for us to expect and to work for its banishment from Soldiers' Homes and other government buildings where it is still allowed. Sentiment to the effect that the Federal government should not be connected with the liquor traffic is evidently on the increase. The refusal of the United States government to give Federal aid this year and last to State Soldiers' Homes which maintain a bar or canteen for the sale of intoxicants has led to the prohibition of liquors in all of the State Soldiers' Homes. We hope this decision will continue in force.

Mrs. Stevens devotes considerable space to a discussion of the anti-canteen law and declares that the United States is far behind some of the other countries in protecting its army from the ravages of strong drink. She quotes an army officer as saying that it is an insult to every officer in the United States army to claim that the army canteen assists in the management of his men. No reliable statistics have been brought forward, she adds, to prove that the men were better off under the canteen system than they have been since its abolishment. The charge that sickness has increased, Mrs. Stevens meets with the statement of Secretary Taft in his report of 1904, showing that the rates of sickness and mortality more nearly approach low-water mark than at any time since the outbreak of the Civil War. The assertion that enlistments would stop when the canteen was abolished is disproven by the fact that five times as many candidates apply as can be accepted.

Mrs. Stevens reiterates her recommendation of several former years that the States having no prohibitory law endeavor to secure the enactment of a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor within a radius of three miles from all army posts and government reservations. Mrs. Stevens scores the liquor manufacturers and their allies for attempting to restore the canteen in the army and says: "Let Congress again hear from the people if need be and let not the mothers and sisters of the soldier boys be silent." She confidently predicts that Congress will take no adverse action the coming winter.

Mrs. Stevens states that an immense amount of good has been accomplished through the mothers' meetings and other work of the W.C.T.U. in purifying the press and the mails, in the exclusion of immoral literature from the news stands, railroads, etc., in removing questionable pictures and advertisements from billboards. Mrs. Stevens utters a burning protest against the licensing or segregation of vice.

"It is our duty," she says, "to continue to eptition for a constitutional amendment forever prohibiting polygamy and we can use our utmost influence for the removal of Reed Smoot from the Senate of the United States."

The president calls on the W.C.T.U. to take a prominent part in the agitation against patent medicines, inasmuch as in about 700 of these preparations alcohol is the principal ingredient, and some of the most pitiable drunkards ever known acquired the appetite through the use of these so-called medicines.

One of the greatest drawbacks to the progress of temperance reform, according to Mrs. Stevens, is the example set by those occupying high and honorable positions who say they can drink moderately and it harms no one, and that any man with good mental equipment should be able to do the same. On this subject she adds:

If every man of this class could have his eyes opened to see the result of his example, as did Mark Guy Pearse, social drinking among those who are not bound by appetite would soon become a custom of the past. We have reason to believe that it is lessening all of the time, and this, too, to a remarkable degree, when we consider that thought as well as appetite is hereditary. It is not easy for those born to have cut off the fruit of family custom, and not easy for them to readily see the evil product of that which always has been regarded as their family or community or dentity, even though some of its members have been ruined by its use. We appear this kingdom on the part of those who are clear sighted on other questions and yet we have great reason to rejoice that social moderate drinkers are not as numerous as in days gone by. Fashionable drinking is a familiar expression and it is indeed encouraging to know that fashionable intemperance is being substituted for it. That liquor drinking under any conditions attracts attention and criticism more widely than ever before is one of the most inspiring features of the temperance reform.

Mrs. Stevens claims that alcoholism is the foe of the race at its fountain head, and is an important element in the question of race suicide. Alcoholism interferes with the nutrition of the mother and the nourishment of the child; and the director of the English National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children says that 1000 infants are annually "done to death" by the drinking habits of their parents.

Mrs. Stevens devotes considerable space to the progress of prohibition and says that all along the line from Maine to Texas there have been anti-saloon victories. The voters of Maine recently declared for the strict enforcement of the prohibitory law by a majority of 34,800. The law is enforced in Maine better than ever and everybody is happy about it, except the liquor dealers. The statement that prohibition injures trade and particularly the hotel business is proven false by the prosperity of Maine and the magnificent business done by its tourist hotels without bars.

Mrs. Stevens is opposed to the Gothenburg or dispensary system and says that government control of the liquor traffic has been a failure. There are six times as many arrests for drunkenness in Gothenburg, in proportion to the population, as in London or Liverpool, she says.

She congratulates the W.C.T.U. on woman's advancement. Today there is scarcely a line of remunerative employment which is not open to women, and women constitute about 20 per cent of those employed in these vocations.

The president recommends that the association continue to use its influence for desirable legislation and for the defeat of laws adverse to the principles of prohibition; that each State W.C.T.U. have printed in convenient form the laws of its State, having reference to the interests of the home; that people be aroused from their indifference; that street fairs with their debasing spectacles and shows be not tolerated; that there be more strenuous effort for organized work against cigarette smoking; that more attention be given to the pure-food problem and that endeavor be made for the same observance of holidays. "The toy pistol and dynamite cracker should never be allowed."
